CWD SPREADING

Deer disease in Peoria Co.

Sick whitetail tests positive for CWD

The bad news that deer hunters and recreational landowners in Peoria County had long expected finally arrived over the weekend, when the state announced a sick 2-year-old deer tested positive for chronic wasting disease.

Jeff LAMPE

The deer came from a location 5 miles west of Edwards and 4 miles northeast of Trivoli, just west of Eden Road. In other words, way too close to home.

The CWD diagnosis is bad for many reasons. The neurological disease, which is akin to mad cow Chronic wasting disease was recently discovered in a Peoria County deer, raising questions about the long-term impacts of the disease on local deer populations.

disease, is always fatal for deer. CWD is expected to have a long-term impact on whitetail populations in Illinois – even though it is not as widespread as epizootic hemorrhagic disease, the EHD some folks confuse with CWD.

Bugs spread EHD. Prions are responsible for CWD. In both cases, hunters are recommended to avoid eating diseased deer.

Then there are the paid sharpshooters. When CWD was first discovered in northern Illinois in 2002, the Department of Natural Resources initiated an aggressive management approach to slow the spread of the disease.

While the science may have been solid, it has been very unpopular to pay sharpshooters to kill deer over bait piles, which are illegal for hunters to use. The pro-

WILLIAMSFIELD – It could have been worse.

Instead of laying off all 10 district paraprofessionals as planned, the Williamsfield School Board voted Monday night to let go of four. Board President Chad Goff suggested the modification.

The teacher's-aide reductions, coupled with laying off two food-service workers, would help culminate the district's paring of at least a $500,000 deficit, according to Goff.

"Our expenses for the month were $98,000. Our payroll was $414,000 for the month," Goff said in front of about 20 attendees, many of them paraprofessionals. "In order for us to get that $500,000 ... unfortunately, we have to do a reduction in force."

"There's not a single person sitting in this room that wants any of you to lose their jobs."

Interim Superintendent Rolf Sivertsen suggested the board cut all 10 aides, then recall two shortly before the 2025-26 academic year. Goff didn't agree.

"Then you have more anxiety," he said. "I just don't want to put somebody through that."

Paraprofessionals Alexsia Brown, Nicole Dewitt, Stephanie Koch and Aggie Powers were laid off. Colleagues Mindy Bruner, Wendi Hughes-Benson, Melissa Jacobus, Theresa Raff, Jaela Richmond and Annette

Prosecutor says money a motivation in Maquon murder case

By NICK VLAHOS
For The Weekly Post

GALESBURG – Money might have been a primary motivation for a woman accused of murdering the former Maquon police chief, according to prosecutors.

Tens of thousands of dollars were withdrawn from bank accounts Richard Young shared with Marcy Oglesby, Knox County State's Attorney Ashley Worby said Monday. Worby made that accusation in court during a motion hearing in Oglesby's case, which is scheduled to go to trial next week.

Oglesby's name was added to the accounts about the time Young is believed to have died from poisoning, in October or November 2021, according to Worby. Financial records show more than $40,000 was in play.

"It transfers from his savings to his checking, and it drains from there," Worby said about Young's accounts. "Marcy, Marcy, Marcy is all you see there."

Some of that money was to be used for an Oglesby purchase of real estate in the Knoxville area, but she said a boyfriend in Nigeria advised her not to buy it, Worby alleged in court. Public defender David Hansen, one of Oglesby's attorneys, questioned Worby's assertions.

"I see no evidence this (money) was used by Miss Oglesby," Hansen said. "We have no idea where that money went. ... There is no evidence she stood to gain financially from Mr. Young's death."

Another motion hearing in front of Judge Andrew Doyle was scheduled for 10 a.m. today (April 17). Among other items, Doyle intends to decide whether to again delay Oglesby's trial, based on defense attorneys' arguments that they haven't had sufficient opportunity to review evidence.

"This seems to be a very messy situation," Hansen said. "Things aren't being done as cleanly as they should be in a case this big. We both want to get this trial over with. But my concern is will we be better off postponing it?"

In addition to first-degree murder, the 53-year-old Oglesby has been charged with

OGLESBY: Attorneys spar over evidence list

concealment of a homicidal death. She and another Maquon woman, Karen Doubet, are accused of using eye drops to poison Young’s food and drink. Doubet, Oglesby and Young resided together. Oglesby was arrested in October 2022 after the decomposing body of 71-year-old Young was found in a box inside a Maquon storage locker. Doubet was arrested last October; charges against her and Oglesby are similar. Doubet, 79, is to appear in court again May 5. Clad in a bright-blue Reebok hoodie and yoga-style pants, Oglesby was silent during the two-hour hearing Monday. Oglesby sat between Hansen and her other attorney, public defender Christopher Kanthak. Worby and Assistant State’s Attorney Matthew Hoppock portrayed Oglesby as untrustworthy, among other things. They accused her of selling some of Young’s possessions, including firearms and a recreational vehicle, while she was concealing Young’s death. “The level of broad deceit and corruption with this defendant is mind-boggling,” Hoppock said. Said Kanthak: “Everything we’re talking about here is conjecture.” Both sides sparred on other issues, including what evidence can be presented during the trial. Hansen and Kanthak said they have not received or have only recently received some evidence. Crime-scene and autopsy photographs were a focus.

