TIF delay

Technicalities table vote for Princeville board on German-Bliss funds

By NICK VLAHOS

For The Weekly Post

PRINCEVILLE - Most of the Princeville Village Board was present for its meeting Monday night. But that wasn't enough to conduct legal votes regarding some tax-increment-financing issues, apparently.

The board tabled two TIF-related items because it did not have enough eligible members to vote on them. It might be until November before a full complement is available.

An agreement to reimburse German-Bliss Equipment Co. for a portion of its $1.5 million expansion project in Princeville was deferred. So was a Residential Rehabilitation Program reimbursement application for a project at 504 N. Walnut Ave.

Both items involve TIF funds. In TIF districts, property taxes that are to go to various bodies are frozen. Subsequent tax increases are diverted into a fund used for

Little middle ground among Senate candidates

By JAKE GRIFFIN

The Daily Herald

The two candidates for Illinois' U.S. Senate seat – both suburban women - challenged each other's records on women's rights, abortion access, guns and a bevy of other issues in a candidate forum Monday where little middle ground was found.

In the forum organized by the Illinois Associated Press Media Editors collaboration, Democratic incumbent Tammy Duckworth said her opponent, attorney Kathy Salvi of Mundelein, "wants to rip freedom from women" because of her "dangerous anti-choice views on abortion."

But Salvi argued Duckworth was an "extremist" on the abortion issue, saying

"there isn't an abortion she doesn't support."

Duckworth, of Hoffman Estates, reiterated multiple times she supports codifying abortion access as outlined in the now-overturned Roe vs. Wade case.

"The majority of Americans support a woman's right to make her own decisions about abortion between herself and her doctor with a 24week viability restriction," Duckworth said. "There are women who are facing cancer treatment but can't get access to an abortion so they can have their cancer treated. This is inhumane."

Salvi said she agreed with the recent U.S. Supreme Court decision reversing the 50-year-old ruling that decriminalized abortions. States now have the ability to restrict access to abortion serv-

The council also approved an ordinance for the Moose TIF payment.

Anderson-Sedgwick Funeral Home will receive $31,500 of a $42,000 resurfacing and Conklin Insurance will get $7,350 of its $9,800 repaying project.

Other TIF payments included $2,500 to Lyn-Rob Properties LLC for the demolition of a residence;

$1,500 to Jamie Young of 163 W. Fort St. for gutters; $1,725 to Natalie Hisey of 73 E. Vernon St. for a new garage door, storm doors and outdoor carpeting; and $22,643 to Hardesty Auto Parts Inc. for a new warehouse adjacent to its Napa Auto Parts store.

Hardesty is starting a mail-order auto parts business and has run out of room in its existing facility.

"This will be a big boost for our sales taxes," Mayor Kenn Stufflebeam said.

The council accepted the resignation of Scott Cox, public works assistant superintendent, who has taken a job as an operator for the Canton Streets Department after 10 years in Farmington.

Hiring of a replacement in the public works department was tabled until the next meeting.

The council heard that petition packets can be picked up for individuals seeking to run in the April 4, 2023, consolidated general election. Two-year positions to be filled in Farmington are mayor and Ward 3 alderperson. Four-year positions are for alderperson in Wards 1, 2 and 3. Petitions with signatures can be submitted starting Nov. 21 and are due by Nov. 28.

Finally, the council voted to approve Stufflebeam's appointment of Scott Voice to the Farmington Zoning Board of Appeals.

At its Sept. 19 meeting, the city council heard Farmington had received its second Cares Act payment of $151,258. A committee meeting will be held to discuss how to use the money, with some suggestions so far to add solar lighting and emergency sirens to the city bike path.

The council also approved TIF residential redevelopment grants to Tracy and Karen Bishop ($2,500), Helen Starcevich ($2,500), Keith Dollar ($2,500) and Steve Peters ($1,000). A commercial payment of $10,923 went to LynRob Properties.

At its Sept. 6 meeting, the council approved Austin DeWester of Farmington as a new full-time police officer and John Harmann to the Board of Appeals. DeWester is still training at the police academy.

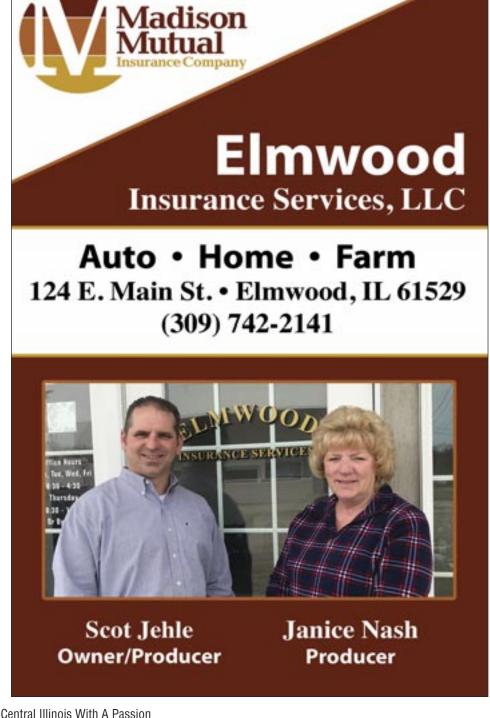

Also, Arron Kevilus was given 30 extra days until Oct. 19 to vacate his residence at 512 E. Fort St.

