Pilots of Boeing Model 75 Stearman biplanes gathered at Yates City Airport on Tuesday for an open house held by airport owner Dave Shipley. The 1930s- and 1940s-era planes were once used for training pilots for World War II but are now flown by collectors. Stearman enthusiasts gather in Galesburg each year around Labor Day and fly daily to various local airports. Photos by Jeff Lampe.

YATES CITY – The skies over Knox County are buzzing with biplanes once again this week.

The 54th National Stearman Fly-In is underway, attracting airplane enthusiasts from around the country and the world to Galesburg Municipal Airport.

Started in 1972, the annual event regularly draws as many as 100 of the open-cockpit biplanes.

Each day of the week-long gathering, pilots fly to nearby airports for food and camaraderie.

For the past six years, Yates City Airport has been the Tuesday gathering spot for Stearmans, officially known as Boeing Model

"The No. 1 thing they are known for is pilot training in World War II," said Dave Shipley, owner of the Yates City Airport. "If you can fly a taildragger like that, you can fly just about anything."

Gov. Pritzker expects federal action to mirror deployment in Los Angeles

By BEN SZALINSKI

Capitol News Illinois
Gov. JB Pritzker said
Tuesday he expects Immigration and Customs Enforcement agents to employ the same aggressive strategies they used in Los Angeles earlier this summer after President
Donald Trump said he will deploy the National Guard to Chicago.

The information, Pritzker said, was not directly communicated to him, but rather gleaned from anonymous sources in the federal government, military and "well-sourced" news reports. He said he's been told members of the Texas National Guard are being readied for deployment to Chicago and many of the same federal ICE and Homeland Security groups that worked in L.A. are being relocated to Chicago.

Pritzker said Illinois State Police received a call from Customs and Border Protection Chief Gregory Bovino over the weekend confirming that ICE will

Township has spent a lot

At least one township official also appears to be spent of patience.

The oft-delayed Illinois Commerce Commission decision regarding BNSF Railway's request to close the Whittaker Road crossing was delayed again last week. Depositions for two township representatives were not held earlier in August, as scheduled. Each side accused the other of miscommunication

STEARMAN: Planes have the 'cool factor'

Shipley explained that because Stearmans have a wheel in the back of the plane, landing in crosswinds can be tricky.

"You have to keep your foot on that rudder, otherwise she's going to turn around on you," Shipley said.

Tuesday's relatively wind-free, sunny, 78-degree day was perfect weather for flying an open-cockpit plane, pilots agreed.

Among those on hand was Dick Sisson of Virden, a longtime Stearman admirer who acquired his rebuilt 1942 model three years ago.

"Before we had our last child, we said when he graduates college, we're buying a Stearman," Sisson recalled.

When son Noah graduated from the University of Illinois-Springfield four years ago, the Sissons started looking for a relatively affordable Stearman.

"Everybody wants to ride in these. It's got the big motor, the biplane look," Sisson said. "It's definitely got the cool factor."

Stearmans are not a young man's hobby, though, with prices of $80,000 to $250,000, according to Shipley. He said one year, a pilot from the Netherlands took the wings off his plane and shipped it to the United States to attend the Galesburg fly-in.

More than 10,000 Stearmans were built in the 1930s and 1940s and were adapted from a design made by Lloyd Stearman. After World War II, many Stearmans were used by crop dusters until the 1970s.

Stearmans can be flown from either of their two cockpits and reach speeds of up to 100 mph.

One of the youngest pilots at Yates City on Tuesday was Brien Sager, 39, of Tullahoma, Tenn. A first-timer at the Galesburg gathering, Sager said he has been involved in aviation since he was 6 and was flying his father's plane during this year's Fly-In.

"It's been a blast. Everybody is very friendly," he said. "It's cool landing in the grass with corn and beans all around you instead of on pavement. It's a different type of aviation here."

Other stops on the Stearman tour include Wednesday in Kewanee, Thursday in Geneseo and Friday atWolford's Farm near Abingdon for the grand finale.