“We have no idea what’s going to be tendered by the state,” Kanthak said. “The best way to handle this is to bar it all.” Worby said the defense has had most of the evidence for years and called its claims disingenuous. The prosecution is excluding about 30 graphic photos, and some 100 to 150 photos remain in question. “We were not ordered to give them a list of every single photo we were going to admit,” Worby said. “That’s just wrong. ... It’s not an argument made in good faith.” Doyle sided with Worby but suggested the parties work together to pare the photos. He sounded less likely to agree with the defense’s effort to delay the trial. Jury selection is to begin April 23. Oglesby’s trial has been postponed numerous times, the most recent in February. “Every time we kick this down the road, one more case jumps on top of it,” Doyle said. “This case is three years old. As we sit here right now, we’re full steam ahead.”

SCATTERSHOTS

LAMPE: No sharpshooters in Peoria County

gram didn't sit well with most – not casual observers, not recreational landowners and certainly not hunters, many of whom said it had a negative impact on their experience.

It didn't matter to most that DNR officials said culling was needed and made Illinois "a model for other states," as IDNR Director Natalie Phelps Finnie said in a press release.

Theories to the contrary abound online, where it's clear the days of trusting government are over.

The only silver lining in this discovery is that the state will not enlist sharpshooters in Peoria County. So says Jayette Bolinski, a spokesperson who said the DNR has changed its CWD strategy for 2025-29.

"We will not be shooting in Peoria County," she said. "We will rely on hunter harvest."

That means you can expect more permits for sale in Peoria County and in other newly emerging counties across the southern two-thirds of the state, according to the new management program. How effective that will be is open to debate, since firearm seasons are increasingly less important in the overall deer kill.

Under the new program, DNR is also ending sharpshooting in seven northern counties where the disease shows up in greater than 5% of the deer tested.

That seems like a wise decision that may also be motivated by a lack of funds to support expansion now that CWD is in 25 counties.

Paid shooters will cull deer in Putnam and Marshall counties, two other new locations where the disease showed up this year. The state will also open check stations in those counties to better gauge distribution of the disease. Sharpshooting efforts will take place by obtaining permission from a landowner after the regular hunting season ends.

That does little to help neighboring landowners who don't want to see their deer herd thinned. Anyone who owns land or has tried to buy land is aware that Illinois ground is expensive. That's true mostly due to the corn and beans it grows, but also to the scarcity of recreational ground that supports wildlife.

In other words, this is a big money issue – even bigger in Adams County, the fourth to have a deer test positive for CWD. That discovery was unexpected, because the pattern over the past two decades has been for a slow but steady spread of CWD to the south and west. How it jumped to Adams County is uncertain.

What impact CWD will have on the outfitting industry in that county – part of the nationally known deer hunting Golden Triangle – is yet to be seen. Bolinski said Adams County will not be subject to sharpshooting but will be opened to the special CWD firearm season in January.

Worth noting is that the natural expansion of CWD makes its discovery in Knox, Stark and Fulton counties a mere formality. Bolinski says sharpshooting will not take place in those counties either, with the emphasis shifting instead to increased hunter harvest.

No doubt we will learn more when DNR holds public meetings that are to be scheduled later this summer.

GUEST VOICES

Luna proves that sometimes it takes a woman

When it comes to relations between the sexes, I must admit the guys often just don't get it or ignore the facts in front of them.

U.S. Rep. Anna Paulina Luna (R-Florida) recently came very close to stopping all action in the U.S. House of Representatives until her concern was addressed by Speaker of the House Mike Johnson.

Rep. Luna grew up in the school of hard knocks in California. She joined the Air Force to improve her financial situation. She met her husband while both were in the military and eventually they moved to Florida. She is the parent of one child and can politically best be defined as an ardent conservative Republican.

More importantly she defines herself as a mom. Sometimes that definition is forgotten in wells of Congress. She made everyone aware that you don't mess with momma, especially if momma is a Momma Bear with young cubs.

For years, politicians on both sides of the aisle in Washington D.C. checked on the health of their opponents and supporters if a highly contested bill was to be voted on. Congress has required in-person voting by its members. If sick, or unable to be present for any reason, a member of Congress has no vote. You must vote in person.

There are some valid reasons for this, as it does force members to be in proximity to each other and hopefully discuss pending legislation. In-person voting also allows for greater public scrutiny of a legislator, as his or her vote is cast in an open and public forum.

Speaker Johnson has voiced that in-person voting is required by the Constitution. I am not so sure about that.

In any event there are several young mothers in Congress this term and they are like most mothers: They give birth to babies. Rep. Luna had the audacity to think that a representative who is a new mom could vote by proxy, the act of granting someone else the power to vote on your behalf.

Proxies are done every day in the corporate world by stockholders. It is not a new concept. However the powers that be in the House, Speaker Johnson and his leadership group, completely rejected even a hearing on the proposal made by Luna.

Luna then used some of the House rules to require that she be heard on the issue. Luna invoking the rules essentially shut down all votes in the House until her matter was acted on.