Commercial TIF payments were approved for resurfacing of the parking lot shared by the Bank of Yates City and Super Pantry ($28,425) and a new concrete pad and sidewalk for The Nickel Plate bar plus relocating of an air conditioning unit to the roof ($33,023).

Residential redevelopment grants went to Jeff McVey ($1,000), Jannelle King ($983), Jason Thurman ($1,950), Jeff Brown ($637), Matt Watters ($2,500), Katherine Oldfield ($3,540) and Cramer Road Developers ($1,750).

Finally, resurfacing bids for three roads came in 17 percent higher than expected, but Tazewell County Asphalt was OK'd for the project, as money was available in the MFT Fund.

GUEST VOICES

Of Midwest living, dry days & Ukraine trickery?

Rambling through central Illinois, hoping for rain.

The boring Midwest life increasingly looks appealing. We have water to drink, but no hurricanes or worries about rising sea levels. We have invasive Japanese beetles, but no pythons or anacondas. Our big toothy predator is the coyote, no alligators and only occasional bears and mountain lions. ... That being said, enough with the red dog. My vehicles are filthy. ... And a Princeton group has a solution for another problem in The Prairie State. New Illinois Inc. seeks a new state separate from Chicago and County. Writes co-founder G.H. Merritt, "Illinois is a corrupt, failed state. Illinois gives power to favored people, groups, and municipalities - notably Chicago and

urban Cook

Cook County which means it's not fulfilling its responsibilities to the rest of its citizens." Yes, the odds of a new state are miniscule. And yes, downstate Illinois relies heavily on the taxes paid by Chicago and its suburbs. But it's fun to ponder a world without Chicago telling the rest of us what to do.

The hose had just turned on when nearby bushes started filling. The sound of water gushing into a birdbath must travel. By the time I got inside to the kitchen window, sparrows were everywhere. Then finches joined the splash fest, along with a grumpy starling and several bees. They looked so happy it was impossible not to smile. But our recent dry weather also creates problems. As often happens this time of year during extended dry spells, there are reports of deer dying in fields and near water sources, with the likely cause a bug-based sickness called epizootic hemorrhagic disease. Vultures circling overhead have me worried: Is that why no bucks have shown up on camera in a few weeks? ... Despite the lack of rain, we are still officially listed as "abnormally dry" and 51 percent of Illinois' topsoil has adequate moisture, though 38 percent is short and 11 percent is very short. The western U.S. has it much worse. Ranchers in the Great Plains are selling off herds and crops there have withered and died. Sad stories abound. We are fortunate. Our crops got timely rain and are drying nicely, though through Sunday, just 13 percent of corn was in the bin – well behind the 29 percent average. No worry. Harvest should continue full force for the forseeable future, with minimal chance of rain ahead. As for me, I will keep the birdbath full.

The black-and-white tomcat in my neighborhood can read and fight. Last week we mentioned how he was important to my sleep. Well, he must have read the paper or was told of my views. Because Saturday, while I was collecting prairie seeds at home, the big tom sauntered into view. He gave me the stink eye, then headed into our bushes to an area of loose dirt. Within moments, the area stunk to high heavens. Hmmm. As cold as it has been, windows are staying shut. Less noise comes into the house. Hey cat. Don't push your luck. ... Speaking of that last column, after complaining about our gas cans, they started leaking even worse. Can gas cans read too? ... Incidentally, a replacement gas can spout arrived, but was the wrong size and won't work. Ahh, the joys of online shopping. ... Even online buys that fit often come with quirks. A black skull cap ordered off the Internet arrived recently with an eye-catching label that reads, "Made in Ukraine." That got my Spidey sense tingling. My bet: Some savvy Asian manufacturer is slapping "Made in Ukraine" labels on products to dupe Americans who are gaga over all things Ukrainian.

Bus driver deal good for Princeville schools

By NICK VLAHOS

For The Weekly Post

PRINCEVILLE – Not only is the Princeville School District willing to share a bus, it's also willing to share a bus driver.

During its meeting Sept. 20, the School Board agreed to lease a 29passenger school bus to the Special Education Association of Peoria County. The lease for the current academic year fills a need for the Bartonville-based association, according to Princeville Superintendent Shannon Duling.

It also fills a need for Princeville. The bus driver is to transport three Princeville students to and from the association each school day. In between those 24-mile one-way trips, the driver is to work as a SEAPCO aide and transport its students to various locations for work study and SEAPCO is to pay the Princeville district $500 per month, to be used toward maintenance and fuel costs.

