April 1 ballot features some contested elections

By JEFF LAMPE
For The Weekly Post

While there are no major national positions to decide in the upcoming April 1 consolidated election, the ballots for Knox, Fulton and Peoria counties show a fair number of contested races. Several of those are in Princeville, where races for village president, village trustee and township supervisor are up for grabs. Current village president Jeff Troutman faces a challenge from Rick Pope, who is currently a village trustee. Four candidates are running for three seats on the Village Board: Branden Curtis, Teresa Gilroy, Steven Potter and Spencer Wilson. Gilroy and Potter are incumbents.

The race for Princeville Township supervisor features Kathy Humphries against write-in candidate Terry Rasmussen. Humphries last year filled the position vacated by Summer Rice, who took a full-time job with the Princeville School District. The only contested school board election in The Weekly Post area is at Farmington CUSD 265, where six candidates are vying for three spots. Candidates are incumbents Dustin Blunier, Keith Depperman and Daniel Gorsuch and challengers Allison Smith, Ann Riccioni and Chris Darsham. Farmington’s support staff and teachers have a meet-the-candidates event on March 12 at 6:30 p.m. in the Farmington

High School auditorium. On the other side of the spectrum, the school board election in Brimfield has just two candidates running for four spots, Ashlee Stabler and Stephen Updyke. And three candidates are running for four trustee spots for the Princeville Township Board: Ray Delbridge, Timothy Connolly and Alec DeBord. In Elmwood, five candidates are vying for four trustee spots on the Elmwood Township Board.

They include incumbents William Atwood, Ronald “Gene” Gibson and Brian Windish and challengers Mark Davis and Kenneth Howard. Salem Township also shows contested races, with incumbent Chris Bewley facing a challenge from Ken Vallas for supervisor. And five candidates are running for four spots as Salem Township trustee: incumbents Norlyn McCormick, Paul Noe and Dennis Mohn and newcomers Jeffrey Johnson and Mark Kieswetter. Five candidates are seeking election for four trustee spots on the Maquon Township Board. Candidates include incumbents David Mason II, Janet Thurman and Todd Mason along with Janet Thurman and Aaron Taylor. Finally, four candidates are running for two six-year terms as Illinois Central College trustees: Gale Thetford, Christine Bare-Kemper, Diane Unes Lamb and Kim Armstrong. As part of a growing trend, some races have no candidates. Races with no candidates include the assessor position in Farmington and Elmwood townships; Jubilee Township tax collector; Hanna City Park District commissioner; Salem Township highway commissioner; one two-year position for the Williamsfield Public Library District; and several races for Regional Board of School Trustees positions.

Brimfield faces major water issue

By MOLLY RICHESON
For The Weekly Post

BRIMFIELD – Brimfield finds itself in a rather urgent situation regarding its main water tank. The village has two ground-level tanks they call blue tanks simply because they are blue on the outside. These tanks are a part of a system that moves well water through reverse-osmosis filtration and then to the city water tower. The main blue tank was expected to have a 50-year lifetime upon installation a little over 30 years ago. But the last inspection showed significant problems in the tank and its foundation that will require removal, replacement and installation of

CELEBRATING SEUSS

Elmwood high schoolers and students in grades 1-4 participated in Dr. Seuss Day on Feb. 28 as part of the Read Across America celebration held on the birth anniversary of Dr. Seuss. “This event was our biggest and best yet,” said Felicia Charlesworth, who has organized the Seuss celebration for four years. “This year we expanded it to be a department event instead of just my English classes.”

