Jury awards $7 million in Wyoming woman's death

By JOHN A. BALLENTINE
 For The Prairie News
 WYOMING – A jury of 12 people has awarded $7,020,883 to the family of a Wyoming woman whose wrongful death occurred on July 11, 2017, two miles west of Toulon on Route 17. Corina Miller, 41, was headed westbound on Route 17 when at 4:42 a.m. she drove into, underneath and beyond the tanker-trailer of a milk semi-truck driven by 51-year-old Timothy E. Schwenk, of Brimfield.
 Schwenk had stopped in the eastbound lane of Route 17 in front of Doug Murray's dairy farm and had backed the trailer across the westbound lane to enter the farm for a pick-up of milk.

Shown is the milk semi-truck at approximately 5 a.m. on the morning of July 11, 2017 that was across two lanes of Route 17 in front of Doug Murray's dairy farm two miles west of Toulon and Corina Miller's vehicle after it crashed into the tanker-trailer. Photo by John A. Ballentine.

 Court documentation stated that Schwenk had installed "extra bright halogen headlights on his truck two weeks previously that were for off-road use only." He used them on the road and blinded Miller as she approached from the east.

 The civil case found that Schwenk and his employer, Cluver Milk Transportation, had admitted in April Court pleadings that they were negligent and caused Miller's death. The jury deliberated two and a half hours before delivering their verdict.
 Last year in a Stark County criminal case, Schwenk won several Circuit Court decisions that resulted in that case being dismissed. Schwenk's attorney argued successfully that Schwenk's constitutional rights were violated and Circuit Judge Bruce P. Fehrenbacher agreed. Both urine and blood tests taken shortly after the fatal crash were suppressed, as well as, Schwenk's oral and written statements.

 It was argued in Stark's Circuit Court that Schwenk was never read his Miranda Rights or given a Warning to Motorists, that is normally issued in suspected DUI situations, before he was tested for intoxication. Additionally, Schwenk was detained

Galva council honors deceased alderman

By CAROL TOWNSEND
 For The Prairie News
 GALVA – A moment of silence was observed at the beginning of Monday night's city council meeting for former third ward alderman Wayne Buck for all he did for the city. Buck died in a Peoria hospital on Nov. 1 after a fall from his roof.
 During the business portion of the meeting, the council voted to temporarily amend the liquor ordinance to serve alcohol until 1:30 a.m. and to require all patrons to leave bars by 2 a.m. on Saturday and Sunday mornings. This means all patrons are out of the bar and not taking drinks outside. The ordinance applies to all Galva bars.
 The only people allowed in a bar after 2 a.m. are the owner and bartender. The council said this will be enforced.

 Nick Ballard and Harry Hergert of Crescent City Tap were present and explained to the council that before 2018, Galva's liquor license stated 2 a.m. on Saturday and Sunday morning. They said that they felt there had been an error in changing the closing time to 1 a.m.
 Police Chief Kraig Townsend reported that two officers are trying to work on Monday and Thursday afternoons on ordinance violations.
 Townsend also told the council that he has hired part-time officer Alex Wagner of rural Knox County to start as a full-for approximately four hours and during that time he made the statements, which violated his 4th and 5th amendment rights. Judge Fehrenbacher stated in his ruling, "He had no option but to submit to tests because he was never read his rights." Fehrenbacher also ruled that Schwenck was never advised that he had a choice to refuse the testing.

Corina Miller is survived by her husband, Michael, who has remarried, and by her daughter, Kaylene, who is now 25-years-old. Judge Stephen Kouri presided over the four-day trial that was tried by Bruce Pfaff and Alexander March, of Pfaff, Gill and Ports law firm, of Chicago. Schwenck and Cluver were represented by Thomas Dluski and Matthew Heflinger, of Heyl Royster law firm, of Peoria.

