Harvest is great, but not prices

By JEFF LAMPE For The Prairie News

Harvest is going very well across central Illinois.

Dry conditions and mature crops have many farmers well ahead of the normal pace. Yields have so far been generally good, with most of the state's corn and soybean crop rated good or excellent.

But as is often the case in agriculture, there's always something to foul up a perfect fall. This year that something is low commodity prices, with typical per-bushel cash payments on Tuesday around $3.90 for corn and $9.85 for soybeans delivered to an elevator.

That's a far cry from the $7 per bushel of corn back in 2022. But while prices for commodities have dropped in the past two years, the same is not true for inputs such as fertilizer, seed and chemicals.

As the sun set Monday, a farmer south of Williamsfield was still busy harvesting soybeans in Knox County. Photo by Jeff Lampe.

"The price of inputs is up and the price of the crop is low," Tom Shissler of Elmwood said Tuesday while combining beans in Mason County. "You've got about four bucks in the crop in corn (per bushel) and right at $10 in beans. If you're cash renting, you've got all of that in it. If you own the ground, it's a little different."

BUMPER CROP

That combination has farmers lamenting what shapes up as a difficult year despite a strong crop that should be out of the field in a timely manner - unless storage problems arise.

"That's farming. We just take what they give us," said Dick Johnson of Brimfield. "I don't worry about it until I get a check in the mail when I'm done."

Through Sept. 29, Illinois farmers had harvested 21% of the corn crop, well ahead of the fiveyear average of 16%. Soybean Continued on Page 2

Trucking company buys Alcoa plant

Bv NICK VLAHOS

For The Prairie News PRINCEVILLE - The old Alcoa Building Products facility in Princeville, shuttered for almost a quarter-century, has become an eyesore. But Matt Plumer's plans for it appear to be a sight for sore eyes.

Plumer's transportationand-logistics company, West Jersey Express, has purchased the 15-acre former Alcoa property. It's to house a West Jersey Express parts-distribution expansion. The trucking firm, which has about 85 employees, is based in West Jersey and also has a facility in Toulon.

A local group, FPM Properties, took possession of the Alcoa property after the Princeville Village Board approved a redevelopment-and-cooperation agreement Aug. 20. West Jersey Express assumed ownership Sept. 16 and began to move in immediately, according to Plumer.

Following a Village Board meeting Plumer attended Sept. 17, he acknowledged the facility at 917 N. Santa Fe Ave. needs cleaning and repairs. But he appears to be bullish about its future.

"I like a challenge," Plumer said. "I like bringing old things to life. And it has a lot of potential. Obviously, it's been worn down throughout the years. I think there's a lot of good things that can happen in that place. It's just going to take a little time.

"We were already outgrowing where we're at, so we've got to go somewhere or build a new facility. I think here has a lot more potential than a new facility at this point."

Incumbent Sorensen faces challenge in Congressional race

By NICK VLAHOS

For The Prairie News Competitive races for the 17th Congressional District seat are typical. This year appears no different, despite an incumbent and former prosecutor.

The C-shaped 17th District extends from Rockford to the Quad Cities, then south to Galesburg before it snakes to Peoria and Bloomington-Normal. Local communities in the district include Elmwood, Farmington, Galva, Oak Run, Williamsfield and Yates City.

similar result in 2020. In 2024, The Cook Political Report and Sabato's Crystal Ball rate the 17th District race as leaning Democratic. That means the Democrats have a small edge, but the race is competitive. It's among about 40 races the National Republican Congressional Committee has targeted. Before he became a Congressman, Sorensen was a television meteorologist in Rockford and the Quad Cities.

"I earned the trust of my neighbors by telling the truth every day and keeping our communities safe from severe weather," being one of the candidates.

U.S. Rep. Eric Sorensen is running for a second two-year term in the House. The Democrat from Moline is facing Joe McGraw, a Republican from Rockford who is a retired judge Sorensen first won election in 2022, when he defeated Republican Esther Joy King 52% to 48%. Close margins are typical in the 17th, which was reconfigured after the 2020 U.S. Census. Sorensen's 10-year predecessor, Cheri Bustos, beat King by a

Sorensen told WTTW-TV in Chicago. "I am running for reelection to continue to be a trusted voice for my neighbors on the issues that impact their everyday lives."