Major renovation

Owners plan $5.2M investment in Princeville

By NICK VLAHOS
For The Weekly Post

PRINCEVILLE – The new owners of the long-shuttered Alcoa Building Products facility in Princeville plan to spend up to $5.2 million to renovate it. West Jersey Express, a Stark County-based transportation and logistics company, took over the former Alcoa property last September. The investment the firm is planning was included in an application for potential village tax-increment-financing reimbursement. The application was discussed Monday during a Village Board TIF committee meeting held before the regular board meeting. Trustees took no action on the application. Alcoa closed its 300,000-square-foot Princeville facility in 2001. The building at 917 N. Santa Fe Ave. fell into disrepair, and a subsequent local owner used the property for storage. West Jersey Express bought the 15-acre site to house expansion of its parts-distribution operation. Steve Kline, president and CEO of a Bloomington-based firm that assists municipalities with TIF management, suggested ways Princeville might honor the West Jersey Express request. Options included reimbursement of about $2 million to $2.5 million of the projected $5.2 million, payable over the 20-plus-year life of the TIF district. Payments would not begin until after West Jersey Express completes renovations.

PRINCEVILLE: Board OKs water-rate increase

“Once the project begins generating new tax increment, the village would pay back,” Kline said. “So the project is paying for itself, TIF-wise.”

In TIF districts, property taxes that are to go to various bodies are frozen. Subsequent tax increases are diverted into a fund used for infrastructure improvements.

Kline recommended the board meet with West Jersey Express officials soon to discuss possibilities. He said he didn’t know what the timetable might be regarding the proposed renovations. Following the purchase, Matt Plumer of West Jersey Express said renovations might take a couple of years.

Plumer’s firm also has facilities in Toulon and West Jersey. The Princeville property is expected to generate significantly more tax revenue than it did while dormant, according to village officials. They spent more than two years trying to repurpose the property.

“I think it’s great to have them here, and I know they came here hoping to get some (TIF) support,” Village President Jeff Troutman said. “We’re still going to gain money to use toward our expenses, but our expenses on that property are going to be very low.”

During the regular meeting, the board authorized an increase in water rates and fees, first proposed in February. The basic monthly rate for most village residents will rise $1.31 per 1,000 gallons used, to $7. The monthly base fee will increase $1.59, to $12.

Board members also approved closure of Santa Fe Avenue between North and Spring streets from June 18-22 for the 2025 Heritage Days Celebration.

Tabled was a proposed ordinance revision that would allow Peoria County Animal Protection Services to trap, neuter, vaccinate and return stray cats and others found in the village. Troutman and Trustee Ron Delbridge cited uncertainty regarding the proposed revisions.

GUEST VOICES

Of rain, colons and a dumb TIF district rule

Rambling through central Illinois, strangely excited by rain.

Just when I thought my grasp on the nuances of March was solid, along came an email reminding me that, in addition to rain, these 31 days belong also to Colorectal Cancer Awareness Month.

My information on the national colon celebration is from Rozana Dwyer, a doctor in the Graham Health System who is also a new resident of Elmwood. Doc Dwyer notes that, "Unlike other screening tools that find cancer earlier, a screening colonoscopy can prevent your chance of colon and rectal cancer by 50% by finding smaller, pre-cancerous polyps or growths that can be removed."

Jeff LAMPE

Her email was timely, since my wife and I were already scheduled for colonoscopies when it arrived. As anyone who has prepped for a screening can attest, you need a good reason to suffer through all that time in the bathroom.

Doc Dwyer offers plenty more incentive, noting that colon cancer is still the second-deadliest cause of cancer-related deaths and that screening should start at age 45 (not 50) and possibly sooner if you have a family history of colorectal cancer. Then again, she said most colorectal cancer patients do not have family history and most have no symptoms.

There's lots to chew on there, though during the prep period you can't chew on anything.

Another thing I learned is that the process can be competitive and insurance companies are more willing to pay for the first screening than the second.

First the competitive part. My wife got a better grade on her prep than me and thinks the pictures of her colon look nicer than mine. Sigh.

More importantly, when my wife had her screening done, there was no charge. Two weeks later when I went in, the cost was $2,500. Same insurance. Same hospital. Same procedure. Only mine was a second screening. Seems there is a big difference there.

Then again, as one of the nurses noted when I grumbled, "$2,500 is pretty cheap to avoid cancer."

I've thought a lot about that comment. The nurse was correct. All of us have lost someone to cancer. Myself, I'd pay way a lot to have my mother back, though it was lung cancer that stole her too soon.

