New mayor candidate in Billtown

By NICK VLAHOS
 For The Weekly Post

WILLIAMSFIELD – Barring anything unforeseen, a 30-year Williamsfield resident will be village president next spring.

Robert Johnson was the only presidential candidate nominated Monday night during a caucus held at the American Legion hall in Williamsfield. Incumbent Matt Tonkin is not running for a second four-year term.

Tonkin nominated Johnson at the caucus, which about 35 people attended. While Johnson will be unopposed on the ballot for the municipal election April 4, write-in candidates are welcomed.

“He’ll be very objective,” Tonkin said. “He doesn’t have any WILLIAMSFIELD – Graham Health System officials like Williamsfield so much they’ve decided to put down roots.

The Canton-based health-care organization now owns the building at 120 E. Gale St. where Graham Medical Group opened a clinic about two years ago. The purchase from previous owner Matt Tonkin and his MLKT, LLC became final about six weeks ago, according to Bob Senneff, the Graham president and CEO. According to Knox County records, the property sold for $55,000.

Legislators pass a few laws; assault weapons ban ahead?

By PETER HANCOCK
 Capitol News Illinois

SPRINGFIELD – Illinois lawmakers last week passed significant legislation dealing with electric vehicle manufacturing incentives and the availability of hygiene products for prisoners in the state’s correctional system.

But some weightier issues, including a possible assault weapons ban, will wait until a lame duck session scheduled for early January.

Last week, lawmakers wrapped up a five-day fall veto session that focused mainly on changes to the SAFE-T Act criminal justice reform package first adopted in 2021 and a $1.8 billion infusion of cash into the state’s Unemployment Insurance Trust Fund.

But several other bills passed as well, including an expansion of tax credits and other

Controversial house to be demolished

By JEFF LAMPE
 For The Weekly Post

FARMINGTON – One of the most controversial houses in this town will soon be a pile of rubble.

The Farmington City Council on Monday voted unanimously to select the low bid of $13,800 from River City Demolition of Peoria to tear down and remove the structure at 512 E. Fort St. That address was once the site of various profane signs criticizing the city of Farmington, ex-mayor Ken Kowal and the Ulm Veterinary business next door.

The city purchased the house from owner Aaron Kevilus for $61,500 in June, at which time he was also paid $25,000 to settle a lawsuit. Kevilus has since moved out of town.

“We’re never going to get this money back, but we’ve got to tear this house down,” said Kenn Stufflebeam, Farmington’s acting mayor.

Stufflebeam said the city will discuss what to do with the lot once the house is torn down. He said the property will be zoned residential.

Glover

Arrenholz Excavating of Trivoli submitted the only other demolition bid, of $16,000.

In other business, the council approved hiring Byron Glover as a full-time police officer after accepting the resignation of Officer Kyle Welker, who was hired in February but is moving on to a job with the Fulton County Sheriff’s office.

Glover is from Kingston Mines and is a volunteer with the Timber-Hollis Fire Department.

Another new officer, Austin DeWester, will graduate from the police

CLINIC: More hours possible in the future

 Williamsfield serves anywhere from 10-24 patients per day on average, Senneff said. It replaced a medical office Peoria-based OSF HealthCare once maintained in Billtown, although the building had been vacant for a while. According to Tonkin, he purchased the building from OSF about three years ago and undertook an extensive renovation. "I hope it sends a signal that we're there for the long term," Senneff said about the Graham purchase. "Having ownership of the building, we can put a little more money into it than we could as a tenant." Initially, that investment might become evident in new landscaping and signs. But so far, all signs point to a prosperous practice in Williamsfield, according to Senneff. Medical staff there have seen about 2,700 patients from 90-some ZIP codes, including Kewanee and Monmouth, Senneff said. The main medical personnel – Dr. Mark DeYoung and advanced-practice registered nurses Kristen

Jackson and Dara Wagner – are based at the Graham clinic in Elmwood. Graham Hospital is in Canton. In addition to Elmwood and Williamsfield, the health system has medical offices in Canton, Farmington, Galesburg, Havana and Lewistown. Another facility is expected to open next year in Macomb. Williamsfield's proximity to the Elmwood clinic, about 13 miles, helped lead Graham to nudge north its footprint, according to Senneff.

llege president, and his wife, Lora Kutkat. In and out of his official role, Tonkin has helped undertake improvement initiatives in his community of about 600 residents. "I was very excited, both as village president and as a private citizen, that Graham wanted to buy the clinic building and make this a permanent arrangement," Tonkin said in an email. "It means they are here 'for good,' and I think the community should be overjoyed. I certainly am." Unlike the Graham clinic in Elmwood, the Williamsfield office has no imaging equipment. But Senneff foresees an inevitable expansion of service there, probably starting with office hours four or five days a week. Senneff even suggested Graham might need a bigger building someday in Billtown. For now, he and Tonkin appear satisfied with a more permanent status quo. "We've gotten back to what that community was used to from a health-care perspective and now are looking to grow it even more," Senneff said. "It's got a bright future up there for us."

GUEST VOICES

Of gun laws, Xmas Guardians & squirrels

Rambling through central Illinois, remembering Yukon Cornelius.