Republicans are trying very hard to get a budget-reconciliation bill passed to enact their agenda and Luna stopped them cold as a brand-new representative. The lady has some real moxie.

The boys caved to the new girl on the block. They all cut a deal. Luna doesn't get a true proxy, but she got what she wanted. The agreement is called a pairing in which another representative, who would have voted the opposite of Luna, will not cast a vote. Essentially, the two representatives will cancel out each other. Luna also got a bipartisan vote that clearly showed the House was looking favorably at her proposal.

Today almost everyone has Zoom on their phone and computer, which clearly provides a video of the caller and his or her actions. The time-honored concept of vote by proxy is also available. It is time that governmental entities give at least consideration to remote voting in legislative sessions.

I acknowledge that remote voting has both some technical difficulties at times and there is always the possibility of fraud, but we are in the 21st century. It is time to modernize. I am not suggesting unlimited or constant remote voting, as the representatives do need to be in session with each other. Common sense seems to say we can carve out a few exceptions for maternity/family leave for a few weeks or to allow a representative to recover at home after surgery or an illness.

Even if you disagree with Luna's political preferences, she is striving to best have representatives serve their respective constituencies. This bipartisan proposal warrants serious consideration. It takes a woman.

For whom is America being made great?

To the Editor:

Financial security for people of modest means can be difficult to keep on the plus side. The loss of 10% of worth from a retirement account in just three days due to political positioning is very worrisome. Many, many people experienced similar or worse loss.

When we expressed our concerns to media and our elected officials, the top elected official referred to us as being "yippy, just yippy."

No meaningful reassurance nor expression of empathy; just a billionaire disdainfully calling us "yippy."

He did boast that it is a time "to get rich."

How? An opportunity for the already wealthy to use some of their excess cash reserve to buy up the now-depressed-priced stock that the "yippy" people just lost value on?

For whom is America being made great?

Princeville sewer rates may rise $7 per month

By NICK VLAHOS
For The Weekly Post

PRINCEVILLE – Sewer customers in Princeville probably soon will see their monthly bills increase by $7.

Such a rise might become annual for the foreseeable future, or it might not, according to Village President Jeff Troutman. He and other village officials are preparing for a $6.2 million state-mandated sewer and wastewater-treatment improvement project scheduled to begin this summer.

A Village Board vote regarding the $7 increase is expected Tuesday night, Troutman said following the meeting April 7. The hike would take effect for sewer bills due July 10. The current monthly sewer fee is $13, plus $5 for each 1,000 gallons of water used.

The increase is intended to help repay the loan for the project. Village tax-increment-financing money also is to help repay the loan. How much TIF money is used for that purpose is likely to determine future sewer rates, according to Troutman.

Initial TIF contributions probably won't be determined until after May

1. That's when construction bids are to be unsealed in Galesburg, where the engineering firm of Bruner, Cooper & Zuck, Inc., is based. The firm is shepherding the project and the bid process.

The board is to vote May 5 for final authorization, including bid approvals. Also included is to be an Illinois Environmental Protection Agency requirement for the village to submit its funding sources for the first five years of the loan, according to Troutman.

"If the bids open and they come in 10% under the engineers' estimate, we may be able to readjust," he said regarding the rates. "Typically with our engineers, they estimate them pretty high."

Troutman suggested engineers and village TIF administrators wanted a rate-increase decision before the early-May meeting.

"I think it's jumping the gun, but this is what we've been requested to do, so this is what we're going to vote on," Troutman said.

A board meeting scheduled for March 27 to discuss and decide funding sources and rate adjustments was canceled after the state EPA decided it wasn't necessary at that time.

Last month, a Bruner, Cooper & Zuck representative said sewer rates might increase $27 or $38 a month per customer, depending on the length of the loan. Those totals did not account for TIF contributions, which the village has been planning to apply toward the loan.

Troutman said the village probably will try to pay off the loan sooner than scheduled, to save money on interest. Original estimates had the project costing up to $1 million less than current figures.

During the meeting last week, the board tabled action regarding the sewer project. Trustees did approve a Residential Rehabilitation Program reimbursement of $2,498.26 for a new kitchen window, porch ceiling and garage roof at 117 N. Stanton St.

The board also authorized doubling, to $2,000, the credit-card limit for Village Treasurer Julie Delbridge. Her card is used to pay for renewal of the software the village uses for billing and payroll. That expense this year exceeded the previous $1,000 limit, according to Troutman.

NOTE: Charges are merely an accusation. All suspects are presumed innocent until proven guilty.

Police reports

• PEORIA – A Farmington man was accused of stealing a purse from a woman at a Peoria warehouse-club retailer. The incident happened about 4:15 p.m. March 29 at Sam’s Club, 4100 W. Willow Knolls Drive. Security-camera video revealed a man grabbed the yellow purse from a shopping cart, then fled as a passenger in a silver 2014 Chevrolet Impala, according to a Peoria Police Department report.

A Peoria officer traced the vehicle’s license plate to Farmington. A Farmington officer identified the suspect as 46-year-old Jonathan L. Halverson. The Farmington officer arrested Halverson about 7 p.m. and transferred him to Peoria police in Hanna City.