So, yes, $2,500 and two days in the bathroom is not so bad if it means I can plant trees for many more March days.

TIF districts have helped plenty of Illinois communities with redevelopment. But they are also quirky creations that sometimes seem downright dumb.

Consider the case of Maggie Connell of Farmington, an Edwards Jones investment rep who is in the process of moving her office from Canton to her hometown. She recently purchased the former Ulm Veterinary Clinic in downtown Farmington and has spent nearly $150,000 to renovate the structure. That's the exact kind of projects TIF districts are designed to fund.

Ahh, but years ago, Matt Ulm was on the Farmington City Council and was also an owner of the building. To avoid conflicts of interest in council voting, Ulm agreed to have the building removed from the TIF. That part makes sense.

But while changing that would seem fairly simple, since Ulm has been gone from the council for years, Farmington Mayor Kenn Stufflebeam has been told the process could cost up to $100,000. That's ridiculous and is a rule Illinois legislators should seriously consider amending.

BRIMFIELD: Village Hall moving to new location

a new aeration system. Asked what would happen if nothing was done, Village President Dan Fishel responded: "That is not an option. We have to move forward with tank replacement one way or another."

Recent repairs on the tank are temporary, Fishel said.

"They could last six months, two years, five years, it's hard to tell, so we are moving forward as quickly as we can to allocate funds," Fishel said.

Maurer Stutz, Inc., of Peoria is working to determine total costs for the work so the Village Board can try to find funding and put the project out for bid. At present, costs for needed work are estimated at close to $1 million.

Fishel said funding will be a challenge, as the village just finished a $950,000 water project and is still making payments on debt from that.

"This puts pressure on us for this additional unexpected expense and creates a bigger burden," Fishel said.

Fishel, Engineer Dan Good and the Illinois Environmental Protection Agency have a Zoom call scheduled this week to discuss emergency funding.

Work on the tank project isn't the only big news coming out of Brimfield this week. At Monday's monthly board meeting, the village was awarded a certificate showcasing its credentials as an NTCA Smart Rural Community by representatives from Mid Century Communications, Brimfield's main internet provider.

The distinction is given by NTCA – The Rural Broadband Association, and to qualify a municipality must offer 100 Mbps broadband to 50% or more of its service area with broadband subscription rates of at least 50%.

Michael Gray, president of the Mid Century board of directors, presented the certificate and said the distinction may help increase property values.

After presenting the recognition certificate, Mid Century offered to provide Brimfield with 1 GB of internet with advanced parental controls at Brimfield Community Park for free, requiring only that the village pay for equipment and an extender to ensure most of the park has coverage.

The board also discussed plans to move Village Hall to the location that used to be the Fellowship Hall of the Brimfield United Methodist Church on the corner of Van Buren Street and Galena Avenue. The village acquired the hall for $100 in November 2024.

A moving date is not set as the new location needs work, including new durable laminate flooring and a partition window for the village clerk. Walls and ceilings are in good shape and lighting may be improved after the move.

The current Village Hall is slated to become the Brimfield Historical Museum. Kim Hanks, former Peoria County Genealogical Society president and a Brimfield native, said she is willing to serve as coordinator for the museum. The board heard that offers of historical items are coming in to fill display cases.

More upcoming projects for the village still in the early stages include upgrading valves on some fire hydrants and, eventually, upgrading the hydrants. Some hydrants are from the 1950s and may not completely shut off if used. At $4,000 a hydrant, the board hopes to replace a few each year.

No-parking signs will soon be going up along Brimfield-Jubilee Road on the north side of the track.

The village is also looking into running a camera through sewers as part of regular maintenance and may also perform a smoke test through the sewers.

Billtown board cancels meeting

WILLIAMSFIELD – The Williamsfield Village Board meeting scheduled for Monday was canceled due to lack of a quorum.

Farmington JFL may have a home

By JEFF LAMPE
For The Weekly Post

FARMINGTON – Who says you can't go home again?