Plumer would not reveal the purchase price. He said it might take a couple of years, at undetermined expense, to renovate the 300,000square-foot structure. Part of it has a collapsed roof and rotting steel. Plumer also wasn't sure how many jobs the new use might bring to Princeville eventually.

"It's something positive for us," Village President Jeff Troutman said. "Whether Matt adds five jobs or 50 jobs, it's going to be better than zero."

The West Jersey Express decision culminates more than two years of concerted efforts by village officials to repurpose the Alcoa property, according to Troutman. He said he joined trustees and municipal Code Enforcement Officer Dan Sullivan in that endeavor.

"We're finally getting a business in Plumer, his farming family was a dilapidated building and we're going to have revenues coming in," Troutman said. "The time came, finally."

Tax-increment-financing help from the village is possible regarding building-renovation expenses West Jersey Express incurs, according to Troutman.

Alcoa closed its Princeville operation in 2001. About 250 people once worked there.

FPM assumed control of the property from the previous owner, Earl Feucht of Princeville, who bought it in 2011. He was using the property for storage. As part of the agreement with the village, liens against the property were released.

West Jersey Express began business in the late 1980s. According to looking for additional income during an agriculture-business downturn. The company now transports goods across the country and also is a warehouser and freight broker.

The initial West Jersey Express purpose in Princeville is to house solar-energy equipment and facilitate transport for it, according to Plumer. He said overall demand for freight handling and warehousing is significant. Proximity to Peoria aided the Princeville-expansion cause.

"It's been a long journey working toward this building," Plumer said. "I don't have all the answers everybody wants to hear, but I'm a realist. We feel very positive about it. We're all thankful it's worked out."

Voting red is the best way to go this year

To the Editor:

This is a response to George Tanner's letter to the editor printed in the Sept. 27 edition.

George, I have read your editorial and with that being said, perhaps "Make America Affordable Again" would be a good red- or blue-hat slogan. I too have been a Democrat in the past. It is my belief right now in America there is very little difference in who is red or blue.

I also believe most of our government and three-letter agencies are all corrupt and hopefully we will see proof of that soon.

But ... having Kamala Harris as our leader is not the answer.

I agree that Donald Trump is most likely a narcissist and no, I'm not fond of hearing him brag over and over about himself. But the man did not hurt our economy, employment, oil prices or cost of living in general. We did not send our young people off to fight non-sensible wars like in the past.

And we should never, ever shut our country down again as we watched businesses go under, our youngsters being locked away from learning, socializing and all of the things that make America great.

It is not my intention to argue who you like or dislike, it is about leadership, and I think red is the best choice this November.

ALL SPORTS ROUNDUP Rebels win team, individual titles

ROCK ISLAND - The Stark County cross country team already has taken a liking to the course it will run this postseason.

Stark County claimed a team title last Saturday in the girls race at the Augustana College Invitational and then saw Evan Knobloch win the boys race, as well.

The victories were at Saukie Golf Course, which will be site of the IHSA regional and sectional races later this fall.

A freshman, Knobloch topped a field of 79 finishers with a time of 16:11.1.

"Evan ran a great race against a terrific (Annawan-Wethersfield) senior runner Karson Shrum, who had finished just ahead of Evan" at the Dale Donner Invite one week earlier, Stark County Coach Bob Rennick Jr. said. "He executed his race plan perfectly and closed out 7 seconds ahead of Shrum for the win."

The Lady Rebels placed five runners in the top 15 and, with 43 points, topped Cambridge (54), Assumption of Davenport (58) and four other teams.

Dusti Smith finished second in 18:56 and was followed by her sister, Cheyenh Smith (6th, 20:39), Alexis Martinez (8th, 20:56), Sarah Kraklow (13th, 22:07) and Paytin Terwilliger (14th, 22:32). Stark County also got strong races from No. 6, Darilis Knobloch (27th, 24:11) and No. 7 Haylie Moodie (30th, 24:48).