Should someone under age 21 be allowed to own a gun or ammunition? Isn't that a constitutional right? Or is it only OK for them to touch guns while toiling in the military and putting their lives at risk? When will we finally decide what age constitutes adulthood? 18? 21? 75? Those are among the questions worth asking in regards to House Bill 5855, which will generate plenty of headlines between now and its appearance during the Jan. 4-10 lame-duck session of the Illinois legislature – when passage will require only a simple majority. ... HB 5855 would take away the right to own guns or ammunition for any residents under 21, unless they serve in the U.S. military or National Guard. The bill would also outlaw the manufacture, delivery or sale of an "assault weapon," an "assault weapon" attachment, a .50-caliber rifle or a .50-caliber cartridge. Even possession of those firearms would be illegal within 300 days of passage of the act, unless the firearm is registered with the Illinois State Police. ... If you are a gun owner, you should read the bill's full text, which is readily available online and spells out a list of firearms that would be outlawed – including AR15s.

Every family has holiday traditions, some of which center around watching a favorite movie or television program. Every year we watch "It's a Wonderful Life" and I still remember every scene from "A Charlie Brown Christmas" and the quirky "Rudolph the Red-Nosed Reindeer" special that featured Burl Ives as a singing snowman and The Bumble. Add another must-watch to the list. After struggling to get in the Christmas spirit last weekend, my wife provided a needed boost by suggesting I watch "The Guardians of the Galaxy Holiday Special." The new 44-minute special available on Disney+ was, for me, an instant classic. The premise is very funny and, except for some cursing and a little violence, offers heart-warming family fare. If you enjoy the Guardians you will like this show – which will be replayed every year for decades in our household.

Black squirrels were a hot topic the other day. My buddy The Farmer asked if we had imported our black squirrels from Galva, which apparently also has a sizable population of the rodents. I explained that the Elmwood population had likely migrated from Yates City. Furthermore, I told him I've seen several skinny little black squirrels on the eastern outskirts of Elmwood, which means they are likely headed to Brimfield in search of greener trees. Let me know when they arrive. ... Then the other day, we had a fat black squirrel in the yard – unusual since they are typically skinny and scrawny. Not this one, which looked like it must have some fox squirrel in its family tree.

Parting shot: Here's a list of the most and least conservative state legislatures in the U.S. as compiled by the Center for Legislative Accountability based on lawmaker votes for "the conservative position." Most conservative = 1. Alabama, 2. Tennessee, 3. Indiana, 4. South Dakota, 5. Arkansas, 6. Florida, 7. Idaho, 8. Wyoming, 9. Iowa, 10. West Virginia. Least conservative = 50. Massachusetts, 49. Hawaii, 48. Rhode Island, 47. California, 46. Maryland, 45. Vermont, 44. New York, 43. New Jersey, 42. Connecticut, 41. Oregon, 40. Nevada. Amazingly, Illinois checked in at No. 36.

PUBLIC RECORD

NOTE: Charges are merely an accusation. All suspects are presumed innocent until proven guilty in a court of law.

Edwards man jailed for hitting father of fiancée

• EDWARDS – An Edwards man punched in the face the father of his fiancée during an altercation that involved all three, according to authorities.

Trevor L. Smith, 24, was arrested following the incident, which happened about 5:30 a.m. Dec. 2 at a residence in the 6300 block of N. Grace Lane in rural Edwards.

Events culminated with an intoxicated Smith punching the 59-year-old victim, according to a Peoria County Sheriff's Office report.

When deputies arrived, the victim was holding an ice pack over his right eye. The area around his eye was red, swollen and bloody.

Smith was accused of domestic battery/physical contact and transported to the Peoria County Jail. He received a notice to appear in court.

Police reports

• TRIVOLI – A Trivoli man suspected of involvement in a Fulton County traffic accident was arrested on two outstanding warrants.

Cameron B. Snider, 24, was taken into custody about midnight Dec. 1 at a residence in the 18200 block of W. Farmington Rd. in Trivoli. A Peoria County Sheriff's Office deputy was dispatched there upon a welfare-check request from Fulton County colleagues.

Snider said he was OK and was not involved in a vehicle accident, according to a Peoria sheriff's-office report.

Snider was wanted in Peoria County for driving with a suspended license and in Fulton County for improper possession of adult-use cannabis.

He was transported to the Peoria County Jail.

• HANNA CITY – No injuries were reported in a two-vehicle collision west of Hanna City.

The accident happened shortly before 5 p.m. Nov. 28 at Farmington and Eden roads.

According to the Peoria County Sheriff's Office, a 2017 Subaru Outback driven by Mary C. Ludlum of Canton rear-ended a 2018 Nissan sport-utility vehicle driven by Patricia A. Boyer of Hanna City.

Both vehicles were westbound on Farmington Road when Boyer stopped to turn south on Eden Road. The collision pushed her vehicle off the road and into a ditch, a sheriff's-office report stated.

Both vehicles sustained more than $1,500 in damage and were towed.

• ELMWOOD – A Peoria woman was accused of driving a friend's vehicle into another of his vehicles parked at his rural-Elmwood residence.

A Peoria County Sheriff's Office deputy was summoned about 1 p.m. Nov. 25 to the 7900 block of N. Pulsifer Rd. There, the victim said Tiffany E. Ford backed a 2008 Chevrolet Colorado pickup truck into a 2010 Volkswagen Jetta.

The incident happened a few days earlier, per a sheriff's-office report.

The deputy noted the Jetta's front bumper was detached and its driver's-side headlight was broken.

The victim said he has allowed Ford to use his pickup truck for several months. Ford was not at the scene, and the deputy's attempt to contact her was futile. No injuries were reported.

• KICKAPOO – No injuries were reported in a two-vehicle collision at the west edge of Kickapoo.

About 1:45 p.m. Nov. 21, Janine R. Dearing of Princeville was driving a 2018 Honda pickup truck west on U.S. Route 150 at Voorhees Road when it struck a 2021 GMC pickup truck that was towing a livestock trailer. The driver was Lane G. Schilling of Okawville.