While lease terms have not been finalized, it appears likely the Farmington JFL program will return to its former home behind the former Farmington High School sometime this spring or summer.

During Monday's meeting of the Farmington City Council, Mayor Kenn Stufflebeam asked for permission from the council to negotiate a lease with ITS, the company that owns the old high school complex.

The football field at that location had for years been the home to the sizable Farmington JFL program until liability concerns caused ITS owners to end the lease.

As a result, Farmington JFL players last year practiced on Farmington School District property and played all games on the road or in Brimfield.

Stufflebeam said JFL has its own insurance policy and will list the city as an additional insured party under the proposed lease.

JFL President Tom Oldfield said that would be the best solution for the program. He said JFL has lawncare equipment and needs just a shed for storage and manpower to get the football field ready for action by the time play starts in July.

In other business, the council voted to pay the Farmington School District $52,901.86 to recoup tax payments diverted to the city's TIF district.

The council also passed a revised TIF agreement with Dana Cardenas and Mi Casa Farmington, LLC. The ordinance will pay Cardenas $20,000 per year for three years, with the first payment within 30 days of approval. A previous agreement spread payments over five years.

In a nod to the difficulties in finalizing that TIF agreement, the council also approved four recommendations from the CEDC. Moving forward, commercial redevelopment applicants must attend the CEDC meeting where their application is discussed.

Finished projects, residential and commercial, will not be funded. All applications for TIF money must be complete before being considered. And applicants must fully read any redevelopment agreement before signing a document.

Stufflebeam said he was approached by a developer who wants to buy city-owned property on West Fort Street south of the U.S. Post Office for a 6- to 10-unit housing development for residents age 55 and older. The council will consider the matter at its next meeting and asked Stufflebeam for an appraisal of the property.

NOTE: Charges are merely an accusation. All suspects are presumed innocent until proven guilty.

Police reports

• WILLIAMSFIELD – A Williamsfield-area man who told authorities he was having a mental-health breakdown was wanted regarding a domestic-battery case.

Knox County Sheriff's Office deputies were summoned about 8:30 p.m. Feb. 3 to a residence in the 2000 block of Knox Road 2150 East. There they found Dallas R. Hulse, 27. Hulse told officers he was God, asked for cocaine and said he saw a pterodactyl flying around one of their heads, according to a report.

A check revealed Hulse had an outstanding warrant for failure to appear in court. A deputy transported Hulse to OSF Saint Mary Medical Center in Galesburg for a mental-health evaluation. He then was transported to the Knox County Jail in Galesburg.

• FARMINGTON – A Farmington man accused of attempting to steal alcohol from a local convenience store also was wanted for driving with a suspended license.

An employee at Casey's, 84 S. Main St., said 43-year-old David L. Wade Jr. walked into the store about 3:30 p.m. Feb. 6, grabbed a 10-pack of 50-milliliter bottles of Fireball Cinnamon Whisky and brought in into a restroom, a Farmington police report stated.

Wade did not have the bottles when he emerged from the restroom and no booze was found inside, per the report. An officer visited Wade the next day at his residence, where he said he placed the bottles on the floor because his child needed to use the restroom. Wade did not retrieve the alcohol, he said.

The officer's investigation revealed Wade had an outstanding Fulton County warrant for failure to appear in court regarding a charge of driving with a suspended license. Wade said he was unable to post $1,000 bond. He was arrested and transported to the Fulton County Jail in Lewistown.

Wade also was cited for taking merchandise and not intending to pay for it. He received a notice to appear in Fulton County Circuit Court and was barred from Casey's.

• EDWARDS – Someone drove a vehicle into a utility pole south of Edwards and snapped it, according to authorities. A Peoria County Sheriff's Office deputy was dispatched about 12:15 a.m. Feb. 15 to the 3800 block of N. Taylor Rd. regarding downed powerlines on the pavement.

The deputy noted tire tracks leading to the broken pole, but no vehicle was located and no clues were apparent, according to a report.