Megan Ptak of Princeville graduated summa cum laude with a Bachelors in Science from Creighton University. During her senior year she received the following awards: Outstanding Senior Honors Program, Outstanding Achievement in Health Administration & Policy, Outsanding Achievement College of Arts & Sciences, Rev. # WIND TURBINES: NOT SO GREEN

The following are excerpts from a commentary by Austin Gae, a research associate for the Center for Energy, Climate, and Environment at The Heritage Foundation (heritage.org).

Onshore wind farms require eight times the amount of critical minerals as natural gas power plants do. ... The staggering quantities of such materials, such as copper and rare earth metals, are environmentally damaging. Mining is vital for economic progress, but the excessive extraction required for wind turbines is out of proportion to the energy produced.

Consider that for every megawatt of power capacity, a natural gas power plant requires about 1 ton of critical minerals, while a nuclear power plant needs 6 tons. In contrast, onshore wind plants require 11 tons, and offshore wind demands 17 tons of critical minerals for the same megawatt of energy output.

1 ton of minerals

6 tons of minerals /

According to a study by the Breakthrough Institute, wind energy takes about 30,000 acres per terawatt-hour of electricity generation annually, whereas nuclear energy uses 18 acres. Moreover, wind energy takes six times as much space as a natural gas power plant.

We can keep earth, if we pass climate test

A recent change in climate policy by the Trump Administration threatens to change everything on earth – from the fast-warming planet itself to all the life on it.

On July 29, Lee Zeldin, the administrator of the Environmental Protection Agency, announced "the largest deregulatory action in the history of the United States." The White House, reported

Alan

GUEBERT

The New York Times, planned to "erase limits on greenhouse-gas emissions from cars and trucks on the nation's roads."

The action, the Times continued, "... flatly denies the overwhelming scientific evidence of climate change."

The decision dovetails with earlier Trump Administration choices to "scrap restrictions on pollution from power plants, halt key measurements of greenhouse gases," and since July, cancel most federal "wind and solar energy projects ..."

In essence, the people who want to Make America Great Again also want to Make the World Hot Again. (The last time the earth was this hot was 120,000 years ago.) If they do, climate chaos will be the rule by the end of this century.

That's what the facts point to. For example:

 According to the National Oceanic and Atmosmospheric Administration (NOAA), the atmospheric concentration of CO2 prior to the Industrial Revolution was, for almost 6,000 years, a steady 280 parts per million (ppm).

• Then came the age of coal and oil and by 1925 the CO2 content was 305 ppm and climbing fast. Today, 100 years and 1.5 trillion tons of atmospheric CO2 later, it's an even faster-climbing 425 ppm.

• If we, like the Trump Administration, deny "the overwhelming scientific evidence of climate change," atmospheric CO2 will soar to between an off-the-charts 670 and 700 ppm by the year 2100.

In his new book, "We Are Eating the Earth," Michael Grunwald puts those numbers into context. For example, "The earth hasn't heated up this quickly in 485 million years" and "... the last 10 years were the 10 hottest years ever recorded."

Worse, "We've emitted more heat-trapping greenhouse gases" since the 1997 Kyoto Protocol, the first international agreement to limit CO2 in the atmosphere, than "we emitted in all human history before Kyoto."

Grunwald says all these facts point to our growing "land problem."

"We need to start treating the limited land we've got as our most precious resource," he explains, "because it needs to produce much more food to sustain us and absorb much more carbon to save us."

Instead, we're doing the opposite. "Our agricultural footprint is already the size of all of Asia plus all of Europe, and the more it expands, the more nature's footprint shrinks, expelling the carbon stored in its soils and vegetation into our overheated atmosphere."

In short, we are eating the earth: The more we expand today's meatrich, biofuel-focused agriculture, the more we doom coming generations to climate failure or worse.

"If current trends hold," he writes, "the world's farmers will need to clear at least a dozen more Californias' worth of land to fill nearly 10 billion bellies by 2050. That would wipe out the Amazon rainforest and other natural carbon storehouses that are ... our best defense against climate change."