GALVA: Officer, dog in K-9 training

 time officer. He started in Galva in July and Chief Townsend said he has done a "wonderful job." Townsend also reported that officer Calib Ingle is in K-9 training with Galva's crime dog. During the meeting, Galva residents were reminded of the need to keep their vehicles, tractors, trailers and lawn mowers off the streets during snowstorms to assist the city with snow plowing this winter. Third ward alderman Dougie Anderson asked about the progress of the demolition of the Hemphill house on Southeast 4th Street and the West house on Southeast 1st Street. He was told that the Hemphill house will be down in December but there are still legal issues with the West house.

Anderson said he will bring up several other homes that residents are asking him about. He said one vacant house has sat in disrepair for at least 5 years following the owner's death. The council also passed a TIF resolution. TIF 1 will expire Dec. 31. City Administrator David Dyer said the city is working on replacing it with TIF 4. He said it will be later in 2022 before the agreement is completed.

Dyer said there are obligations that did not get completed with TIF 1 monies. The list includes storm-water management, tearing down three dilapidated buildings, rehabbing Market Street buildings, infrastructure water and sewer off U.S. Route 34, downtown façade improvements, EPA mandated nickel corrections, rehab off street parking and more for a total of $1,622,000. Finally, the council moved its Dec. 27 meeting to Dec. 20.

Stark County Salvation Army Kettle
 We are thankful for the blessings that we have received in the county this year. And the good folks of Stark County do a great job of sharing those blessings. Last year we were able to help many people get gasoline to make it to work or the doctor. We also helped many who found themselves running out of food at the end of the month. We bought medicine for some. Paid on rent, electric and water for others. I know that you will want to do those same things again this year. So when you see a Kettle in Stark County put in your donation. Or you can make your checks to Stark County Salvation Army Kettle and send to Stark County Salvation Army, PO Box 636, Toulon, IL, 61483. Kewanee man set for domestic battery trial

By JOHN A. BALLENTINE

For The Prairie News

TOULON – A 23-year-old Kewanee man has a Dec. 6 trial date scheduled for a case that initially charged him with Class X felony home invasion with injury, Class 4 felony domestic battery, Class 4 felony criminal trespass and battery with physical contact.

Cassel O.R. Taylor was initially arrested last Spring in Stark County after he allegedly entered the Wyoming residence of Courtney Frisby on March 16 without permission and committed battery against her and Steven Earthley.

On May 5, Taylor had his bail bond of $2,500 posted by Alicia Toliver, of East Moline. Taylor was released from custody from Stark County Jail, but was required to wear an ankle monitor as part of his bond conditions.

At a preliminary hearing concerning the counts charged against Taylor, probable cause was found for Count 2 domestic battery and Count 4 battery. Count 1 home invasion and Count 3 criminal trespass to a residence were both dismissed.

Taylor was rearrested on Nov. 16 for allegedly violating the terms of his release from custody in that he was not to have contact with Frisby, which he allegedly did on Aug. 6 in Yates City at the home of Frisby's grandmother. Purportedly Taylor was out of his restricted area as well because the ankle monitor showed him as being present in Yates City.

In Stark's Circuit Court last Friday, Stark County State's Attorney Caroline Borden Campion requested an increase in Taylor's bail bond, which subsequently was denied by Circuit Judge James A. Mack. Mack also denied Taylor's private counsel attorney Matthew Paulson's motion to have Taylor's ankle monitor removed should he post bond.

At the time of his initial arrest, Taylor was on probation in Henry County for charges he was convicted for in 2020 that included aggravated battery, battery and possession of a controlled substance.

Christmas is a time of hope and wishes.

The Stark County Good Samaritan Fund is still making a difference.

With your help we pay power bills, heating bills, water bills and much more. We help people stay in their homes when they have fallen on hard times. Most of the time what we and others in the county are able to do get them through that tough spot. You should see the joy and thankfulness in their faces when we tell them that we can help. But the SCGSF can only help as you help us meet the needs of the people of Stark County. I am sure we can count on you again this year. Make check payable to Stark County Good Samaritan Fund and send to

PO Box 233, Toulon, IL 61483. Thank You.