Halverson denied stealing the purse, the report stated. He was charged with theft. Total amount reported stolen was $560, including $400 in currency. Halverson also was wanted in Minnesota for failure to appear in court.

• OAK HILL – A two-vehicle rear-end crash near Oak Hill resulted in no apparent injuries.

Shortly after 4:30 p.m. March 29, Denise I. Dalton of Elmwood was driving a 2021 Chevrolet Equinox south on Maher Road when her vehicle struck a 2019 Jeep Cherokee stopped at the intersection with Illinois Route 8, according to a Peoria County Sheriff’s Office report. Dalton said she was unable to stop.

Tekayla R. Wilkins-Fenderson of Elmwood was the other driver; she had two passengers. Her vehicle sustained minor damage and was drivable. So did Dalton’s vehicle.

• TRIVOLI – A Trivoli-area man appeared to be scammed out of $71,000, according to authorities.

The 72-year-old victim reported the incident about 2:30 p.m. March 28, according to a heavily redacted Peoria County Sheriff’s Office report. The money apparently went missing from the victim’s checking account.

• EDWARDS – A Farmington woman required a hospital visit following a single-vehicle accident east of Edwards that sparked a field fire.

At 11 a.m. March 27, Judith Harper was driving a northbound 2020 Honda Accord in the 4200 block of N. Koerner Rd. when she swerved to avoid a deer. The vehicle struck a utility pole, according to a Peoria County Sheriff’s Office report.

Power lines from the pole fell and caused the fire. An ambulance transported Harper to OSF Saint Francis Medical Center in Peoria. Her injuries weren’t specified. Limestone firefighters doused the flames, and Ameren Illinois workers helped clear the roadway.

• HANNA CITY – Neither driver was injured in a two-vehicle crash in Hanna City. Anthony J. Delost of Farmington was driving a westbound 2015 Ford Fusion shortly before 5:45 p.m. March 26 on Farmington Road at Main Street when the vehicle rear-ended a 2014 Nissan Juke, per a Peoria County Sheriff’s Office report. The other driver was Ethan Cullen of Hanna City.

Cullen said he stopped suddenly because a vehicle in front of his was turning right. Delost said he tried to stop and swerved left but couldn’t avoid a collision. The Fusion sustained front passenger-side bumper and quarter-panel damage, same as the Juke to its rear driver’s side. Both vehicles were drivable.

• BELLEVUE – A Hanna City man avoided injury after his vehicle crashed into a mattress lying on a roadway west of Bellevue.

Tyler T. Baugher was driving an eastbound 2016 Dodge Ram pickup truck at 11:30 a.m. March 26 on Plank Road near Maxwell Road when wind blew the mattress out of the bed of a westbound 2014 Chevrolet Silverado. Baugher was unable to brake quickly enough to avoid the accident.

According to a Peoria County Sheriff’s Office report, the other driver – Terrell L. Johnson of Peoria – said the mattress was not tied down because he thought it was heavy enough to remain in place. The Ram sustained moderate front-bumper and grille damage but was drivable.

• HANNA CITY – A two-vehicle wreck west of Hanna City resulted in a female requiring a hospital visit.

Shortly before 8:30 p.m. March 25, Autumn A. Cook of Canton was driving a 2008 Ford sedan west on Illinois Route 116 at Eden Road when the vehicle rear-ended a stopped 2017 Acura sedan, a Peoria County Sheriff’s Office report stated. Brette Orwig of Canton was the other driver.

Cook said Orwig’s vehicle and others were stopped because of another accident, which distracted her. Cook’s passenger said the accident happened so quickly she didn’t remember it. She complained about shoulder and hand pain and was transported to OSF Saint Francis Medical Center in Peoria.

Neither driver reported injuries. Orwig’s vehicle sustained minor rear-end damage and was drivable. Cook’s vehicle had was towed. Logan-Trivoli firefighters also responded.

• OAK RUN – A traffic stop on Interstate 74 south of Oak Run resulted in a Galesburg man’s arrest after 14 bags of raw cannabis were found in the vehicle trunk.

Equentin J. Harris Jr., 24, also possessed $4,288 in cash when he was arrested, about 6 p.m. March 18 at mile marker 59 on the interstate. He was a passenger in a Jeep Cherokee a Knox County Sheriff’s Office deputy pulled over for having an obstructed license plate, according to a report.

The deputy smelled pot emanating from the vehicle; 49 grams of it were found in the trunk. Harris said he and the driver, a 24-year-old Peoria man, were heading to Bloomington to hang out with friends.

Harris was accused of possession with intent to deliver between 30 and 500 grams of cannabis and was transported to the Knox County Jail in Galesburg. He also was wanted in Warren County for violating a court order. Authorities confiscated the cannabis and cash.

• BRIMFIELD – At 8 p.m. March 26, Susan L. Walker of Edwards was driving an eastbound 2020 Chevrolet Traverse on U.S. Route 150 at Fox Creek Drive east of Brimfield when the vehicle struck a deer. Walker and her two passengers were uninjured, according to a Peoria County Sheriff’s Office report. The vehicle sustained damage and was towed.