We can change that trajectory, he explains, and, no, it doesn't involve recent food flops like "vertical farming," and lab-made meat or too-slow regenerative agriculture.

One thing we cannot do is what the Trump Administration is now doing: declare climate change a hoax and simply walk away. It's not

In fact, "The climate is a test," Grunwald explains, paraphrasing a former environmental clairvoyant, "if we pass, we may get to keep the planet."

Gun-rights groups petition Supreme Court

By PETER HANCOCK

Capitol News Illinois

Two national gun-rights organizations are asking the U.S. Supreme Court to strike down Cook County's ban on assault-style weapons in hopes that such a decision would overturn similar bans nationally, including the statewide ban Illinois lawmakers enacted in 2023.

The Firearms Policy Coalition and the Second Amendment Foundation filed a petition with the court on Aug. 27, asking it to reverse the 7th Circuit Court of Appeals. In June, the 7th Circuit said plaintiffs in the case had shown no reason for the court to reverse its own precedents that have upheld assault-weapons bans, including a 2019 decision upholding the Cook County law.

The petition was filed on the same day two children were killed and 17 other individuals were injured in a mass shooting at a Catholic church in Minneapolis. As of Aug. 28, authorities had not yet publicly identified the specific weapons used in that shooting.

It also came as the 7th Circuit is still weighing arguments in a challenge to Illinois' statewide assault weapons ban, known as the Protect Illinois Communities Act. Illinois Attorney General Kwame Raoul's office filed its final brief in that appeal Aug. 14.

"The AR-15 is the most popular rifle in America, owned by millions of peaceable people for lawful purposes every day," Coalition President Brandon Combs said in a statement. "The Bill of Rights is not a suggestion, and the Second Amendment is not a second-class right."

We Cover The News of West-Central Illinois With A Passion

RAILROAD: 'Just a fleecing of the taxpayers'

Continued from Page 1 township. It's amassed about $7,500 in such expenses over two years, according to township Highway Commissioner Matt Perham.

"It's just a fleecing of the taxpayers by a bunch of attorneys," Perham said earlier this week. "They said it would take two years. Well, it's been two years and we haven't gotten anywhere. There's just no ending to it."

In July 2023, BNSF requested the unguarded Whittaker Road crossing be closed. The railroad cited safety concerns and lack of use. Local officials oppose closure because oversized farm equipment uses the crossing and proposed detours are unsafe, among other reasons.

Progress toward a resolution, including an evidentiary hearing, was expected during the status hearing last week. But the agreed-to depositions of Perham and civil engineer Patrick Meyer, set for Aug. 7 and Aug. 12 in Peoria, did not take place because BNSF representatives missed the initial appointment.

Dan Hronek, an attorney for BNSF, blamed a new paralegal in his office who wasn't familiar with procedures. Hronek also suggested Noah Miller, the attorney who is representing the township, didn't make him aware of the deposition dereliction.

"After the first date came and went, it was a matter of professional courtesy that we hear from Mr. Miller's office rather than the day of the hearing say 'I object' and be completely silent during that time," Hronek said during the status hearing.

The depositions were to be taken via internet conferencing. That also is how the status hearings have been conducted.

"He requested the depositions. I don't believe the township was under any obligation to remind him," Miller said about Hronek, who is based in Chicago. "The clients were ready to go. They came to our offices ready to be deposed but just didn't hear from the railroad."

Miller objected to rescheduled depositions, based on expense and inconvenience, but Kirkland-Montaque overruled him. No new date had been set as of early this week, according to Perham. He sees all of it as stalling tactics by BNSF, which has the financial wherewithal to handle legal costs.

In addition to attorneys' fees, the township owes Meyer about $7,000 for work he's performed regarding this case. According to Perham, the engineering and legal fees constitute a substantial amount of the budget in a township of about 400 residents.