Special-education students at Princeville received some largesse from candy sales by the local Knights of Columbus chapter. Its representatives presented the district with a check for $2,066.90, courtesy of the K of C Tootsie Roll drive.

The board also authorized an application for a matching state schoolmaintenance grant of up to $50,000. If received, the grant probably would be applied toward HVAC work, according to Duling.

Regarding personnel, the board approved a new four-year contract for Rich Thole, principal of Princeville Junior-Senior High School, that starts in the 2023-24 academic year. Thole is to receive raises of 2.4 to 6 percent during the deal, which expires one year before his scheduled retirement. Thole's current pay is $121,350 but is to top out at $143,090 in the 2027 school year.

Also approved were Cody Blunier as sophomore-class sponsor, Kamryn Clark as a Migrant Head Start/daycare aide, Jennifer Huss as eighthgrade volleyball coach, Rebecca Shipley as a special-education aide and Alyssa Venegas as a cafeteria worker, contingent on meeting licensing requirements. Kim Kirwan resigned from that job.

To avoid disease, wait to prune oak trees

The best way to prevent the spread of oak wilt is to not prune any oak tree during the growing season.

"It's best to wait until after Oct. 15 to start pruning oak trees," says Tivon Feeley, with the Iowa DNR's forest health program. "Then you can prune your oaks all winter long with the goal to stop pruning by March 1."

Oak wilt, caused by a fungus, has been present in the Midwest for many years. Red, black and pin oak are more susceptible to oak wilt, but it can also infect white and bur oak. Black, pin, or red oak usually die within the same summer they are infected. White oak and bur oak can take years before they succumb.

Oak wilt can spread from infected trees to healthy trees in two ways: a small beetle that carries spores of the fungus from a diseased tree to a healthy tree with an open wound during the growing season, and through root grafts connecting nearby oaks. For example, if a red oak is infected and there is another red oak within 50-100 feet there is a good chance the roots of these trees are grafted and the fungus can move from the diseased tree to the healthy tree.

Feeley says symptoms to look for usually include leaves turning a bronzed brown along the outer margins of the leaves. Leaves often have some green on them as they fall from the tree. Defoliation tends to start at the top of the tree.

If a tree is wounded from storm damage or pruning is required during the growing season, treat wounds immediately with acrylic paint. Do not purchase pruning paints/sealants. Those products slow the tree's ability to seal over the wound.

NOTE: Charges are merely an accusation. All suspects are presumed innocent until proven guilty in a court of law.

Former restaurant owner pleads guilty to fraud

PEORIA – The owner of a defunct Farmington restaurant pleaded guilty last week to defrauding the federal government of pandemic-relief funds, court documents stated.

Michael L. Patch, 65, of St. Augustine faces up to 30 years in prison after he admitted guilt to one count of bank fraud and two counts of wire fraud. His trial was to begin Oct. 17 in U.S. District Court in Peoria. Instead, Patch entered his plea Sept. 29. He was indicted about a year ago.

Patch owned and operated Vernon Street Grill in Farmington. In April 2020, he applied for funding from the Paycheck Protection Program and the COVID-19 Economic Injury Disaster Loan program. According to the feds, in his applications Patch used false and inflated gross receipts and payroll numbers.

Until his sentencing, scheduled for Feb. 9, Patch is free on bond.

Police reports

• FARMINGTON – Multiple burglaries were reported last weekend at a Farmington location that's part of the Spoon River Valley Scenic Drive

Burglaries were reported about 7:30 a.m. Oct. 2, according to the Farmington Police Department. Reported missing from tents in a parking lot at 125 W. Barlow Rd. were six cases of beef jerky valued at $2,400 and backpacks, hats, purses and wallets valued at $4,500.

Victims listed addresses in Naperville; Elkhart, Ind.; Hutchinson, Kan.; and Kalamazoo, Mich. Police believe the cases might be connected.

• TRIVOLI - A Trivoli man sustained serious head injuries after he apparently fell off an all-terrain vehicle, according to authorities.

Michael P. Ehrat was found about 4 p.m. Sept. 27, his 72nd birthday, in a west-side ditch in the 3400 block of N. Trivoli Rd. A helicopter transported him to OSF Saint Francis Medical Center in Peoria. There was no word about his condition.

According to the Peoria County Sheriff's Office, a passing motorist discovered Ehrat when he raised his hand from the ditch. When paramedics arrived, Ehrat was conscious and reacting to them but not speaking.

It appeared Ehrat was driving a Polaris Sportsman ATV west before it went into a culvert, where he fell off and struck his head on concrete.

• ELMWOOD – A Peoria man was arrested at an Elmwood residence and charged with unlawful possession of a weapon by a felon. Seth W. Langfeldt, 42, was taken into custody about 4 p.m. Sept. 17 in the 200 block of S. Turtle Creek Dr., according to the Peoria County Sheriff's Office. A deputy was responding to a domestic disturbance.