Damage to the pole was estimated at $2,000. Ameren Illinois deactivated and cleared the powerlines.

• YATES CITY – No injuries were reported following a single-vehicle accident at the west edge of Yates City.

Grace N. Bach, 22, of Elmwood was driving an eastbound 2015 Nissan Altima shortly after 9:30 a.m. Feb. 12 on Illinois Route 8 when she lost control of the vehicle on a curve. The vehicle slid off the snow-covered pavement and struck a yellow road sign, a Knox County Sheriff's Office report stated.

The vehicle was drivable but sustained moderate damage to its passenger-side rear door and passenger-side rear-tire area. Bach was cited for operating an uninsured motor vehicle.

• OAK RUN – A driver from Peoria refused medical treatment following a rollover wreck south of Oak Run.

Shortly before 8:15 p.m. Feb. 11, 61-year-old Bryan S. Calhoun was behind the wheel of a 1995 BMW 325 headed south on Knox Highway 12 near Storage Building Road when the vehicle left the pavement, entered a ditch and rolled multiple times, according to a Knox County Sheriff's Office report.

Calhoun said he looked away from the road briefly before the accident, which happened on a curve. A Galesburg ambulance crew evaluated Calhoun, who was cited for failure to reduce speed to avoid an accident. The vehicle was totaled and towed, the report stated.

• OAK RUN – An argument about how best to empty bird-feed bags led to an Oak Run man's arrest for domestic battery.

Ronald A. Hagerty, 75, admitted he pulled a 72-year-old woman's arm after she entered a pickup truck during the dispute at about 3 p.m. Feb. 11 at a residence in the 1600 block of Sherwood Camp Rd. She then fell and struck her head on the ground, according to a Knox County Sheriff's Office report.

The woman sustained bruises near her left eye and was treated at OSF Saint Mary Medical Center in Galesburg. Hagerty was transported to the Knox County Jail in Galesburg.

• PRINCEVILLE – An Edelstein woman reported no injuries following a single-vehicle accident south of Princeville.

Alaina S. Schock was driving a westbound 2014 Acura RDX shortly after 6:30 a.m. Feb. 10 in the 10300 block of W. Akron Rd. when she did not see a stop sign at an intersection, continued through it and struck a telephone pole on the right side of the road, according to a Peoria County Sheriff's Office report.

The vehicle entered a ditch, then emerged back onto the pavement. The vehicle sustained significant damage.

• FARMINGTON – A traffic stop in Farmington resulted in a Trivoli-area man being arrested for multiple violations.

Darren M. McClister, 59, was driving a 1997 Chevrolet Express van when a Farmington police officer pulled it over shortly after 6:30 p.m. Feb. 6 near Illinois Route 116 and Lightfoot Road. The van taillights weren't illuminated, according to a police report.

McClister said his driver's license probably was suspended; a check revealed it was. It also revealed McClister was wanted in Peoria County for failure to appear in court regarding a 2022 accusation of driving with a suspended license.

In addition to charges of a suspended license, McClister also was accused of driving without lights when required. He was transported to the Fulton County Jail in Lewistown. His vehicle was impounded.

• WILLIAMSFIELD – A Williamsfield-area man received in the mail a bill he said he did not incur, a possible case of identity theft.

The apparent fraud was reported about 4 p.m. Feb. 5, according to a Knox County Sheriff's Office report. The 63-year-old victim said the bill from Verizon was for $133.18 for wireless service Dec. 28 through Jan. 27. The victim said he did not have any accounts with Verizon.

Verizon removed the charge and advised the victim to freeze his bank accounts, the report stated.

• LAURA – At 6:30 a.m. Feb. 11, Marcy L. Strand of Bishop Hill was driving a 2018 Ford Explorer south on Illinois Route 78 near Lorraine Road north of Laura when the vehicle struck a deer that emerged from the east. Strand and her two passengers weren't injured, according to a Peoria County Sheriff's Office report. The vehicle sustained heavy front-end damage but was drivable.