• PRINCEVILLE – At 8:30 p.m. March 25, Jaime R. Henson of Princeville was driving a northbound 2024 Nissan Sentra on Princeville-Jubilee Road at Parks School Road when the vehicle struck a deer. Henson and his two passengers weren’t injured, according to a Peoria County Sheriff’s Office report. He drove away the vehicle.

• FARMINGTON – At 9 p.m. March 17, Tanner W. Kenney of Farmington was driving a westbound 2015 Ford Fusion in the 23000 block of Illinois Route 116 when the vehicle struck a deer. Kenney was uninjured, according to a Peoria County Sheriff’s Office report. The vehicle sustained damage but was drivable.

• HANNA CITY – Matt J. Hankins, 48, of Hanna City was arrested at 5 p.m. April 1 on a writ of attachment, according to the Peoria County Sheriff’s Office.

• GALESBURG – These were among calls to which the Knox County Sheriff’s Office responded between March 23-29: dispute, Yates City; wire down, La Fayette; fraud, Williamsfield; noise complaint, Yates City; grass fire, Williamsfield; battery, Williamsfield; burglar alarm, Yates City; burglar alarm, Williamsfield; parking complaint, Dahinda; physical domestic dispute, Dahinda.

Farmington to start campus improvements

By JEFF LAMPE
For The Weekly Post

FARMINGTON – The latest round of improvements to the Farmington CUSD 265 campus will start soon.

During Monday’s monthly meeting, the school board approved three bids – two of which mark the start of an extensive $8 million upgrade to facilities.

First to get started will be a football-field irrigation project being done by Commercial Irrigation, Inc. of East Peoria for $77,782. That work can start as soon as possible, according to Superintendent Zac Chatterton.

The other work, which will be done this summer, is resurfacing of the track by Track Surfaces Company of Elburn for $143,876.

The third bid the board approved was for a 2025 Toyota Sienna van for $44,499 from Shottenkirk Toyota of Quincy.

Architectural bids for other facets of the campus upgrade are expected in the near future.

The board also improved contract renewals and 4.5% raises for non-union, non-certified employees and for district administrators.

In other business, the board voted in favor of IESA membership for 2025-26, a revised employee handbook and a memorandum of understanding amending the teacher vacancy grant agreement.

Student Board Member Izzy Lynn presented findings from her survey of 28 Farmington teachers.

When asked for areas in need of improvement, 32.1% of those surveyed listed time, student discipline and money. Student discipline was listed more frequently in the survey of elementary-school teachers, while high school teachers listed time and resources most often.

The next top responses were resources (28.6%), stress (17.9%) and lack of support (17.9%).

In a follow-up question, 44% of those surveyed listed their stress level at 7 or higher on a scale of 1-10.

Prior to the business meeting, the board reconsidered the following students of the month: 6th graders Alyvia Vorgias and Charlie Meister, 7th graders Jeremiah Boroughs and Addison Marton, 8th graders Khloe Wright and Reed Nickel, freshman Mya Melton, sophomore Katie Capitani, junior Anthony Zotto and senior Lane Wheelwright.

Orange Frog honorees were Jessica Kilper and Ciara Ulm.

The board also recognized members of the Science Olympiad team who competed at the state meet in Champaign. The high school team won five medals and the junior-high team earned six, including a first place by Macy Phillips and Claire Price.

In personnel, the board approved hiring Jacob Wilson as transportation supervisor, Cathy Holder as playground supervisor for the elementary school, Jessica Miller as a high school math teacher and Jerry Platt as high school art teacher.

The board also accepted resignations of Addison Gilstrap as elementary yearbook sponsor and Nathan Lynch as bus driver and the retirement notice of Julie Springer for 2028-29.

Princeville schools pass safety measure

By NICK VLAHOS
For The Weekly Post

PRINCEVILLE – Student safety was a primary theme of the Princeville School Board meeting April 8.

Board members approved a $5,881.40 deal with Heart Technologies, Inc., of East Peoria to help make the main entrance to the junior-senior high school more secure. Before that, a district resident asked the board and administrators to consider installing video cameras in school buses.

Jessica Buckley said the cameras can help review drivers’ performances and monitor students’ behavior. What she saw aboard a bus she was following recently prompted her to address the board.

“I was appalled,” said Buckley, a former school-bus driver. “Kids were standing, swinging their legs. The bus was traveling 65 miles an hour. This is kind of a repeated concern I’ve been noticing the past few years, and I guess I kind of hit my mark the other day.

“I do think some accountability, whether it’s employees or the students themselves, should be looked into. Maybe it could alleviate multiple problems or potential future problems going forward.”

Board members had no comment and took no action regarding Buckley’s request.

Regarding the junior-senior-high entrance, the goal is to duplicate the entry procedure at Princeville Grade School, according to Superintendent Tony Shinall. Grade-school visitors first enter a vestibule, then the main door, both times by buzzer. A security camera monitors who is attempting to enter.

The board also approved a $24,080 contract with 309 Roofing of Toulon for a new roof at the district office. Water seeps into the building attic during major rainstorms, according to Shinall. The high school senior class trip April 25 to Six Flags St. Louis received board authorization, too.