Langfeldt was accused of not having a valid FOID card. He also was the subject of an active order of protection.

• HANNA CITY – A Peoria man was accused of drunken driving following a single-vehicle accident west of Hanna City. Trevor W. Hills, 25, had a blood-alcohol content of .22, almost three times the legal limit, when it was measured at a Peoria hospital after the accident, according to the Peoria County Sheriff's Office. The accident happened about 1:45 a.m. Oct. 1 in the 14000 block of W. Farmington Rd.

• KICKAPOO – An Edwards man was transported to a Peoria hospital after he crashed his motor scooter east of Kickapoo, according to authorities.

Shortly after 10 a.m. Sept. 25, Mitchel W. Kellum, 34, was piloting a northbound 2006 Yamaha Morphous in the 8000 block of N. Gilles Rd. when he lost control, fell on his face onto the road and rolled into a ditch.

Kellum was transported to OSF Saint Francis Medical Center, according to a Peoria County Sheriff's Office report that didn't include the extent of his facial injuries.

• FARMINGTON – Neighboring farmers reported damage to their corn fields southeast of Farmington after someone apparently drove into them. Total damage of about $85 was estimated in the two incidents, which took place along the 21800 and 22800 blocks of W. Smithville Rd.

They were reported to the Peoria County Sheriff's Office about 3 p.m. Sept. 24. At both farms, a deputy observed damaged stalks one to three rows deep.

• TRIVOLI – A Canton woman apparently fell asleep at the wheel and rear-ended a semi-trailer truck in Trivoli, authorities stated. About 2 p.m. Sept. 19, Elsie M. Trone was driving west on Farmington Road at Trivoli Road when her 2011 Buick Acadia struck a 2002 Peterbilt truck driven by Alex A. Bill of Washington. He had slowed to turn right onto Trivoli Road, according to a Peoria County Sheriff's Office report.

Trone said she was feeling tired and planned to pull over just past the intersection for a break. An ambulance transported Trone to OSF Saint Francis Medical Center in Peoria. There was no word on her condition. Her vehicle sustained more than $1,500 in damage and was towed.

- GLASFORD About 6:30 p.m. Sept. 20, Noah M. Walraven of Yates City was driving a southbound 2022 Ford Maverick in the 8000 block of S. Trivoli Rd. when the vehicle hit a deer. Walraven said he wasn't injured, according to the Peoria County Sheriff's Office. The vehicle was damaged and towed.
- FARMINGTON Stephen M. Haberlin, 71, of Farmington was arrested about 4:45 p.m. Sept. 28 on an outstanding Fulton County warrant for aggravated criminal sexual abuse, according to the Farmington Police Department. Haberlin was transported to the Fulton County Jail.
- HANNA CITY Willis R. Van Dyke, 48, of Hanna City was arrested about 1:15 a.m. Oct. 1 and accused of failure to appear in court, according to the Peoria County Sheriff's Office.
- HANNA CITY Dirk W. Jennings, 47 of Hanna City was arrested about 8 p.m. Sept. 27 and accused of domestic battery/physical contact, according to the Peoria County Sheriff's Office.
- HANNA CITY Lyndsey M. Hanson, 35, of Hanna City was arrested about 8 p.m. Sept. 27 and accused of domestic battery/physical contact, according to the Peoria County Sheriff's Office.

PRINCEVILLE: 'Nothing nefarious'

Princeville has three TIF districts. Trustees Donald Peterson Jr. and Nathan Wineinger own property in the same TIF district as the German-Bliss and Walnut Avenue projects. According to state statutes, such ownership presents a conflict of interest that makes Peterson and Wineinger ineligible to vote.

Steven Kline, president and CEO of a Bloomington-based firm that assists municipalities with TIF management, said Trustee Lisa Hughes has an eligibility issue that has yet to be resolved. She owns property located in another village TIF district.

"There's nothing nefarious about it. There's nothing wrong about it," Kline said. "It's just a procedural issue. We want to make sure that those who are voting have the eligibility to vote."

The three ineligible trustees participated in the meeting – Peterson and Wineinger in person, Hughes electronically. Village President Jeff Troutman did not attend. The board thus was one short of a TIF-related quorum: Trustees Ron Delbridge, Teresa Gilroy and Rick Pope were eligible to vote.

Delbridge, who presided over the meeting in Troutman's absence, found some humor in the situation.

"You want us to table the next (item), too?" he said jokingly after the two TIF agenda items were shelved. "We can get through this really quick."

It's unlikely the board will be able to vote on the TIF items during its next meeting, which is scheduled for Oct. 18. Delbridge said he'll be away on vacation then.

The German-Bliss agreement has been discussed for about a year, per Kline. If approved, the agricultural and construction equipment dealer at 624 W. Spring St. would be reimbursed up to $345,000 over multiple years.