"It's very irritating to a guy who drives a 1993 plow truck that has three different colors, I can tell you that," Perham said. "We're pretty frugal and I carry a black balance, but this is not what I would call frugal money-spending."

BNSF has proposed farm equipment use Illinois Route 78 as an alternative crossing. Perham said distance from Whittaker Road is too far, according to state statute. He also said there is insufficient clearance under a bridge that carries the railroad above the state highway.

"If this wasn't a publicsafety issue, I'd just settle," Perham said. "But there's no good way to get that farming equipment under the viaduct."

• PEORIA – A Peoria man was found guilty of murdering his girlfriend, who was found with two mortal gunshot wounds in 2021 in a ditch west of Kickapoo.

Joshua A. McGee, 39, also was convicted Aug. 20 in Peoria County Circuit Court of unlawful possession of a weapon by a felon. The verdicts culminated a three-day trial. Sentencing for the crimes McGee committed Aug. 22, 2021, is scheduled for Oct. 2, per the Peoria County State's Attorney's Office.

Alerted by a 911 telephone call, Peoria County Sheriff's Office deputies found Ashley Tankersley, 37, of Peoria lying in a ditch along U.S. Route 150 near Philander Chase Lane. She died at OSF Saint Francis Medical Center in Peoria.

McGee was arrested at a rest area north of Springfield following an hours-long standoff. A search of his vehicle brought forth a handgun, two spent shell casings, Tankersley's purse and her phone. Peoria County Sheriff Chris Watkins, who was a captain at the time, traced the 911 call to McGee's phone.

• ELMWOOD – A Yates City man was accused of passing a counterfeit $20 bill at an Elmwood con-

Security video revealed Zachary R. Cassel, 32, used the fake cash to buy a pack of cigarettes and two Illinois Lottery tickets about 9:45 p.m. Aug. 11 at Casey's, 811 W. Main St., according to the Elmwood Police Department. A clerk determined the bill was counterfeit after Cassel left the Cassel was charged with fraud and received a notice to appear in Peoria County Circuit Court. He also was cited for driving with a suspended license.

• PEORIA – An Edwards man was arrested after he fled the scene of a traffic accident in Peoria.

Kayden E. McBride, 18, was the passenger in a westbound 2016 Ford Focus that struck a curb and wrecked shortly after 2:15 a.m. Aug. 10 on War Memorial Drive west of Big Hollow Road, according to a Peoria police report. Also fleeing on foot was the driver, 18-year-old Keylon M. Schutz of Peoria.

McBride was located at a nearby apartment. Both men said they fled because they were scared. Both men were accused of resisting arrest. McBride also was accused of obstructing an officer, and Schutz was accused of reckless driving. A cannabis grinder was found inside the car.

• BRIMFIELD – A Galesburg man was accused of drunken driving following a single-vehicle accident.

Joseph M. Wiegand, 35, was driving a 2018 Jeep Wrangler at the time of the wreck, shortly after 7 p.m. Aug. 9 in the 400 block of E. Knoxville St., a heavily redacted Peoria County Sheriff's Office report stated. Brimfield firefighters and BYE Ambulance Service also responded.

Wiegand was transported to OSF Saint Francis Medical Center in Peoria, where he was treated for unspecified injuries. He was charged with driving under the influence of alcohol, improper lane use and failure to reduce speed to avoid an accident.

- HANNA CITY A Farmington man appeared to avoid injury from a single-vehicle wreck south of Hanna City. Jesse J. Ebert was driving a 2013 Chrysler shortly after 6:30 p.m. Aug. 6 in the 9400 block of W. Smithville Rd. when the driver's-side front tire fell off the vehicle, according to a Peoria County Sheriff's Office report. The vehicle ended up facing west in a north-side ditch.
- HANNA CITY Oversized-load semi-trailer trucks might have indirectly caused sparks to fly inside a Hanna City residence, according to authorities.