Dearing said she was behind Schilling's vehicle when she swerved to avoid hitting it. Schilling's vehicle had slowed to turn north on Voorhees Road and Dearing had taken her eyes off the pavement momentarily, according to a Peoria County Sheriff's Office report.

The Honda had extensive body damage along its driver's side and was inoperable, the report stated.

That vehicle was towed. The right-rear corner of the GMC's passenger-side door was damaged, and the trailer was scraped and gouged.

• TRIVOLI – Blake M. Johnson, 31, of Trivoli was arrested at 4:15 p.m. Dec. 3 and accused of failure to appear in court, according to the Peoria County Sheriff's Office.

• BRIMFIELD – Joseph T. Coyle, 28, of Brimfield was arrested at 11:30 a.m. Nov. 30 and accused of home invasion that causes injury, domestic battery/physical contact and interfering with a report of domestic violence, according to the Peoria County Sheriff's Office.

• FARMINGTON – Farmington Police Chief Chris Darsham reported the following activity for his department in November: 283 business checks, 4,047 building checks, 1 crash handled, 1 property crime, 25 ordinance violations/traffic tickets issued, 3 crimes against people (assaults, batteries, orders of protection), 12 miscellaneous, 26 traffic stops, 6 arrests, 17 reports completed, 283 calls for the month and 20 assist other police department calls.

BILL: Would make it illegal for anyone under 21 to own a firearm

incentives aimed at promoting electric vehicle manufacturing in Illinois.

Last year, lawmakers passed the Reimagining Electric Vehicles in Illinois Act, or REV Illinois, that provided tax incentives for electric vehicle manufacturers, or companies that manufacture certain component parts for electric vehicles, to locate or expand in Illinois.

Under that program, companies receiving the breaks could receive a state income tax credit of 75-100 percent of payroll taxes withheld from each new employee and 25-50 percent for retained employees. The law also provided a 10 percent credit for training expenses.

The stated goal of that program was to make Illinois a hub for electric vehicle manufacturing. But other states have been getting into the game as well, including Indiana and Michigan, which some people have argued offer better incentives than Illinois.

The first and only contract under the REV Act thus far was signed between the state and T/CCI Manufacturing in Decatur in September to create an estimated $2.2 million in value for the company to retool its facility that manufactures compressors.

House Bill 5189, which cleared the General Assembly Thursday, Dec. 1, expands the incentives to be available to the makers of more component parts, and raises the maximum tax credit to 75 percent of the incremental income tax attributable to retained employees. That amount can also go to 100 percent, depending on where the jobs are located.

That language was part of an "omnibus" tax bill that also includes a five-year extension of tax deductions for contributions to ABLE accounts, a savings program for people with disabilities; an expansion of the Live Theater Production tax credit to make more productions eligible for the credit; and a provision stating that any student loan forgiveness that may be approved by the federal government will not count as taxable income for Illinois taxes.

Inmate hygiene

Lawmakers also passed a bill ensuring that inmates in the custody of the Illinois Department of Corrections will have free access to underwear and menstrual hygiene products.

House Bill 4218, by Rep. Barbara Hernandez, D-Aurora, follows other bills lawmakers have passed recently that seek to end what advocates have called "period poverty." In 2021, lawmakers passed a series of bills to expand the availability of such products, including requirements that they be made available in college and university restrooms and homeless shelters.

Another bill called on the Department of Human Services to apply for a federal waiver so the products would be eligible for purchase through the SNAP and WIC food assistance programs in Illinois.

Lame-duck session

Some of the weightier issues lawmakers hope to deal with before the next General Assembly is sworn into office are being deferred to a lame-duck session that is scheduled for five days between Jan. 4 and 10.

That's because the Illinois Constitution requires that any bill passed after May 31 of a calendar year must receive at least a three-fifths majority to have an immediate effective date. Otherwise, they do not take effect until June 1 of the following year.

But bills that pass after Jan. 1 – even during lame-duck sessions that occur before newly elected lawmakers are sworn in – need only a simple majority to have an immediate effective date.

Among the issues expected to be debated is a proposed ban on the sale or possession of assault-style weapons and high-capacity ammunition magazines.

Those are the same types of weapons and ammunition systems that have been used in multiple mass shootings in the United States. But calls for banning them in Illinois intensified after a mass shooting at an Independence Day parade last summer in Highland Park that left seven people dead and dozens more injured.

On Thursday, Dec. 1, the final day of the veto session, Rep. Bob Morgan, D-Deerfield, filed HB 5855, the "Protect Illinois Communities Act," which would make it illegal to manufacture, deliver, sell or purchase an assault weapon, assault weapon attachment, .50-caliber rifle or .50-caliber cartridge.

It would also make it illegal for anyone to possess such a weapon or ammunition 300 days after the effective date of the act, unless it is registered with the Illinois State Police. The bill would also remove the ability of people under age 21 to own firearms and ammunition, with an exception for those serving in the U.S. military or National Guard.

And it would amend the state's Firearms Restraining Order Act by allowing state's attorneys and assistant state's attorneys to act as a "friend of the court" in restraining-order petitions while extending the maximum length of those restraining orders to one year instead of six months.

Morgan, whose district includes Highland Park, served as leader of the Firearm Safety and Reform Working Group that House Speaker Emanuel "Chris" Welch appointed earlier this year.

"Gun violence is destroying families and communities from East St. Louis to Highland Park to Chicago, and this moment demands urgency," Morgan said in a statement.