Money would come from new real-estate taxes the project is expected to spawn.

"We're not using money generated elsewhere to reimburse them," Kline

The Residential Rehabilitation Program provides residential-property owners up to $2,500 to help pay for completed exterior physical improvements.

Kline suggested the situation during the board meeting Monday night is becoming more common in smaller, rural communities.

"You have a limited number of folks who run for public office," Kline said. "And those who do run and are elected to village boards and city councils are often some of the busiest people in town, and they're also property owners."

a U.S. Senate seat are women. The two candidates traded barbs over gun con-major-party candidates for trol as well during the hourlong forum. Duckworth said she supports reinstating a ban on what have been called assault rifles and instituting a ban on high-capacity bullet magazines, saying she's heard from law enforcement the "common denominators in mass shootings are an assault weapon and a high-capacity magazine."

She argued Salvi would never vote in any way to curb access to firearms because of her "A rating" from the National Rifle Association. Duckworth received an F from the gun lobbying group.

Salvi wouldn't directly sav if she would vote to reinstate what's called an assault weapons ban. She said local, state and federal Democrats failed to follow existing laws, and that has led to an increase in crime.

"Before we consider passing any new and additional laws, we should let the laws that are on the book be implemented and employed," Salvi said.

Duckworth, a retired Army helicopter pilot who lost her legs when she was shot down in Iraq in 2004, said current laws don't do enough to curb gun violence.

"I carried an M16 for 23 years in the military," she said. "I know what those weapons are supposed to do. They are supposed to shred a human body."

When asked about climate change, both Salvi and Duckworth acknowledged the legitimacy of the crisis. But they have different views on how to com-Salvi touted natural gas as a clean fuel that could relieve some of the nation's reliance on foreign energy sources, but she complained Democrats were pursuing energy alternatives without the proper framework in place to support the conversion.

"It doesn't make sense to be able to say let's switch over to renewables before we have the infrastructure," she said. "And our economy is hurting because of it."

Duckworth touted her support of legislation that has led to greater pursuit of renewable, clean-energy sources in an attempt to combat climate change. She said her voting record has allowed the country to "position ourselves toward a future where we can fix both climate change and grow our economy right here in Illinois."

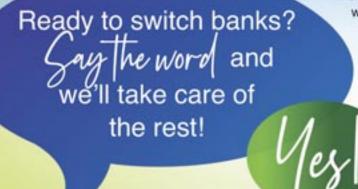

The two candidates are also far apart on finances. Salvi has raised less than $450,000, including a $250,000 loan she made to herself, according to Federal Election Commission reports. Duckworth has a war chest of nearly $8 million and has spent very little during this campaign.

The election is Nov. 8. Early voting has already begun.

OBITUARIES

Dolores J. Cox

PRINCEVILLE - Dolores Jennie (Mangold) Cox, 81, of Princeville, passed away Friday, Sept. 30, 2022, at 10:50 p.m. at the Richard L. Owens Hospice Home in Peoria.

She was born Oct. 23, 1940, in Alta, Ill., to Benjamin and Jennie (Kruse) Mangold. She married Robert Lee Cox on Nov. 19, 1966, in Peoria, and they were married almost 56 years. He survives, along with three children, Gregory Allen Cox, Bradley Allen Cox and Theresa Lynn

Dolores graduated from Dunlap High School and worked at Equifax until she was married. She was a stay-at-home mom and took care of the family farm until returning to work at the State Bank of Speer, which she retired from.

She loved her family, livestock and anything outdoors. Gardening was her passion along with making chocolate chip cookies for all the kids. She was loved and will be deeply missed by her family and all who knew her.

Graveside services will be Thursday Oct. 6, 2022, at 11 a.m. at Prospect Cemetery outside Dunlap. Davison-Fulton Woolsey-Wilton Funeral Home in Peoria is in charge of arrangements.

Memorials may be made to Dunlap Gives Back c/o Dunlap School District, 400 S Fourth Street, Dunlap, IL, 61525, or to the charity of your choice.

You may view Dolores's obituary online at www.woolsey-wilton.com.

Sharon Stone

KICKAPOO - Sharon "Sue" Stone passed peacefully in her home, in Kickapoo, surrounded by her family on Thursday, Sept. 29, 2022.

Sue was born on April 4, 1941, in Drakesville, Iowa, to Myrtle (Hasting) and Berl Wilcox. Sue later moved to Gladstone, Ill., where she met her husband. Sue married Jim Stone on Sept. 6, 1961. After their wedding they moved to Nome, Alaska, where their two children were born. In 1964, Sue and Jim moved back to Peoria and then moved to Kickapoo in 1971.

Surviving are husband Jim Stone; daughter Leslie Swearinger (John); son Jim Stone Jr. (Angie); granddaughters Brandi Lester, Jamie Gray and Tessa Merkel; great-grandson Duncan Gray; and one sister, Ann Schach (Kim). Also surviving are step-daughters Marla Stone and Lynda Gates and granddaughter Jenny Pearson.