Agreements with Princeville village government for easements near the high school football field were approved. The easements are part of an upcoming $6.2 million sewer-improvement project.

Tabled was a deal to construct a fence around the grade-school playground. The board needed time to better understand the submitted design and to make sure the fence location wouldn’t affect other activities, Shinall stated.

Regarding personnel, board members approved hiring Jessica Bliss as a high school freshman volleyball coach and Christina Stedman as a permanent substitute teacher. The hiring of Cadie Rzeppa as a grade-school counselor was tabled. She had not yet responded to the district’s job offer, according to Shinall.

Appointed as summer technology interns were Kaden Blunier, Ryan Butterfield, Ted Fritzenmeier, Lily Garcia, Noah Geiger, Owen Harmon, Jeremy Melick and Lee Taylor. Most are high-schoolers.

Blunier and Geiger also were appointed as technology and mass-communications interns, respectively, for the 2025-26 academic year.

Shinall announced day-care paraprofessional Alexa Frazelle will be taking time off under the federal Family and Medical Leave Act.

Elmwood to unveil bison on April 23

ELMWOOD – The Elmwood City Council had a brief meeting on April 8 highlighted by a report from Economic Development Director Amy Davis.

Davis said the city has been in communication with U.S. Rep. Eric Sorensen’s office regarding funding for work planned at the Sweetwater Park lagoons. Pre-application paperwork has been resubmitted.

To promote the June 7 Strawberry Festival, strawberry-shaped art is being built and distributed to participating businesses in town to decorate and display.

A second art project nearing completion is a large bison sculpture that art students at Elmwood schools have helped decorate. As part of Peoria County’s “bisontennial” celebration, life-size bisons are being displayed throughout the county, which was founded in 1825.

Elmwood’s bison is to be clear-coated this week and its name will be announced during an unveiling on April 23 in front of City Hall at 11:30

Elmwood High School students decorate the city’s bison that will be unveiled at 11:30 a.m. on April 23 in front of Elmwood City Hall.

The Elmwood Development Association is also working on a tourism plan for the community developed by students of the Rural Tourism class at the University of Illinois. Davis has also met with the Greater Peoria Economic Development Council and the Tri-County Regional Planning Commission to discuss Elmwood’s comprehensive plan and grant funding.

Budget balanced in Billtown, but pump fails

By NICK VLAHOS
For The Weekly Post

WILLIAMSFIELD – The financial situation regarding Williamsfield village government is good and not as good.

The good part is the budget for the 2026 fiscal year appears to be balanced, according to Village President Robert Johnson. The not-as-good part is the village has an unexpected expense of between $20,000 and $30,000. A failed pump in one of two village water wells is to blame.

Johnson isn’t sure what caused the issue, which was confirmed last week. He expected the well to be repaired this week. Water still is available to village customers and there are no stipulations regarding its use, although the other well is not at full working capacity.

“Fingers crossed it doesn’t (fail) before these guys come and put this new equipment in,” Johnson said Sunday. “It’s going to be kind of a double whammy. Once this gets put in and it’s good and running, then we’re going to have to address the other one.”

Village water customers use about 75,000 gallons per day, according to Johnson. Current water storage in town can handle about two days’ supply.

The Village Board probably will approve the new-pump expense when it meets May 5. Also up for approval then probably will be the budget, following a public hearing scheduled for 7 p.m. on April 29. The budget for the fiscal year that begins May 1 will be discussed then, but no action is to be taken.

Recent accounting changes have helped the budget become more accurate, according to Johnson. He said village expenses are about $40,000 a month. The budget for the year is about $500,000.

The budget is to include some items addressed in the village strategic plan trustees approved earlier this month. Among them are new street signs, a new maintenance building, replacing a staircase at the village hall and sidewalk repairs and replacements.

“We’ll be able to take and start filling that list,” Johnson said.

Fire destroys landmark home near Douglas

By NICK VLAHOS
For The Weekly Post

DOUGLAS – A fire west of Douglas destroyed a local landmark, a frame house constructed in the mid-19th century.

It also resulted indirectly in the hospitalization of a firefighter, although no other serious injuries were reported.

The blaze at 1739 W. Illinois Route 8 was reported about 6:45 p.m. April 11, according to Patrick Hohenbery, chief of the Maquon Fire Protection District. The private residence once housed Sister House Bed & Breakfast.

“At first, the report was the fire was outside and starting to melt the siding on the house,” Hohenbery said Sunday. “But when I was leaving my house, I could see the smoke and I asked dispatch, ‘Are you sure it’s not inside the house? The smoke is getting blacker and blacker.’”

During Hohenbery’s 10-minute trip, dispatchers confirmed the fire spread to the house interior. By the time firefighters first arrived, the west side of the house was aflame and the second story was fully engulfed.

“He tried putting it out with a garden hose and it wouldn’t touch it,” Hohenbery said about one of the homeowners.

The residents, two adults and a 2-year-old, were uninjured and escaped before firefighters arrived. Elba-

Before sundown on April 11, a fire started that eventually engulfed a historic home at 1739 W. Illinois Route 8. The house was deemed a total loss by firefighters. Photo by Debra Ellis.