• YATES CITY – Chief Randy Benson reported the following Yates City Police Department activity for January: 14 reports, six traffic stops, three citations, five warnings and one ordinance violation.

• GALESBURG – These were among calls to which the Knox County Sheriff's Office responded between Feb. 9-15: physical domestic incident, Dahinda; threats, Williamsfield; physical domestic incident, Williamsfield.

Peoria Christian tops Brimfield in regional final

By NICK VLAHOS
For The Weekly Post

Brimfield had no answer for the long-distance shooting of Peoria Christian in the Class 1A Roanoke Regional boys basketball final.

Peoria Christian was 7-for-12 on 3-pointers in the first half of a 61-35 victory Feb. 28 at Roanoke-Benson. The victory sent Peoria Christian (25-9) to the Brimfield Sectional semifinals, where it was to play Wednesday against Mason City Illini Central.

Brimfield (22-10), the fourth seed in its sub-sectional, trailed by 12 late in the second quarter. But No.

1 Peoria Christian scored the final nine of the half, including a 3-pointer at the buzzer.

"I think that demoralized us," Brimfield Coach Scott Carlson said. "In the second half, we played them fairly even, just that the excitement they generated in the first half was just too much to work out.

"With three minutes to go in the half, we were still right there. Them getting the last nine points of the half was a backbreaker."

Overall, Peoria Christian shot 56% from the field, Brimfield 33%. Connor Doe scored a game-high 20 for Brimfield. Malachi Persinger had 19 points for Peoria Christian, which had three double-digit scorers.

Peoria Christian beat Brimfield 54-36 on Jan. 7. Carlson said the Chargers were the best team the Indians faced all season.

Doe is among three starters back next season for Brimfield. He averaged a team-high 16.3 points and 2.4 steals per game. Senior teammate Brady Johnson averaged 13.9 points. Tommy Burkitt averaged 6.1 rebounds. Johnson averaged 3.2 assists.

"I told the guys after the game that they were without a doubt an extreme pleasure to coach," said Carlson, who completed his 27th season at Brimfield. "The senior leadership was outstanding. There were zero complaints all year.

"One thing kind of unique to this group is even after a hard practice or a disappointing loss, they leave the locker room and thank the coaches for what they're doing. It was a special group to work with."

• Farmington — Taylor Ridge Rockridge took charge with a 27-point third quarter in a 74-38 victory over Farmington in the Class 2A Macomb Regional semifinals.

Farmington (10-20) trailed 27-15 at intermission but 54-29 following the third. Boston Smith had 19 points, 13 after halftime, to lead the Farmers. In the regional final Feb. 28, Macomb beat Rockridge 42-41 to advance to the Sherrard Sectional.

Smith averaged 17 points per game for the season. Landon Crawford averaged 5.3 rebounds, Smith 5.1. Crawford averaged 2.1 assists, Jerett Fauser two. Jake Gronewold averaged 13.2 points and 4.1 rebounds but played only 15 games because of injury.

• R-W — Junior Dawson Traphagan led ROWVA-Williamsfield in scoring (15.6 ppg), rebounding (5.2) and assists (3.7).

PRINCES: Williams leads with 13 points

 “They were up in our chests. They got us out of our rhythm.”

Previously against A-Town, Princeville played a modified zone defense that wasn't effective, according to Tait Sennett. But Princeville used a variety of defenses this season, something that helped it win 14 consecutive games at one point.

“We're kind of a jack of all trades on defense, so you never know what we're going to throw at you,” Coach Sennett said.

The Princeville offense became more prevalent in the second half.

Back-to-back baskets from Jake Williams, who finished with a team-high 13 points, began the third quarter and gave Princeville a 20-17 lead. Princeville scored the final seven of the quarter to lead 31-24 on a layup by Brady Day, Tucker Sennett's only field goal (a 3-pointer) and two Williams free throws.

In the fourth, A-Town came as close as 35-34, on Drey Anderson's 3-pointer with 1:48 left. But Princeville went 5-for-6 on free throws after that. For the period, Princeville was 9-for-12 from the line.