Logan-Trivoli firefighters and a Peoria County Sheriff's Office deputy were summoned about 2 p.m. Aug. 5 to the 300 block of N. First St. The residents there said the sparks fell from the ceiling near an air conditioner, according to a sheriff's-of-

A wire from a telephone pole attached to the house extended to nearby Farmington Road and was hanging low above it. Fire officials noted other recent calls about lowhanging wires, which may be from an increased number of oversized loads passing through town because of detours.

No damage inside the residence was reported. Ameren Illinois was called to remove the wire.

• PEORIA – An Edelstein-area man was arrested on illegal-drugs charges less than a week after he was cited for traffic violations.

Ronnie L. Bodtke, 41, was accused of unlawful methamphetamine possession, obstructing justice, attempting to elude an officer, driving on a suspended license, disregarding a stop sign and improper use of registration regarding an incident about 6 p.m. Aug. 8 at Montana and Oregon streets in Peoria.

A Peoria County Sheriff's Office report about that incident was heavily redacted. So was a report from Aug. 3, when a deputy stopped Bodtke while he was driving a U-Haul truck about 10 p.m. in the 3000 block of W. Starr St. in Peoria. The truck did not have functional brake lights.

Bodtke was cited for the brakelight malfunction, as well as for driving with a suspended license.

• PEORIA – An Edwards man was accused of the armed robbery of $30 from a gasoline station in Peoria.

Officers stopped Sergio Delgado-Rodriguez, 26, as he was driving a 2024 Chevrolet Trax sport-utility vehicle shortly after 2:30 a.m. Aug. 2 at Grinnell and Livingston streets. Delgado-Rodriguez matched the description of a suspect security video captured robbing the BP station at 3202 SW Adams St.

A Glock 26 handgun was found under the driver's seat. Delgado-Rodriguez was arrested for armed robbery, possession of a firearm without a valid FOID card and aggravated unlawful possession of a weapon. He also was accused of expired vehicle registration and illegal possession of

- FARMINGTON Zachary D. Beintema of Brimfield was accused of multiple crimes following a traffic stop at 4 p.m. Aug. 11 at Illinois Route 78 and Cottonwood Road south of Farmington, according to a partial Fulton County Sheriff's Office report. It indicated Beintema was driving a 2007 Chevrolet pickup truck, that he received two tickets and that adult-use cannabis in the vehicle was confiscated and destroyed.
- EDWARDS Shortly before 6:45 p.m. Aug. 6, Joel E. Brown of Peoria was driving a northbound 2020 BMW X5 on Taylor Road near Wildlife Prairie Road south of Edwards when the vehicle struck a deer that emerged from the west. Brown was uninjured, according to a Peoria County Sheriff's Office report. The vehicle sustained damage but was drivable. The impact killed the deer.
- HANNA CITY A garbage truck damaged a vehicle parked in a Hanna City lot.

The GFL garbage truck was servicing a dumpster shortly after 11 a.m. Aug. 7 at Whitmore Gymnasium, 511 N. Main St. As the truck's driver, Jason T. Waugh, pulled forward to service another dumpster, the vehicle struck the driver's-side fender of a Toyota, according to a Peoria County Sheriff's Office report.

TROOPS: Trump: 'We're going in' to Chicago

Continued from Page 1 ramp up immigration enforcement in Chicago at some point this week. But the call, Pritzker said, was more rhetorical than informational.

Bovino, who was recently described in a New York Times article as the face of Trump's immigration policies, led immigration operations in L.A., which included aggressive and sometimes controversial tactics leading to claims of racial profiling, according to the Times.

"Any rational person who has spent even the most minimal amount of time studying human history has to ask themselves on one important question: Once they get the citizens of this nation comfortable with the current atrocities committed under the color of law, what comes next?" Pritzker said.

To what extent the effort will be aided by the National Guard is unclear. But just minutes before Pritzker took questions, Trump removed any doubt that he'd like to deploy the National Guard – even as a federal judge in California ruled Tuesday that his Guard deployment in that city was illegal.

"We're going in. I didn't say when we're going in," Trump said from the Oval Office, repeating that he wants Pritzker to call him and ask for help.