Funeral services were to be at 11 a.m. on Wednesday, Oct. 5, 2022, at Wright & Salmon Mortuary, with a half-hour prior visitation, also at the mortuary. Burial will follow at St. Patrick's Cemetery in Kickapoo.

85 Years Ago

- The Elmwood Palace Theatre is to have 200 new seats as soon as their order can be filled.
- The Elmwood Presbyterian Church has raised $3,000 for the remodeling of its building.

90 Years Ago

• A large crowd gathered to welcome Reverend Morton and family, entering their seventh year of work in Williamsfield.

100 Years Ago

• C.E. Boley, practically the first person to maintain a Ford sales and service station in Williamsfield before selling it to Moon Motor Co. in 1922, was again taking over the Ford Agency here and the garage he formerly operated. The new firm name is to be Boley Motor Company. Moon is undecided as to his plans for the future.

110 Years Ago

• T.H. Ingold marketed 30 sows Monday, for which he received the nice sum of $1,117.

120 Years Ago

- J.D. Hedden of Farmington sold his 80-acre farm southwest of town to William Martin. Price was $95 per acre.
- Robbers entered the W.G. Sargeant's Store in Dahinda by prying open the doors. They secured no loot whatsoever, either from the store or the post office, kept by Mr. Sargeant. The main loss was the safe, which was blown up and totally destroyed.

125 Years Ago

• Richard Armstrong is having the old Douglas blacksmith shop cleared and the building standing just south moved in to take its place. Thus another Elmwood landmark has gone the way of the world.

Here's the deal, home + auto = savings.

Combine home and auto and save an average of $965*. We're ready to help you get the right coverage at the right price. Call us for a quote.

HELP WANTED • EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR: Camp

Big Sky, a nonprofit organization that provides opportunities for children and adults with disabilities to access the outdoors, is seeking an Executive Director to lead our organization. This is an exempt, full-time position responsible for the overall administration and financial development to support our mission. The Executive Director reports to a Board of Directors. The ideal candidate will be self-motivated, have outstanding organizational skills and ability to manage multiple tasks at the same time, experience in writing grants, public speaking, fundraising, social media, computer knowledge, ability to construct profit and loss statements and balance sheets, and a passion to make a real difference in the lives of those we serve. Experience in the supervision of paid and volunteer staff is desirable. This position allows the candidate to perform many duties working from home but does require periodic, limited local travel within central Illinois and work at the camp itself. For more information contact: Brad Guidi, Mission Director, guidibrad@gmail.com or (309) 635-6104. Resumes and cover letters should be emailed or mailed to Camp Big Sky, PO Box 56, Farmington, IL. 61531.

"If he played for us, he'd be an all-state running back," Hollis said. "That kid, he's a ton. Once they got moving, they stuck with it. We needed to get a couple of stops, and we really didn't get the couple of stops we needed."

Things started well for Class 2A E-B (4-2, 4-1) against the 10thrated team statewide in Class 4A. Aiden Frail's 60-yard interception return gave E-B the lead in the first three minutes.

"It was everything it was supposed to be," Hollis said about the pick-six. "He jumps right in front of it and catches it in full stride. ... Aiden Frail is a very good football player."

Frail scored again just before the end of the quarter as E-B took a 14-8 lead. After Ryner scored twice, the Trojans trailed 24-14 late in the half but were driving at the Bombers 25. An interception ended that threat.

Then Macomb stripped E-B on consecutive second-half possessions.

"Good teams capitalize when the other team makes mistakes. and sometimes they create those mistakes," Hollis said. "That's what they did. (But) I think we went pretty close to toe-to-toe with them."

A game Friday at Farmington looms for E-B. Hollis knows what his players need to do to neutralize the Farmers.

"They absolutely want to run the ball, and that's what they've done for years," he said. "You better stop that. Otherwise, you're in big trouble."

ROWVA-Williamsfield 34 Stark County 13

WYOMING – The visitors' locker room survived the ROWVA-Williamsfield football team's enthusiasm. The Stark County running game did not.

R-W held the hosts to 69 yards rushing as the Cougars' defense dominated a Lincoln Trail Conference victory.

Riley Danner's 20-yard touchdown pass to Jaxon Sharp with 9:41 left in the second quarter broke a 7-7 tie and put R-W (4-2, 3-1) ahead for keeps. After that, R-W sacked Stark County junior quarterback Luke Rewerts four times before illness forced him from the game early in the second

"They were very aggressive," Stark County Coach Jade Noard said. "We just didn't seem to have a whole lot of pep in our step. We seemed a little groggy. Maybe that's what they did to us. They kind of made us one-dimensional."

The postgame celebration after R-W's win sounded like something from the fourth dimension. Raucous, joyful noise emanated from the Cougars' cozy, shed-like dressing room next to Gary Johnson Field.