"I'm very proud of the girls' great team effort in beating No. 12 ranked Ridgewood, led by the race winner Emily Downing," Rennick said. "The girls kept it close through the top four runners with our 5, 6 and 7 all scoring big for us. Knobloch (6) and Moodie (7) both bumped Ridgewood's No. 5 runner, giving us a big two points."

Rennick, who attended his daughter's wedding and missed the race, credited Assistant Coach Clint Terwilliger for taking the reins "in style."

Stark County runs at the Elmwood Invitational on Saturday at Maple Lane Country Club. Races start at 9:30 a.m. with the frosh-soph boys.

- Jeff Lampe Galva XC – Emma Farmer placed 35th at the Kewanee Boiler Invite on Sept. 28 with a time of 28:04. Bryant Jeffrey was also 35th in the boys race.

Stark Co. VB – Stark County lost at home 25-11, 25-9 to Lincoln Trail foe ROWVA-Williamsfield on Thursday.

"It has been a tough week for us," SCHS coach Mary Jo Groter said.

SCHS came up short at Lincoln Trail opponent Kewanee Wethersfield 25-12, 25-17 on Sept. 25. The Lady Rebels next are at Annawan on Monday.

- Phil Johnson Galva VB - Galva lost to Princeville 25-18, 25-16 on Monday at home.

GHS lost at Bureau Valley 25-9, 25-12 on Sept. 25. Addie Moore, McKenna Anderson, Sage Kaiser and Karstyn Jones each scored one kill. Reese Sumner recorded one kill and two assists. Maddie Bates collected one kill and four digs. Isabelle Wigat added four digs. Kaylyn Gale and Amber Plummer each had three digs.

The Lady Wildcats suffered a 25-11, 25-12 setback at home vs. Midland on Sept. 24. Gale led the hosts in digs with 18. Sumner collected three assists and six digs. Moore scored four kills to go with one block.

- Phil Johnson Golf - Sophomore Anna Nagode of Stark County shot a round of 107 on Tuesday at Valley View Club in Cambridge during Class 1A regional action. As a result, Nagode advances to compete Monday, Oct. 7, in the sectional at El Paso Golf Club.

The Galva and Stark County boys were in regional action on Wednesday.

Peoria Heights 20, Galva 14 PEORIA HEIGHTS - The Wildcats (0-5) were closer to a first win than the final score indicates.

In addition to throwing an interception in the end zone to end a scoring drive, Galva had a run to the Peoria Heights' 3-yard line called back by penalty and had an errant snap at the Patriots' 5-yard line.

"Turnovers and penalties got us," Coach Mark Jeffrey said. "It was actually a lot closer than it looked."

Galva took an 8-6 lead partway through the first quarter on a 22-yard run by Blake Stahl but did not score again until the fourth quarter. Quarterback Cyrus Hurd passed 8 yards to Stahl for that score.

Stahl was all over the field last Friday, finishing with team highs in rushing (127 yards), receiving (56 yards) and tackles (11.5).

Galva outgained Peoria Heights, 321-301. The two teams meet today at 6 p.m. for Galva's Homecoming.

"The word of the week is finish. We've got to finish them this week," Jeffrey said. "We know the things we need to improve on."

Galva lost linebacker Tom Funke to a broken collarbone in the loss.

Princeville 40, United 8

MONMOUTH - For the second consecutive year, Princeville has put itself in position to play in the football postseason. But Princeville Coach Jon Carruthers isn't ready to celebrate.

Stark County 39

If the Princes (5-0, 4-0) win tonight (Oct. 4) at home against South Fulton, they'll be 6-0 and assured of a playoffs berth. But South Fulton's first win, which came last week against ROWVA-Williamsfield squad, did not go unnoticed.

"That was a huge upset. I think that got the kids' attention," said Carruthers, whose team is tied with Stark County for first place in the league. "It'll definitely help me assure them the need to buckle down this week."