Naval Station Great Lakes in North Chicago will be the staging grounds for ICE, the Sun-Times reported. Pritzker said staging began Monday.

The governor also said he believes the Trump administration planned to come to Chicago in September to target Mexican Independence Day celebrations.

"Let's be clear: The terror and cruelty is the point, not the safety of anyone living here," he said.

Chicago has one of the largest Latino populations in the nation, and 74% of that group are of Mexican heritage, according to a study last year by the University of Illinois Chicago. The city's Mexican Independence Day parade is schedule for Sept. 14.

A federal judge in California ruled Tuesday that Trump's troop deployment to Los Angeles in June to fight crime violated an 1878 law prohibiting the military from carrying out domestic law enforcement.

Labor Day weekend was violent in Chicago. Fiftyeight people were shot and eight were killed in incidents across the city, which included three mass shootings. The violence marked an uptick from last year's Labor Day weekend, when 22 people were shot and eight were killed.

Chicago Mayor Brandon Johnson blamed Trump for the city's violence problems because Trump's administration has withheld federal funding for violence prevention.

Police tech company appears on state's radar

By ANDREW ADAMS Capitol News Illinois

CHICAGO – An automatic license-plate reader company used by hundreds of police departments around Illinois broke state law by allowing federal border-enforcement officers to access Illinois license-plate camera data, according to Illinois Secretary of State Alexi Gian-

The company, Flock Safety, was also allegedly used by out-of-state police earlier this year to look for a woman who recently had an abortion. That sparked the secretary of state's office to audit Flock.

License-plate readers are cameras that can automatically detect the license plate, make, model and other details of cars while they're driving. These details are logged and entered into a database that can be searched and shared among law-enforcement agencies, governments and private companies.

A 2023 state law, which was backed by Giannoulias, prohibits operators of license-plate readers from sharing the data they collect for the purpose of enforcing immigration or abortion-related laws.

Giannoulias alleges that Flock gave U.S. Customs and Border Patrol access to Illinois data as part of a pilot program. Flock also didn't have any safeguards to prevent other out-ofstate police from violating Illinois' license-plate reader law, according to Giannoulias.

Giannoulias said the company's actions "put them in direct violation of Illinois law" in a video statement Monday.

"We will not tolerate any violations to our data sharing and privacy laws," Giannoulias said. "Moving forward, we encourage local law enforcement to closely examine their relationship with Flock and ensure that their use of this technology is compliant with the law."

The law prohibiting this kind of data sharing does not contain any specific penalties for violating it.

Giannoulias' office told Capitol News Illinois it is conducting an investigation into the matter. The office has been in talks with the state's attorney general, although it declined to describe specifics.

At least one city, Evanston, has deactivated its Flock cameras and begun the process of canceling its contract with the surveillance company. In a statement, the city called the situation "deeply troubling."

A spokesperson for Flock, meanwhile, said that they were unaware of any ongoing investigation and that the company disagreed with the secretary of state's legal assertions.

"We clearly communicated poorly," Flock CEO Garrett Langley wrote in a blog post earlier this week. "We also didn't create distinct permissions and protocols in the Flock system to ensure local compliance for federal agency users."

In that statement, Langley said the company had paused all pilot programs with federal agencies.

Flock does not disclose its customers, but a database based on news reports and company statements assembled by the Electronic Frontier Foundation found about 90 police departments in Illinois that are confirmed to use Flock cameras.

Flock customers can elect to share information about their system through pages hosted by the company that disclose what types of information is collected, how many veby their system and how long data is stored.

PEORIA – July 2025 capped a historic summer at General Wayne A. Downing Peoria International Airport, with an unprecedented 80,836 passengers, a 26% increase over July 2024.

The milestone not only set an alltime high but continued a trend, with 10 of the last 12 months setting monthly records.

While July represents the peak of summer travel, airport officials said demand naturally tapers in August with the return of the school year. Still, PIA was preparing for a busy Labor Day holiday weekend, with more than 14,000 travelers expected, a 17% increase over last year.