Salem, Elmwood, Fairview, Farmington, Knoxville and London Mills departments responded.

Another responder, from the Woodhull-based Clover Township fire department, had an apparent heart attack as he was driving to the scene. An ambulance at the fire was redirected to the 900 block of Illinois Route 97 near Gilson, where the Clover Township firefighter and his passenger stopped.

Hohenbery said the stricken man was transported to OSF Saint Mary Medical Center in Galesburg and had been in intensive care.

A pair of Maquon firefighters was treated for minor heat exhaustion. It took about three hours to bring the blaze under control, according to Hohenbery. Firefighters were at the scene until shortly after midnight. They evacuated the house twice because of potential roof collapses.

The chief did not have a damage estimate but said the house was a total loss.

Also responding were the American Red Cross, the Knox County Sheriff’s Office and BYE and Galesburg Hospitals’ ambulance services.

The Office of the Illinois State Fire Marshal is investigating. Hohenbery said it appeared the fire began outside a house that probably dated to the 1850s.

A similar house built of brick stands a few miles to the west. According to a Facebook post by Chris Wilson of Manhattan, Kan., the houses were commissioned by sisters whose family moved in 1839 from upstate New York to the Douglas-Maquon area.

“That house has a lot of history,” Hohenbery said.

Farmington softball wins, loses 1-run games

By NICK VLAHOS
For The Weekly Post

Farmington experienced the lows, then the highs of one-run softball games last week.

The Farmers came back from an early deficit for a 5-4 walk-off victory April 12 over Eureka. That followed a 9-8 loss April 10 to Rushville-ndustry in which a late Farmington rally came up short.

In the victory, Laila Irvin scored from second base in the bottom of the seventh inning after the Eureka first baseman committed a throwing error in attempting to force her out at third on Lydia Overcash’s ground ball.

Joelle Herbst’s two-run single gave Farmington (5-8) a first-inning lead, but Eureka scored four in the second. Gracie Duley’s center-field home run in the fifth pulled Farmington into a 4-4 tie. Overcash struck out 11 in pitching a complete game.

Against R-I, Farmington allowed five first-inning runs and trailed 9-2 in the sixth. But Farmington scored three in the sixth and three in the seventh. Emma Slayton’s triple and Addison Rockhold’s double drove in sixth-inning runs, and Overcash had a two-run double in the seventh.

Deer Creek-Mackinaw took an early lead, too, on Farmington, but the visitors came back to win 7-3 on April 8. Farmington allowed three first-inning runs but scored in each of the final three innings, including a three-run fifth. In that inning, Nevaeh Howard’s double drove in one run and two scored on an error. Howard and Herbst each had two RBI.

• Brimfield-Elmwood – Sawyer Drury struck out 15 Ridgewood batters Monday as B-E (13-2) won 4-1. Schyer Meinders’ fifth-inning single drove in Drury to break a 1-1 tie. Meinders had two hits and two RBI. Josie Wiewel was 2-for-3.

Kendyl Binder hit a two-run homer in the first inning April 12 and another in the seventh as B-E beat Havana 8-1. B-E led 2-1 before scoring four in the sixth, on a two-run single by Meinders and a two-run homer by Brooke Allen. Drury was 3-for-4.

Drury struck out 14 Delavan batters and allowed two hits April 10 in a 10-0 victory. B-E had seven fifth-inning runs. Binder’s two-run double was the big blow. Allen and Reese Legaspi were 2-for-3.

Legaspi and Meinders each had two RBI in a 7-2 victory April 9 over ROWVA-Williamsfield. B-E led 1-0 on Legaspi’s first-inning sacrifice fly. That held until a B-E three-run fifth.

On April 8, Drury again struck out 14 opposing batters, but Sara Finn of Illini Bluffs homered in the third for the only run of the game. IB had only two hits. Meinders was 2-for-3.

• Princeville – Reagan Walsh had a three-run, second-inning double on her way to a 3-for-3, four-RBI, three-run performance for Princeville (4-7) in a 16-1 victory Monday over Varna Midland. Also with four RBI was Claire Sutherland, who had two hits. Tori Catton was 3-for-3.

Princeville split a doubleheader April 12 against Bureau Valley, which won the second game 13-3. Princeville tied it at 2-2 in the third inning, on Mekaya Cihla’s homer. Cihla, Sierra Stahl and Claire Sutherland each had two hits.

In the first game, Princeville scored four in the fifth and withstood a Bureau Valley comeback to win 6-5. Cihla had a two-run homer in the pivotal inning, and Sutherland had a two-run single. She was 3-for-4 with four RBI. Stahl was 2-for-3 and scored three times.

Sutherland’s two-run single April 8 gave Princeville an early lead at Ke-wanee, but the hosts won 9-4.

• ROWVA-Williamsfield – Rock Island Alleman scored nine in the second inning Monday to beat R-W 14-3. Hazel Walters’ first-inning single brought home Ella Rigg to give R-W (6-6) a 1-0 lead. Walters was 2-for-2 with two RBI.