Have Questions or if you could use some help to get you through to that next paycheck, call 309-286-4611.

SPORTS: No starters back for SC girls

 County Wednesday, Bureau Valley Friday and Elmwood on Saturday at 5 p.m. at the tournament.

Stark Co. Girls Basketball
 With no starters back from an 11-2 team that placed second in the Lincoln Trail Conference, Stark County girls coach Scott Paxson is looking down the road a bit.

“To start the year, our strengths are yet to be determined as we have a brand new team. We will focus on defense to start the season as we develop offensively,” Paxson said. “We hope to improve during the season and be ready to compete in the LTC tournament and regional.”

Stark County has an eight-player rotation that consists of five juniors and three sophomores. Paxson said Kylee Frisby, Paige Rewerts, Lauren West and MacKenzie Tilch saw varsity time as sophomores.

The Lady Rebels started 0-3 at the Princeton Tournament, including a 45-13 loss to the host team on Nov. 18 during which SC struggled against a pressing defense.

But Stark came out much better last Saturday against Streator in a 45-26 victory. Frisby led with 18 points, Rewerts added 12 and sophomore guard Morgan Brooks tallied 10 for the Lady Rebels.

Stark County plays next on Dec. 2 at home vs. Illini Bluffs. The Dec. 1 home opener vs. Princeville was called off due to a COVID outbreak that sidelined Princes’ teams until at least Dec. 7.

Galva Boys Basketball

Galva lost its opener in the ROWVA-Williamsfield tourney, 63-42. Galva plays Port Byron Riverdale Saturday at 10 a.m. and Henry-Senachwine at 4 p.m.

Happy 60th Anniversary Fred and Darlene Reiner!

Fred and Darlene Reiner are celebrating 60 years of marriage on Dec. 8, 2021. They met because Fred's sister, Millie, was roommates with Darlene. Their first date was August of 1961 to a movie. The closest theatre was about 100 miles from the family farm in northern South Dakota. God's hand led them to get married 3 months later and go on a honeymoon to Jerusalem. God's hand has guided them faithfully ever since. Together, they have served 10 churches in Illinois.

Stark Co. boys show promise

Lady Rebels field young team as basketball tips off

By JEFF LAMPE

For The Prairie News

Despite graduating three starters and five key letterwinners, the Stark County boys basketball team shows promise this year according to Coach Dustin Browning.

“Really want to establish ourselves early in the season as a fast, athletic team that will compete and battle for the entire game,” Browning said. “We have a lot of players with athleticism and length.”

That showed up in the Rebels’ opener, as Stark County (2-0) beat Wethersfield, 51-34, in its first game at the Wally Keller Invitational in Kewanee.

The Rebels got balanced scoring in the game, with five players tallying 8 or more points: 6-foot-4 senior forward Blake Orwig (11), 6-2 senior guard Ethan Unhold (10), 6-0 junior forward Daniel Kieser (9), 6-0 sophomore guard Luke Rewerts (9) and 6-2 junior forward Joey Harmon (8). Browning expects more of the same from Stark County.

“We have lots of depth, especially with guards, and really have 11 guys that have enough skill to be successful in a varsity game,” Browning said. “We are very athletic and fast overall as a team. And we have good enthusiasm and leadership from the senior class looking to turn things around at SC.”

The turnaround continued Tuesday at Wethersfield, as the Rebels downed Annawan, 49-36. Leading 18-15 at halftime, Stark County took control with a 17-10 run in the third quarter led by Rewerts scoring 12 of his team-high 16 points. The Rebels also got 13 points from Kieser and 8 points from Unhold.

Others who have seen plenty of time so far are senior guard James Groter, the top returning scorer after averaging 5.6 points per game last year, 6-5 junior Xander Swank and 6-3 German foreign exchange student Arvid Steudte. Swank and Steudte will be asked to help inside along Orwig, the Rebels’ only true post player.

“We do not have a lot of post players with experience, but the guys we have are more athletic and able to score from more spots on the floor than previous years,” Browning said.