Stalled green tomatoes? Give it time

By CHRIS ENROTH

University of Illinois Cooperative Extension

MACOMB – The summer is nearly over, and I still haven't picked any of the large tomatoes that I painstakingly started indoors and nurtured in the early spring.

Meanwhile, the "wild" cherry tomatoes that reseed themselves every year in my yard seem to be doing great and have garnished many of my dishes in the absence of the larger slicing varieties that I would prefer.

Turns out, there are many reasons that can delay tomato ripening. Some are within our control, but others are certainly beyond our control. With all the possible ripening-delay causes, it can be tough to pinpoint one particular issue. Let's look at two particular causes that can delay tomato ripening: potassium deficiency and temperature.

Potassium is an important nutrient for fruit development and ripening. While being deficient in a soil nutrient may seem like a fertilizer problem, Illinois soils often have adequate amounts of potassium for tomato fruit ripening.

When tomato growers experience stalled tomato ripening, soil tests often show adequate potassium levels. However, when testing the tissues of the tomato plant, they may reveal a deficiency.

What impedes tomato plants from taking up potassium? If we look back to the end of June and all of July, we endured lots of rain. Around Macomb, multiple rain gauges recorded over 10 inches for July. With lots of rain comes lots of clouds. And when it wasn't cloudy, we were engulfed in a smog-laden ambiance from Canadian wildfire smoke.

Both excess water and low light levels impede the uptake of potassium and can cause ripening problems.

Even as our soils dry and the skies return to a crisp blue, the poor potassium uptake may continue to impact the tomato ripening process. As the tomatoes begin to turn, they may still suffer from disorders such as yellow shoulder, internal whitening and uneven ripening.

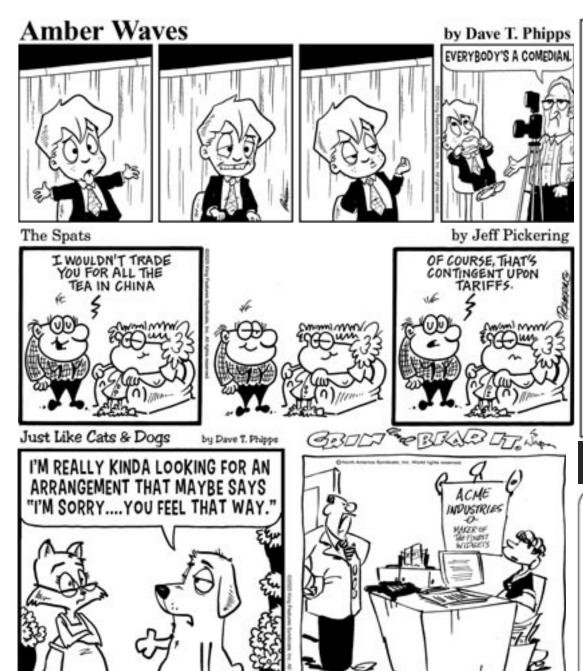

Tomatoes originated in the Andes Mountains of South America, with their ideal average temperature of 75 degrees Fahrenheit. The optimum temperature range for ripening tomatoes is 68 to 77 degrees. The further temperatures stray out of this range, the slower the ripening. And when temperatures stay out of this range for extended periods, ripening may halt completely.

Once again, our July 2025 weather brought both daily highs and lows that stayed above 77 degrees for several days - long enough to significantly pause tomato fruit ripening.

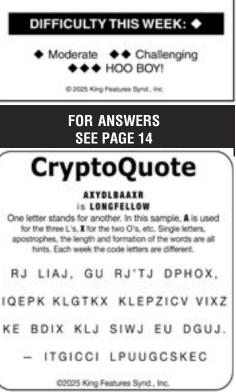

Temperatures above 85 degrees hinder tomato plants from producing lycopene and carotene, the pigments that give a traditional ripe tomato its color. This often causes the fruit to appear yellowish-green to yellowish-orange.