Tucker Sennett scored nine points, Day with eight.

“The Williams kid was absolutely a stud,” said Link, whose team had nine points from Alex Foutch. “Both him and the Sennett kid are great players. But the Williams kid got downhill to his spot, and we had a tough time challenging him.”

The challenge for seniors like Sennett and Williams was to finally win a regional after being part of teams that lost in the title game the last two years. They and Tait Sennett appeared to take great pleasure in accomplishing that. Even if they had to travel 71 miles, almost to the Mississippi River, to do it.

“It's just really satisfying,” senior forward Logan Olshawsky said. “Driving down here an hour and 40 minutes, it feels really good coming home with a win.”

Williams and Tucker Sennett might have been primarily responsible for Princeville having that chance. Monmouth United edged a semifinal Feb. 26 by eight points with about 2:30 remaining, but Williams scored eight in a row to tie it. Then Sennett made a 3-pointer at the buzzer for a 51-48 victory.

“I didn't want my senior season to end. It just came down to that,” Williams said. “I'm not going to pout about being down eight. I'm just going to take it in my control and attack the basket and make stuff happen.”

In the other semifinal, Elmwood led A-Town by four at halftime and was tied after three quarters but lost 53-42. Bo Windish had 12 points and Quinton Johns 10 for fifth-seeded Elmwood (15-15), which on Dec. 17 lost 72-53 to A-Town.

This time, Elmwood trailed by two points late but couldn't get a couple of open 3-pointers to fall, according to Trojans Coach Josh Fugitt.

“If you would have told me going into that game it would be a one-possession game with three minutes left, I'd be thrilled,” he said. “They just ran us out of the gym in December. ... (This) was much more of the game we were looking for, slower possessions.”

Windish led Elmwood in scoring, with 13.6 ppg, and rebounding (8.5). Garrett Webster averaged 11.5 points and three assists.

Princes win regional

Defense sparks first regional title in 16 years

By NICK VLAHOS

For The Weekly Post

BIGGSVILLE – Princeville didn't make a field goal in the fourth quarter of its Class 1A Biggsville Regional boys basketball championship game.

The Princes missed their first eight shots of the second quarter and were 2-for-13 from the field. For the game, one of their season-leading scorers made only one basket.

None of this would appear to indicate victory. But Princeville has not been living by offense alone.

A pregame switch to what Princeville Coach Tait Sennett called a switching man-to-man defense kept A-Town clamped and propelled the Princes to a 40-34 victory Feb. 28. It was the first regional championship in 16 years for Princeville, which was seeded second in its Brimfield sub-sectional.

"Our defense, that's what got us the win," senior guard Tucker Sennett said following a lively on-court postgame celebration at West Central. "That was the best we've played all year. They didn't get very many open looks, and we slowed them down for sure."

Princeville (26-8) was to play Tuesday night at Brimfield against Illini Bluffs (25-7) in a sectional semifinal. The winner is to play at 7 p.m. Friday (March 7) for the title, against Peoria Christian (25-9) or Mason City Illini Central (17-16). They were scheduled to meet Wednesday night at Brimfield.

Illini Bluffs beat Princeville 57-35 on Dec. 13. On Feb. 8, Prince-

ville beat Peoria Christian 77-69 in double overtime.

The Princeville effort in the regional final atoned for two regular-season losses to third-seeded A-Town (19-13). That included a 15-point loss the previous week in the Lincoln Trail Conference tournament final.

"Last time, we kind of came out flat. They punched us in the face," Princeville senior guard Jake Williams said. "Defensively we were lackadaisical, including me, and offensively we just settled for way too many shots. Tonight we just stuck to our game plan and took good shots and attacked the basket."

Princeville asserted itself from the initial possession of the game. It took more than a minute of maneuversing around the Princes' pressure defense for the Tornadoes to make a basket.

Although Princeville was futile from the field in the second quarter, A-Town wasn't all that great, either (2-for-7), although it led 17-16 at the break.

"They physicaled it up," A-Town Coach Cory Link said.