Chief cosponsors of the bill include Reps. Maura Hirschauer, D-Batavia; La Shawn Ford, D-Chicago; and Hernandez, all of whom have backed similar legislation in the past.

BILLTOWN: 3 incumbents running for board

 axes to grind, good guy, just wants the community to do well.”
 Johnson, 58, is an executive at Bridgeway Inc., a Galesburg-based not-for-profit organization that provides services for people with intellectual and physical disabilities.
 “The town is going in the right direction,” Johnson said. “There’s been a lot of great things that have happened here. I just want to make sure that we continue in that direction, and I want to help steer that.”
 Johnson is from Chillicothe originally. He and his wife, Frieda, have four adult children, all of whom attended Billtown schools.
 “Matt had approached me and asked if I’d be interested in doing the job,” Johnson said. “I said, ‘Absolutely. I’d love to step up and help.’”

 Work and life accelerations convinced Tonkin not to run again, he said. He travels frequently in his job as president of an environmental and water-resource consultancy.
 Tonkin and his wife, Lora Kutkat, have two young children and have been involved with multiple local businesses and community-development projects. Kutkat also serves on the Williamsfield school board.
 “We just don’t have time,” Tonkin said. “It’s funny – when politicians always say, ‘I’m quitting to spend time with my family,’ I always thought, ‘Sure.’ I said to Lora, ‘I can’t believe it, but I’m basically saying I need to step back to spend time with my family,’ and that’s the truth.”

 “We took on a lot and spent four solid years investing our time and energy and finances in the community. Williamsfield in turn has been incredible to Lora and I and our family.”
 Tonkin, a native of England, said he’d be open to returning to village government down the road.
 Also emerging from the caucus were three incumbent candidates for three Village Board seats up for election in April: Nancy Everett, Trudy Self and Julie Van Dran.
 Following the caucus, Tonkin and trustees gathered for their December meeting. They authorized a tax levy of $31,849.45 for the 2023 fiscal year. The levy basically is unchanged from recent years, Tonkin said.

FARMINGTON: Budget hearing Dec. 19

training academy on Friday. He was hired in September.

Outgoing City Administrator Rollen Wright provided the council with a 2022-23 budget that will be voted on during the Dec. 19 board meeting, following a hearing at 7 p.m.

“It is in the black,” Wright said of a budget that shows projected revenues of $3,328,125, projected expenses of $2,868,757 and an expected ending cash balance of $2,497,856.17.

Wright said that when he presented his first budget as city administrator on April 1, 2010, “there were no cash-on-hand balances because we didn’t have any cash on hand.”

“Our budget is a lot more sound now,” he said.

In other business, Alderman Dave Rose said he is exploring better rates for two city CDs at the Bank of Yates City that expire Dec. 20 and currently yield .35 percent and .45 percent interest. He plans to meet with the Bank of Yates City and the Bank of Farmington to check rates for a nine-month CD, versus the previous two-year commitment.

Finally, council members were given an ordinance that will be on the Dec. 19 agenda and would establish qualified immunity for city police officers in response to changes being ushered into Illinois law Jan. 1 as part of the SAFE-T-Act. Those include the possibility for personal lawsuits against law-enforcement officers.

“We want to make sure they are able to do their job without fear of repercussions,” Stufflebeam said.

State elections board certifies 2022 results

SPRINGFIELD – The Illinois State Board of Elections certified its election results Monday, putting the final stamp on another Democratic sweep of statewide offices.

The board reported that 4,142,642 out of 8,115,751 registered voters cast ballots in the election, a turnout of roughly 51 percent. That's down from a turnout of more than 57 percent in 2018, but up from a 49 percent turnout in 2014.

The final margin of victory for Gov. JB Pritzker over Republican challenger state Sen. Darren Bailey was a resounding one, about 12.54 percentage points. Pritzker notched more than 2.25 million votes to Bailey's 1.74 million.

The lead vote-getter for Democrats was Comptroller Susana Mendoza with 2.33 million votes.

An amendment to the state's constitution passed with 53.42 percent of the ballots cast in the election. The amendment guarantees workers a right to unionize in Illinois.

Dogtown Lane bridge reopens for traffic

ELMWOOD – The Peoria County Highway Department has reopened the Dogtown Lane Bridge, located

2 miles south of Illinois Route 8, or 0.75 miles north of Graham Chapel Road. The bridge has been closed since June for replacement work.

Finishing work continues on the project, including permanent striping in the coming weeks and permanent seeding in the spring. Motorists should continue to watch for workers and drive with caution.

College graduate

MACOMB – Paige Rock of Princeville will graduate from Western Illinois University this month with a degree in psychology. She graduates with academic distinction, cum laude.

Brimfield village board discusses water project

By LORI HEROLD

For The Weekly Post

BRIMFIELD – The Brimfield Village Board on Monday approved another meeting between its engineer and an engineer from the Rural Route 150 Water District engineer after it was determined more discussion was necessary following a meeting last month.

Brimfield Village President Dan Fishel said the board will be kept up to speed as more information is available about a proposed project to extend Brimfield's water lines. The project will be put on the agenda for the board's next meeting on Jan. 9.

The board also approved a $700 donation to the Christmas Basket Program.

Discussion about village-owned property on South Adams Street was tabled again.

Board member Allison Porter commented on another "excellent Christmas Walk," referring to the Dec. 3 luminary walk. Fishel agreed, saying he heard great comments about the event and thanked Village Clerk, Holly Johnson, for an outstanding job, as well as all others who were involved.