R-W swept a doubleheader April 12 from Galva, 7-1 and 9-6. Rigg homered and had an RBI double in the second game. Llylah Shaffer had three RBI and Sophie Pohlman had two. In the first game, pitcher Hannah Gehring struck out 15. She also was 2-for-3 with three RBI.

Riley Smith struck out 10 April 10 as R-W beat Stark County 6-3. Rigg was 3-for-4 with two RBI, and Emerson Hannam had a two-run double.

The previous day, B-E beat R-W 7-2 as the Cougars were scoreless until the seventh. Hannam had an RBI.

Crawford also pitched the first six frames, walking five but yielding just one hit and striking out 13.

• Princeville – The Princes (5-5) completed a good week Saturday with a home twinbill sweep over Stark County, 8-7 and 12-0.

In the opener, PHS held on behind Carter Peterson (1.1 innings, one earned run and one strikeout) and Matt Bowers (0.2 innings, no hits) in relief of starter Parker Dickinson (eight strikeouts)..

“Matt did a great job closing the first game. Parker had some tough breaks early but settled in late to throw well,” Princeville Coach Brett Williams said.

Dickinson hit two doubles to drive in two. Cayden Allen hit 2-for-3.

“Carter Peterson had a great day at the plate, going 5-for-5 in the doubleheader with a home run, double and six RBI,” Williams said.

In the nightcap, the hosts struck for seven in the second to stake pitcher Logan Olshawsky, who tossed five innings of shutout work and two strikeouts.

Peterson continued to rake at the plate, going 4-for-4 with a double and three RBI. Bowers had two hits and three RBI and Dickinson was 3-for-4 while driving in two runs.

The Princes topped West Central 9-2 at home on April 9. Six runs in the bottom of the first to go with the pitching of Noah Geiger (five innings pitched, two hits and eight strikeouts), Peterson (one frame, one strikeout) and Coley Palmer (one inning and three strikeouts) sealed the victory.

Peterson hit two doubles with two RBI. Palmer also had two RBI with two doubles. Trent Buffum drove in two with one double. Bowers drove in two.

R-W swept a Lincoln Trail doubleheader at Ridgewood on Saturday, 3-2 and 9-3. In the opener, Jaxson Strom pitched six innings, yielding two earned runs and two hits while striking out 12.

The Cougars’ scoring came from a Talan Hull solo home run in the second. Drake DeJaynes singled in a run in the third. Nick Little’s RBI double in the fourth was the difference.

In the second game, Strom connected for a two-run homer and Zander Vest hit 2-for-3 with two RBI. DeJaynes pitched 4.1 frames and struck out five. Hull tossed 2.1 innings with no hits or runs.

“Strom, DeJaynes and Hull were dominant on the mound,” R-W assistant Mike Weitekamp said.

Boys sprint relays looking strong

By JEFF LAMPE
For The Weekly Post

Names and faces of athletes change, but year after year you can count on some certainties in boys track.

Elmwood-Brimfield will have a strong 3,200-meter relay. Princeville will be strong in the throwing events and field a strong relay or two. ROWVA-Williamsfield will be deep in the relays. And Farmington will be fast in the sprint relays.

This year is no different. For Farmington, the latest proof came Saturday in Macomb at the Lee Calhoun Invitational at Western Illinois University.

The quartet of senior

Jake Martin and juniors Kyle Miller, Ethan Martin and Jack Gronewold won the 4x100 relay (44.67 seconds) and the 4x200 (1:34.07).

“We edged out Macomb in both the 4x1 and 4x2. We know we will see them a few more times at various meets throughout the season, so it’ll definitely be a fun race to watch,” Farmington boys coach Brad Whitcomb said. “We need to continue to fine-tune our handoffs and hopefully that will help us shave a bit more off of our time, but a great start so far for those four in the relay.”

Farmington also got a strong showing from junior Dax Ulm, who won the

B-E baseball rolling

Outscore foes 58-11 in last five wins

By PHIL JOHNSON
For The Weekly Post

Bats have been sizzling of late for the Brimfield-Elmwood baseball team.

The Indians (10-3-1) capped a good stretch on Monday with a 12-1 win over Peoria Heights on the road. B-E has outscored its past five foes 58-11 during a five-game win streak.

Ahead 8-1 through five innings on Monday, B-E plated four in the sixth to turn it into a shortened game.

Sean Crowe and Dana Fagerburg had three RBI each, and Connor Doe hit 2-for-3 with two RBI.

Brady Johnson was flawless on the mound for 5.1 innings with five strikeouts, yielding two hits.

The Indians scored early and often Saturday at Bushnell-Prairie City in a 14-1 win. Five runs in the top of the first staked pitchers Layne Johnson (three innings, two hits, three strikeouts) and Jackson Kappes (two innings, no hits, five strikeouts).

B-E lashed 15 hits. Kaeden Schatsiek was 3-for-4 with five RBI and a double and triple. Doe hit-3 for-4 with three RBI, Kaden Cahill was 3-for-3 with one RBI and Layne Johnson went 2-for-2 with one RBI.

B-E topped Pekin 8-4 on Friday on the road. Evan Patterson pitched 2.1 frames with two hits and three strikeouts. Crowe pitched 4.2 innings. Doe had two RBI while hitting 3-for-4 and