Worries were few against winless United, which didn't score until 26 seconds were left in the game. Princeville gained 474 yards of total offense, including 283 yards passing from Jake Williams. His second-half touchdown passes to Hunter Johnson went for 84 and 74 yards. Johnson finished with 187 yards on four pass receptions. Jett Benningfield also caught a pass for a touchdown.

United managed 111 total yards. – Nick Vlahos

TABLE GROVE - The Cougars had become accustomed to escaping some tight spots this season. But those good fortunes faded last week.

R-W came back to tie South Fulton in the second half but missed a field goal at the end of regulation and a two-point conversion in overtime as the hosts (1-4, 1-3) won in a Lincoln-

Land small-division upset. "That was a tough one," R-W Coach Grant Gullstrand said.

The loss was the second in a row for R-W (3-2, 2-2), which plays tonight in Wyoming against undefeated Stark County.

Gullstrand said his team's defense needs to be stouter.

"We're struggling right now to make tackles. They had a couple of big plays that we had some blown assignments on," Gullstrand said. "We kept them in the game."

R-W led 22-14 at halftime, but the Rebels went ahead before the Cougars tied it at 28 with about five minutes left. R-W missed the extra-point kick.

After R-W stopped a South Fulton drive, Jack Cordle had a big run to help his team get to the Rebels' side of the field. But a bad snap on an R-W field-goal attempt led to OT.

• Elsewhere – Annawan-Wethersfield (3-2, 3-2) routed Abingdon-Avon (1-4, 1-4) for a 36-0 homecoming victory. Titans quarterback Maddox Heitzler threw for one touchdown and ran for two and Nic Thurston ran for two scores and caught one for a TD. ... In a 38-31 win over Havana (1-4, 1-4), Rushville-Industry (4-1, 4-1) ran for 419 yards and five scores, including 172 yards and three TDs from Jordan McGinnis. Ryan Reimolds ran for 139 yards and a TD and Brady Downs tacked on 106 and one score. For Havana, Cayden Green ran for 205 yards and scored twice.

Poised for playoffs

Stark Co. moves to 5-0 with win over W. Hancock

By The Prairie News WARSAW – Stark County is poised to add to a new football playoffs streak.

The Rebels became playoff eligible Sept. 27, when they traveled to the banks of the Mississippi River to beat West Hancock 39-14 in a Lincoln-Land Conference crossover game. That gave Stark County its fifth victory, the usual postseason minimum, and makes a third straight playoffs showing a virtual formality.

That's a return to familiar ground for a school that has three state runner-up finishes and qualified in 22 consecutive seasons, from 1996 through 2017. But a four-year drought, including the non-playoff pandemic season in 2020-21, provided some perspective.

"It's not something we take for granted," Stark County Coach Jade Noard said. "We feel very good about getting back there again. This group has some goals that are beyond just getting in, but we have to take care of some business the last four weeks of the season as well."

A LincolnLand small-division championship is among that business. Stark County, which is tied with Princeville for the league lead, plays tonight (Oct. 4) in Wyoming against ROWVA-Williamsfield.

R-W is 3-2 overall, 2-2 in the conference and is on a two-game losing streak. But the Cougars have beaten the Rebels in three of their last four meetings, including twice in the postseason.

"I think it's something that our kids definitely know," Noard said. "It's one of those things where I don't think we're going to have to say a whole lot, because they were there for most of them." The Rebels definitely were there last week against West Hancock following a restroom and walk-through stop in Roseville, about halfway through the two-plus-hour trip from Toulon.

Nolan Orwig ran 80 yards on the first Stark County play from scrimmage to give his team a lead it never relinquished. Winless West Hancock scored with 2:30 left in the half to cut its deficit to 14-6, but Orwig's 7-yard run 31 seconds later made it 22-6 Rebels at the break.

"That was important for us, to bump that thing back to a two-score lead before halftime," said Noard, who lamented his team's three turnovers. "For a 39-14 game, we were a little sloppy at times."

Orwig finished with 151 rushing yards, and quarterback Dillon Steelman ran for 133 yards and a touchdown. Chris Barnwell's only two carries were for touchdowns. Norwegian foreign-exchange student Continued on Page 11