A member of the audience asked about reflectors put on water meters. Fishel said reflectors help locate meters in case of snow.

Princeville asks about patrols 6 days per week

By NICK VLAHOS

For The Weekly Post

PRINCEVILLE – Future, consistent police protection in Princeville might take place five days a week or seven. But what about six?

Village officials intend to ask the Peoria County Sheriff's Office.

During its meeting Monday, the Village Board tabled a decision regarding a five-year contract extension with the sheriff's office, which provides eight-hour daily patrols in Princeville. Trustees have balked at a proposed increase in the cost.

Reducing coverage to eight hours five days a week would result in a significant savings, according to sheriff's-office figures Village President Jeff Troutman provided.

Troutman and others would prefer those five patrol days be Tuesdays through Saturdays, but Sheriff Chris Watkins said it would be difficult to find a deputy willing to commit to that schedule.

Village Public Works Superintendent Chad Gardner floated an idea not pondered in public previously – eight hours of coverage six days a week. A dedicated deputy could patrol the village Monday through Friday, with other deputies in town Saturdays or Sundays.

Such a plan is close to the status quo. The same deputy works weekdays and others work weekends.

"You're still saving that one day a week," Gardner told the board. "We'll probably be close (in expense) to where you're at now."

The current police-protection cost is about $130,000 annually. The proposed contract raises that to about $143,500 in 2023, then gradually to almost $168,000 in 2027.

According to Watkins, the eight-hour five-day cost is $104,000 in 2023, then $109,200 in 2024, $114,400 in 2025, $117,832 in 2026 and $121,367 in 2027. Troutman estimated a sixth day might cost an additional $20,000 a year. Watkins is to provide concrete figures.

The current contract expires at the end of this month. The board has one more meeting scheduled this year, Dec. 20. A decision regarding a contract renewal is expected then. Absent a six-day proposal, the board appeared to favor the five-day option.

"I do like these numbers a lot better for five days a week than seven," Trustee Ron Delbridge said. "It keeps the costs manageable."

In other matters, the board at long last agreed to reimburse German-Bliss Equipment Inc. for a portion of its recent $1.5 million expansion project. The reimbursement is to be up to $345,000 and paid over multiple years from tax-increment-financing funds.

The board decision had been aborted and/or delayed multiple times since early October. Some trustees abstained because they own property located in the same TIF district as German-Bliss. State statutes consider that a conflict of interest. Abstentions combined with trustee absences and vacancies to result in lack of quorums.

Troutman voted Monday to approve, as did trustees Teresa Gilroy, Rick Pope and Richard Schoenbeck. Trustees Donald Peterson Jr. and Nathan Wineinger abstained because of the property-ownership conflict. Delbridge abstained because his son works for German-Bliss.

Expenditures to revamp the village website also were approved. The village is to pay Web Services Inc. of East Peoria $2,335 for the changes, which include new software to store documents. The annual hosting fee is to be $1,137.50, according to Village Treasurer Julie Delbridge.

Knox Co. group seeks help with broadband project

The Knox County Broadband Steering Team asks county residents to go online to check out the National Broadband Map (BroadbandMap.FCC.gov) to verify the location of their home or business and the accuracy of information regarding the availability of high-speed internet service.

If the location and availability information is not accurate, residents can use the interactive map to lodge a challenge with the Federal Communications Commission, which is seeking this feedback to improve the accuracy of the map.

“We’re asking as many county residents as possible to check out the map and verify their information,” said David Amor, convener of the steering team. “Just as with the census, the greater the accuracy of the map, the greater the chance that we will be successful in getting the funds to improve broadband throughout the county.”

“We know from our community broadband survey last May that many locations are still unserved with reliable fixed internet service and also that many residents cannot regularly get the connection speeds advertised by their providers.”

Information in the map about unserved and underserved locations will be used by the federal government to determine the allocation of $42.45 billion in the recent infrastructure bill intended to bring high-speed internet throughout the nation.

The FCC is asking individuals, counties and states to submit challenges by mid-January 2023, in order to have a final version of the map completed by June 30 when the allocation of funds to the various states will be decided.

Data on the map was submitted by internet service providers as of June 30, 2022. Residents can see what providers and speeds are claimed for their location and can report issues such as services refused, additional fees demanded or service delays. They can also report inaccuracies in location points identified for their home or business.

OBITUARIES

David A. Bradt
YATES CITY – David A. Bradt, 55, of Yates City, passed away at 6:54 a.m., on Tuesday, Nov. 29, 2022, at OSF Saint Francis Medical Center in Peoria.

He was born Oct. 3, 1967, in Gloversville, N.Y., to Marvin and Sadie (Spagnuola) Bradt. He married Rhonda Runyon on Aug. 14, 1999, in Elmwood. She survives.

He is also survived by two children, Hayden and Kynzie; four sisters, JoAnn Fischer, Linda Woodbeck, Anna (Rick) Antonelli and Theresa Gurnett; two brothers, Wayne (JoMarie) Bradt and Marvin (Audrey) Bradt; many nieces and nephews; and many great-nieces and great-nephews.

He is preceded in death by his parents and one sister, Denise (Dave) Wadding.

A funeral service was held Saturday, Dec. 3, 2022, at Oaks-Hines Funeral Home in Elmwood. A visitation was held prior to the service at the funeral home.

Even though David wasn't originally from this area, he knew everybody. He had a big, kind heart and would always be there to help out a friend or family member if he could. He loved his wife and kids deeply and unconditionally. He was very proud of all Hayden's and Kynzie's accomplishments. He was stubborn at times but always pushed them to be and do their best with compassion and humility.