"We tried to rock the building. It almost went down," R-W lineman Graham Wight said, smiling.

In truth, the locker room never was in danger. But Stark County (4-2, 2-2) was in trouble almost from the start.

The R-W offense did its part. Danner passed for 203 yards and the Cougars rushed for 244. Bryan Bertlshofer ran for 129 yards, including 81 for a touchdown that gave R-W a 20-7 lead with 9:05 left in the third quarter.

But according to R-W Coach Grant Gullstrand, defense was emphasized in practice following a 20-point loss Sept. 23 to Mercer County.

"Fundamental things," Gullstrand said. "We kind of got away from fundamentals to try to do too much to stop some stuff Mercer County did. We made things a little more basic and we played fast tonight on defense."

That speed caught up to Rewerts. He lost a total of 36 yards on the four sacks - two by Grant Erlacher, one each by Wight and

SCOREBOARD

Luke Nelson.

During the first drive of the third quarter, not long after Erlacher's second sack, Rewerts departed. According to Noard. Rewerts had been dealing all week with stomach issues and migraine headaches. Aliments caused Rewerts to miss a day of school and practice.

"He couldn't keep going," Noard said. "It wasn't any one hit that happened."

Backup QB Xander Swank led a four-play scoring drive that cut the Stark County deficit to 27-13 with 11:21 left in the game. Swank passed for 117 yards overall, an effort Noard praised.

Running wasn't going to save the Rebels. Nolan Orwig had a team-high 40 yards. Rewerts ran for 7 yards on 10 carries.

"They took our running game away," Noard said.

That was part of the plan, according to Wight.

"Coach told us we've got to make them a single-threat team," he said. "If we can eliminate their run game and force them to pass, our D-line can do their jobs and allow corners and backs to execute what they're supposed to do."

If R-W wins one of its remaining three games, it will advance to the state playoffs for the first time. On paper, the best victory opportunity might be Friday night, a home game against Monmouth United (1-5, 0-5).

Mercer County 51, Princeville 14

ALEDO – Through two quarters, the Princes were playing their best football of the season. Then the home team came out of the locker room in a wishbone formation and never looked back.

Tied 14-14 at the break thanks to a 16-yard touchdown pass from Logan Carruthers to Jordan Johnson and a 43-yard run by Tayshaun Kieser, Princeville gave up 37 unanswered points in the final two quarters.

"They scored on us, we went three and out and they had a punt return for a touchdown, then they got an onside kick and the wheels fell off," Princeville Coach Jon Carruthers said. "But the first half showed the kids what they are capable of doing. We played probably the best half of football we've played. Hopefully they can build on that and get on a little run here."

Princeville has games at 1-5 Abingdon-Avon and at 0-6 Walther Christian before closing at home against Stark County in a game that could well decide the playoff fate for both teams.

R-W volleyball adds two more victories

For The Weekly Post

ROWVA-Williamsfield (14-4) kept rolling with an 18-25, 25-17, 25-13 volleyball win at non-conference foe Abingdon-Avon on Sept. 28.

"It wasn't pretty, but we pulled out the win," R-W assistant coach Jaime Trotter said. "We played terrible until the third set, then started playing our game."

Chloee Secrist blocked four and had seven kills. Natalie Gonzalez got 15 assists and 12 digs. Angelina Adame had 14 service points.

The Lady Cougars also beat Henry on Sept. 27, 25-16, 25-18. Sawyer Secrist scored on nine kills. Gonzalez had 18 assists and 10 digs. Lizzie Johnston recorded 10 digs. Adame got eight service points.

"We're playing great right now. We hope this can continue for next month," Trotter said.

R-W is at the ICAC Tournament Saturday at North Fulton.

Princeville

Princeville (14-6) defeated Galva 25-8, 25-12 on the road on Sept. 28 in a Lincoln Trail contest.

Elmwood

Elmwood (10-10) fell 25-21, 27-25 to Prairieland rival Knoxville on the road last Thursday. Etta Wagner scored seven kills. Mahala Mercer assisted on six scores. Kate Yemm had 13 digs. Maci Marincic also recorded 13 digs. Liv Meyers got three blocks in the effort.

Next up for EHS is an ICAC trip to Delavan today (Oct. 6).

Farmington

Farmington (6-15) fell in three sets to Prairieland rival Lewistown on Monday. The Lady Farmers next go to Eureka on Saturday.

Brimfield

Brimfield (14-8-2) picked up a Prairieland victory on the road over Lewistown in three 25-18, 22-25, 25-10 last Thursday. Kennedy Teubel was the kills leader for the Lady Indians with 13. Elly Doe was busy with 16 assists and three aces. Ella Florey and Brittlyn Lazzell each recorded two blocks.

Elmwood golfer misses state berth in playoff

By The Weekly Post

SILVIS - Elmwood junior Tanner Wake came within a playoff of making the IHSA Class 1A state golf tournament.