He was self-employed for most of his kids' lives, which enabled him to be the best work from home dad.

He loved his JFL coaching years with Hayden and all the boys. He loved to mentor and teach them. Kynzie had his heart from day one, and they had their special routines, games, and talks every day. He was always there for her, especially while big brother was away at college. #14 was always in his heart and mind.

All his nieces, nephews, and their little ones loved their "Dede" deeply. He loved making them laugh and was always there for them.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to an education fund for his children, Hayden and Kynzie.

To leave online condolences or view David's video tribute, visit www.oakshinesfuneralhome.com.

Oaks-Hines Funeral Home and Crematory in Elmwood is in charge of arrangements.

Otto S. Buhs III
BRIMFIELD – Otto Samuel "Sam" Buhs, III, 74, of Brimfield, passed away Sunday, Nov. 27, 2022, at his home.

Sam was born July 18, 1948, in Peoria, the son of Otto Samuel Jr. and Dorothy Rose (Jacobs) Buhs. He married Judy Redenius on Aug. 26, 1966, in Hanna City, and she survives.

Also surviving are his daughter, Shelley (Jeff) Probyn; son, Otto Samuel "Sam" (Debra) Buhs IV; grandchildren Matthew Hoerr, Mollie Hoerr and Joshua (Desiree) Buhs; and five great-grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his parents; sisters Georgia Bush and Linda Eckhold; and brother Oliver Buhs Sr.

Sam was a lifelong mechanic, and owner of Buhs Truck & Trailer, Inc., along with his wife.

Buhs III

He was an avid outdoorsman who enjoyed hunting and fishing. He also enjoyed traveling and his Campers Village family.

Cremation has been accorded. A graveside service will be held at 11 a.m. on Friday, Dec. 9, 2022, at Cottonwood Cemetery in Edwards. A luncheon will follow at approximately 12:30 p.m. at the Brimfield American Legion hall.

Memorials in honor of Sam may be made to the Brimfield Community Fire Protection District, or to B.Y.E. Ambulance Service.

Davison-Fulton Bartonville Chapel is in charge of arrangements.

Fond memories and expressions of sympathy may be shared at www.Davison-Fulton-BartonvilleChapel.com for the Buhs family.

Gerald R. Huffman
FARMINGTON – Gerald "Jerry" Roger Huffman, 85, of Farmington, passed away at 7 p.m. on Friday, Dec. 2, 2022, at OSF Richard L. Owens Hospice Home in Peoria.

He was born on Sept. 16, 1937, in Peoria, a son of Gerald D. and Wilda (Baggs) Huffman. He married Janet Harlan on Oct. 30, 1960, in Elmwood. She survives.

Also surviving are his children, Jeff Huffman of Elmwood and Julie Garlish of Canton; five granddaughters, Kelsey Fraley, Katelyn Garlish, Jessica Huffman, Josie Huffman and Jamie Huffman; two great-grandchildren, Henry and Harper Fraley; and one sister, Jo Ann Smith of Elmwood, and her five children.

He was preceded in death by his parents, and brother-in-law Paul Smith.

Jerry graduated from Farmington

OBITUARIES

High School in 1955, and started working for Huffman Chevrolet, with his father in Trivoli and Farmington, later working for Weaver-Yemm Chevrolet and J&J Oil Company in Farmington. His great love for Chevrolet cars lead him to constantly restoring and racing them. He held various records at Peoria, Cordova, Springfield and Beardstown drag strips.

Jerry was a member and trustee of Trivoli United Methodist Church, Farmington Fire Department, Farmington Moose Lodge, past president of Farmington Rotary Club, member of Central Illinois Nomad Club and of the Maple Lane Country Club. He served in the Army reserves for six years in the 685th Transportation Company.

Jerry enjoyed attending auctions and collecting antiques, was an avid Chicago Cubs and Bears fan and enjoyed spending time fishing with his friends, grandchildren and his wife. He loved to entertain people at Oak Run and Giant Goose Ranch on the pontoon.

He also loved tinkering in his shop or working in his woodshop making beautiful bowls. Later in life, he took up golfing, spending winters and playing cards in Tucson, Ariz.

Funeral services were held at 10:30 a.m. on Wednesday, Dec. 7, 2022, at the Anderson-Sedgwick Funeral Home in Farmington. Burial followed the service, in Texas Union Cemetery in rural Trivoli. In lieu of flowers, memorials can be made to Richard L. Owens Hospice Home, 8630 N. Illinois Route 91, Peoria, IL 61615; or to Trivoli United Methodist Church, 115 N. Trivoli Ave., PO Box 112, Trivoli, IL 61569.

BOYS BKB: Farmers win a pair, rally past Monmouth-Roseville

Against West Prairie, Elmwood had a game-high 12 points from Brayden Lehman and 11 each from Layne Durst, Jackson Magee and Brendan Williams. In the Inter-County Conference opener against Delavan, Bo Windish had 19 points and Zach Howerton scored 14.

Brimfield

After it went 2-2 in its season-opening Turkey Tournament, Brimfield went 1-2 last week. The victory came Dec. 3, 62-51 at home against Annawan. Brimfield trailed 21-9 after one quarter, but Drew Kieser hit two 3-pointers in the second to help close the gap to 27-26 at intermission.

Oliver Heinz scored seven in the third quarter as Brimfield took a 39-37 lead. Kieser and Caleb Blodgett each had seven points in the fourth quarter as the Indians sealed it by going 6-for-7 on free throws. Kieser finished with 20 points, Heinz with 16 and Blodgett with 10.

The previous night, Brimfield lost 52-45 at Stark County. That time, another slow start probably doomed the Indians, according to Coach Scott Carlson. They trailed 23-14 as the second quarter began, despite three early 3s from Kieser, who finished with 17 points. Heinz scored 10.

On Nov. 29, Brimfield led early but couldn't hold off host Flanagan-Cornell, which won 60-48. All six Brimfield first-quarter field goals were 3-pointers, including four from Kieser. He had 18 points overall, Heinz had 11 and Blodgett had 10.

"(We) played poorly with little energy. Disappointing loss," Carlson said.

Brimfield began Inter-County play Tuesday at home against ROWVA-Williamsfield. The Indians' Prairieland schedule begins Friday night at Havana.

Farmington

After it won four games Thanksgiving week by wide margins, things became significantly tighter for Farmington. Still, the Farmers (6-0) won two home nonconference games.

The narrowest victory came Dec. 2, a 42-41 comeback over Monmouth-Roseville. Logan Morse's three-point play with 17 seconds left set the final score. M-R missed a shot at the buzzer, according to Farmington Coach Marty Lozier, who called it a fun game.

Morse had 18 points and Keaunty Barnes scored 12 for Farmington, which trailed 19-18 at halftime and 33-29 after three.

On Nov. 29, Farmington beat Tremont 76-71 as Morse had 33 points and Barnes had 29. Morse missed the last three minutes of the first half with a sprained ankle. He had 10 points in the fourth quarter and Barnes had 11 as Farmington withstood a Tremont comeback attempt.

Morse missed one ensuing practice and didn't participate fully in another before the M-R game, during which the ankle remained sore.

"He's a tough kid," Lozier stated.

Farmington opened Prairieland play Tuesday night at Macomb. The Farmers travel Thursday night to Aledo for a nonconference game against Mercer County, then return home Friday night vs. Abingdon-Avon.

Princeville

Princeville (4-1) won its fourth in a row, 61-37 on Dec. 2 at Peoria Heights. The Princes led 20-4 after the first eight minutes, thanks to nine points from Marcus Daily. He finished with a team-high 16. Tayshaun Kieser had 10 points as nine Princeville players scored.

The Princes' home opener was Tuesday night against Lowpoint-Washburn. Another home game is Friday night against Illini Bluffs, followed by a trip Saturday night to Elmwood. All are nonconference games.

ROWVA-Williamsfield

All began well for ROWVA-Williamsfield last week, but then came a broken school bus and a well-oiled Peoria Christian team.

The Cougars traveled Dec. 2 to Peoria's East Bluff in a meeting of upper-tier Inter-County teams. R-W led narrowly early, but the middle quarters boosted Peoria Christian to a 75-64 victory.

Peoria Christian outscored R-W 42-26 over the second and third periods. Graham Wight had 23 points and Lewis Sams scored 18 for R-W, which finished the week 5-2 overall and 1-1 in the ICAC.

The R-W league opener came Nov. 29 at Delavan. R-W won 63-29. The Cougars held the hosts scoreless in the second quarter as they forged a 32-13 halftime lead. That expanded to 48-21 after three quarters as Adam Kohl hit two 3-pointers. Kohl finished with 14 points and three teammates reached double figures – Sams (12 points), Riley Danner (11) and Jack Godsil (10). Afterward, a malfunctioning bus prevented the Cougars contingent from arriving home until 11:30 p.m.

Presumably with a functioning bus, R-W returned to the road Tuesday for an ICAC game at Brimfield. R-W is home Friday at Oneida for a Lincoln Trail game against Mercer County, then travels to rural Varna for a Saturday-afternoon nonconference meeting with Midland.

GIRLS: Brimfield solid in loss to Dunlap, close road win at Annawan

fourth quarter Monday in a 27-21 loss to Havana (9-0), ranked fifth in Class 1A.

"I think we missed 14 layups. A lot of times we were getting the looks we wanted, they just weren't going in," Elmwood Coach Gregg Meyers said. "I think that's probably a little bit of tired legs. I think they played really hard and I'm sure that fatigue got to them a little bit."

Prior to that, the Lady Trojans won 46-27 at ROWVA-Williamsfield. Elmwood led 26-11 at the half and cruised as its inside-outside game worked, with Melody Glenn tallying 14, mostly on four treys, and Liv Meyers scoring 14, mostly in the paint. Bre Turner also added 8 and had two 3-pointers.

Elmwood travels to Bushnell-Prairie City on Thursday and is at Ridgewood on Saturday.

Brimfield

Attempts to beef up the Brimfield schedule were part of preparing last year's team for a state championship. Having a few of those tough games on the schedule hasn't been bad so far this year, either, for a Brimfield team tied for ninth in state rankings.

While Brimfield (7-2) lost Nov. 30 to Dunlap (48-35), Coach Josh McKown said his team was within four points with 5 minutes left and played well. Ava Heinz led with 19 points and Elly Doe had 12.

"I told them afterwards I'm not a big believer in moral victories, because the fact is they beat us," McKown said. "But I was very pleased with our performance."

McKown was even happier to go on the road to Annawan last Friday and return home with a 64-60 victory.

"Saying it was a battle doesn't even begin to describe it," McKown said. "Their fans were on us and it was physical. We earned it, that's for sure."

Heinz had a big game with 30 points and 13 rebounds while Olivia Kappes added 11 and Kylee Vaughn scored went 7-for-8 on free throws down the stretch and had 10 points.

North Fulton was unable to play a scheduled game Monday due to illness. Brimfield is at Midwest Central today.