Wake shot a 10over round of 81 at the TPC Deere Run course in sectional action Monday. Wake tied with two others for the last of 10 individual qualifying spots for the state tournament, which starts Friday at Prairie Vista in Bloomington. But Thomas Hereau of River Ridge won the playoff on No. 18 vs. Wake and Bryson Hall of Monmouth-Roseville.

"Tanner has been a great leader for our golf team. He set a record with medalling at the most tournaments (beating his brother Charlie) as well as the farthest advancement in postseason play according to the records we have," Elmwood Coach Stephanie Colgan said.

Wake advanced to the sectional from a Sept. 28 regional at Gibson Woods Golf Course in Monmouth. where he shot 81 to finish six shots off the lead. Also advancing at the regional were Drew Kieser of Brimfield and Jake McGarry of ROWVA-Williamsfield, who carded rounds of 88, and Cade Farquer of R-W, who shot 93. R-W led area teams by placing fourth at the regional, missing the sectional by one spot.

In the sectional, McGarry shot 89 at the TPC Deere Run course, Kieser fired a 92 and Farquer carded a 99.

Rivalry renewed?

Playoffs at stake for E-B vs. Farmington

By JEFF LAMPE and NICK VLAHOS

For The Weekly Post RUSHVILLE – One week after being stunned, Farmington went back to its football basics.

By piling up 423 yards on 47 carries while completing just two passes, the Farmers (4-2, 4-1 Prairieland) returned to the win column with a 33-16 victory at Rushville-Industry.

The result also set up an interesting matchup Friday, as Elmwood-Brimfield (4-2, 4-1) will visit Farmington with a playoff berth and second place in the conference on the line.

"It's probably going to be the best Elmwood-Farmington game since 2017-18," Farmers Coach Toby Vallas said. "There won't be any surprises."

The Trojans can be expected to run and so also can the Farmers, who struggled offensively in a 58-7 loss to Macomb on Sept. 23.

Not so at Rushville, where Farmington running back Rese Shymansky (24 carries, 197 yards) and quarterback Gage Renken (14 carries, 149 yards) combined for five scores in a back-to-basics attack.

"Protecting the football and special teams were a big issue (against Macomb), and I think we got those rectified for the most part," Vallas said. "We did a nice job of being much more physical and deliberate in what we were doing.

"We had to be consistent. That's something we've struggled with. Even in the past when we've had some really good teams, we didn't have to be as consistent because we were so explosive. We're just not as fast as we've been. That's no knock on our kids, we just have to win a different way and know who we are."

After a scoreless first quarter at Rushville, the Farmers scored twice to grab a 13-8 halftime lead that grew in the second half.

"It was a very physical game and I did feel like we were in control the whole game," Vallas said.

Farmington has won six straight against E-B since dropping a wild 77-64 decision in 2015. The Farmers are 9-4 vs. E-B since the two local rivals started playing each other again in 2010.

ELMWOOD - In its previous Prairieland game, against Farmington, Macomb's passing was prolific. Against E-B, the Bombers (6-0, 5-0) ran and ran. More accurately, Max Ryner did.

Ryner rushed for four touchdowns and 235 yards, more than the entire E-B total. To say the least, Trojans Coach Todd Hollis

Expectations shifting for E-B cross country

By JEFF LAMPE

For The Weekly Post
ELMWOOD – Since starting the year with a young team and modest hopes, expectations have changed for the ElmwoodBrimfield boys cross country team.

The most recent shift came Saturday as the Trojans ran second to Eureka at the Elmwood Invite at Maple Lane Country Club and now rank 9th in Class 1A – up from 21st when the season began.

Led by junior Isaiah Hill's fourth (16:03.2), E-B also got strong races from the rest of its top five: sophomore Mika Nelson (17th, 16:33.8), senior Brendan Williams (23rd, 16:43.7), freshman Aiden Faulkner (26th, 16:47) and sophomore Reed Florey (29th, 16:56.3).

"At the start of this year our goal was to qualify for state as a team. As the year has progressed and the guys have shown significant improvement as a team, we have raised those goals," E-B Coach Gregg Meyers said. "I have been really happy with the effort at practice and improved mental toughness we have shown both at practice and in races, which has led to some really good performances in our recent meets. Now we are setting goals that include finishing in the top 10 at state."

The E-B girls placed fourth Saturday behind Eureka, Pleasant Plains and El Paso-Gridley.

"Our goal was to have a race time within 15 seconds of what we did on Tuesday's conference meet. Five out of the seven that raced Tuesday and Saturday got that goal," E-B Coach Kyle Anderson said. "Chloe Kelly (30th, 20:21.8) and Bre Turner were faster Saturday than they were on Tuesday so they had a very good day. Addy Turner (53rd, 21:24.4) also had a PR Saturday after not racing Tuesday."

Leading E-B was Addie Symonds (9th, 19:03), followed by Natalie Babcock (34th, 20:34.8) and Olivia