ROWVA-Williamsfield

The Lady Cougars (6-4) ran into some tough opponents in dropping three straight last week.

On Monday, R-W lost to Princeville, 47-38, despite 14 points from Lizzie Johnston and 11 from Emma Seiboldt.

On Dec. 1, R-W fell to Elmwood, 46-27.

Then last Saturday, R-W fell to Illini Bluffs, 50-29. Carolyn German led with 12 points.

Back on Nov. 30, R-W had opened LTC play with a 69-53 win at Ridgewood. Johnston led four players in double figures with 23 points. German added 14, Seiboldt scored 13 and Avery Rigg tallied 12.

The Lady Cougars were at Mercer County Wednesday and then off until Dec.

14. Farmington

The Lady Farmers (0-9) dropped three straight, falling to South Fulton on Nov. 30 (43-37), Olympia on Dec. 1 (51-35) and at Princeville on Saturday (61-35).

Anna Webel led the Farmers with 11 points against South Fulton. Kyleigh Miller scored 16 to lead against Olympia, while Webel scored 8 and Madilyn Hanlin tallied 6. Miller had 11, Webel added 9 and Emily Vallianatos scored 7 vs. Princeville.

Coach Brad Whitcomb said his team played well in the first two losses but struggled on Saturday.

"I felt like we really started to come together as a team vs. South Fulton," Whitcomb said. "Foul trouble and depth really hurt us in those two games."

He said Mariah Hayden stepped up and played a big role while sophomores Abbie Ackers and Paige Stevens are "two players who are progressing well, which will help us with our depth problem as the season progresses."

Farmington was at Peoria Heights on Wednesday and is at Galesburg Christian on Saturday.

ALL-SPORTS ROUNDUP

Elmwood girls win 8th grade regional basketball title

The Elmwood girls basketball team beat top-seed London Mills Valley on Friday, 32-31, to win the Brimfield Class 8-2A regional title.

Elmwood (21-4) was to face Peoria Christian (14-6) on Wednesday at 6:30 p.m. at Brimfield Grade School in the sectional, with a chance to advance to state at Havana High School.

With a win, Elmwood would play on Dec. 10 at 1 p.m. vs. the winner between Dieterich (11-13) and Brownstown (24-1).

Elmwood embracing schedule

By NICK VLAHOS

For The Weekly Post

An unusual schedule might be helping Elmwood to a solid start this boys basketball season.

The Trojans lost the season opener but then won six in a row, including two last week – 58-25 against West Prairie and 47-31 at Delavan. Those games were played on a Wednesday night (Nov. 30) and a Saturday night (Dec. 3), respectively.

Boys basketball games on Saturdays aren't uncommon. But except during tournaments, Wednesday-night games are rare. Last Tuesday and Friday, when much of the prep basketball world was playing on its typical nights, Elmwood was idle.

This week, Elmwood has the same schedule – games Wednesday (home vs. Galva) and Saturday (home vs. Princeville), but nothing Tuesday and Friday. Elmwood Coach Josh Fugitt suggested there is a method to what might seem like scheduling madness.

Usually, teams don't practice Sundays. Elmwood players thus have two days (Monday-Tuesday) of unencumbered practice with sufficient physical recovery time following a Saturday game. That's better than a half-speed practice on a Saturday following a Friday-night game, according to Fugitt.

"I really like the rhythm of the Wednesday-Saturday games early," he said. "I thought it was really important to get two solid practices in before West Prairie."

In Fugitt's view, sufficient rest and practice is particularly important following Thanksgiving-week tournaments. Elmwood played five games in six days at the Wally Keller Invitational in Kewanee. The schedule also leaves Fugitt free Tuesday and Friday to scout future opponents.

After this week, Elmwood's schedule becomes more traditional. But it appears Fugitt doesn't intend to abandon the unorthodox early-season plan he implemented a few years ago.

"I know that there are communities and schools and groups that have other things going on on Wednesdays, but it's benefited us," he said.

Princeville girls improving offense

By JEFF LAMPE

For The Weekly Post

One thing you can count on during a girls basketball season is seeing improvement by Princeville. True to form, the Lady Princes (4-5) won their third straight on Monday with a 47-38 win over ROWVA-Williamsfield.

The turnaround is thanks in large part to better offensive play, according to veteran coach John Gross.

"Our defense has been pretty good all year. We held Elmwood to 31 and Brimfield to 41 (in earlier losses)," Gross said. "Scoring has been our problem. But we've been working on our shooting a lot and we're getting better."

Princeville beat Stark County 46-32 on Nov. 30 as Kinley McGinn stepped up to lead the way with 16 points. Usual leading scorer Destinee Harwood tallied 14 and Brianna Brodie added 9, all in the second half as Princeville rallied from a 22-18 half-time deficit.

Against Farmington on Saturday at home, Harwood poured in 33 points and seven 3-pointers, but the Lady Princes also got 8 points apiece from Brodie, McGinn and Paisley Schock.

"Destinee is getting better, obviously, but we're getting scoring from Brodie, McGinn and Schock, and that's helping us too," Gross said.

Monday proved that again, as Brodie and Harwood led with 12 points, while Schock and Leah Wieland added 8 apiece.

Timing for the improvement is good, since Gross believes the Lincoln Trail Conference is wide open.

"Whoever gets hot and has home court could have a good shot," said Gross, whose team is 2-0 in LTC play.

Elmwood

Elmwood's defense continues to shine, but the scoring touch still needs to improve. The Lady Trojans (6-2) went 1-for-14 in the