If you've noticed a lack of solutions in this article, that's because both potassium deficiency and temperature issues stem from the weather. The best approach is to wait it out. As late summer weather begins to change, tomato ripening should return to normal.

We still have all of September for tomatoes to ripen. But, if you are facing an impending frost, tomatoes can be ripened indoors. When the immature tomato fruit has shifted from a dark green to a lighter green or a little blush, that's all you need to pick it and bring it inside to finish ripening.

Over 50 years of service, 50 years of dedication and sacrifice to deliver care to our communities:

Congratulations and a heartfelt Thank You to Pea Gibson and Mike Miller, the latest to receive the city's distinguished Citizen of the Season award.

Over 50 years ago, in June 1973, Kiwanis members and volunteers went door to door collecting money and stressing the need for an ambulance service within the three communities of Brimfield, Yates City, and Elmwood (BYE). Not long after that, Peg and Mike joined the organization and have been the driving force ever since.

Recognizing "Charter Members" of any local service organization makes one really appreciate the benefits in the community. Having an ambulance service in our rural communities cuts down response time significantly. Starting with nowhere to house their ambulance to using the garage behind what is now the Lampe's publication, through the years they have grown and currently have living quarters in Brimfield/Elmwood and four ambulances housed at these stations. Today, there are 25 EMTs and only 5 advanced EMTs running four ambulances, covering 650 square miles, averaging 2 calls a day.

A call to service, for a life-and-death cause, for over 50 years Peg and Mike have dedicated their time and talents, and they are asking who is next? Who will step up to continue this life-saving service for our rural communities? Talking with Peg and Mike, they echoed the same message: their biggest passion is to see BYE continue. They literally started our talk with 'Make this about BYE, not us."

If you have a heart for the rural communities and areas served by BYE and have the desire to help your neighbors, if you are calm in stressful situations, you could be the one helping a family in crisis. There is financial help for training, and these are now paid positions.

Mike served for many years while being a manager at CAT; BYE will work with your schedule. This doesn't have to be your career, but it can be, or it can be a stepping stone or your passion to help.

How did they stay so dedicated all of these years? Peg stated, "It is our community, our neighbors, our family that we are helping." They have worked hard to keep BYE going for 50 years and are thankful for their family's support. Without their support, they couldn't have done it. Mike stated the biggest challenge in 50 years has been the lack of help. Let this award of Citizen of the Season be a call for more help. Peg reiterated, "It might be your family that you are helping someday." Could you answer the call? Mike and Peg definitely have answered the call and many more calls over the years. Elmwood is thankful that Mike's father-in-law and his fellow Kiwanis members saw a need and created BYE. We are even more appreciative to Mike and Peg for keeping BYE rolling for over 50 years, taking care of their neighbors in their time of need. We are so very thankful they call Elmwood home.

If you are looking for an opportunity to serve, that is as rewarding as it has been for Peg and Mike, please visit https://www.facebook.com/BYEAmbo or call BYE manager David Maher at 309-678-4112.

 $BRIMFIELD-Myrtle\ Agnes$ "Agnes" Miles, lovingly known as "Mert" to all who knew her, passed away peacefully

Agnes is survived by her husband, James; her children Jill (Jeff), Tim, Jody and Scott; and her beloved grandchildren Miles, Payton, Grant, Cy, Ryan and Bri. She is also survived by her grand dogs, Donovan, Leo J and Moria Rose, who she absolutely adored. In addition, she leaves behind her sisters Mary (Mark) Wheeler, Kathy (Mike) Lalicker and Nancy Henry, along with many nieces, nephews, great-nieces and nephews and great-great-nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by her parents, her brother David Floyd Frank and her sister Edna (Frank) Johnson.

Agnes worked tirelessly her entire life and it seems fitting that she passed away on Labor Day. After completing beauty school, she held various jobs until joining LR Nelson in 1980, where she worked until her retirement in 2005. Retirement didn't slow her down – she went on to two of her favorite roles where she became known as "Mama Miles" at eServ, LLC and later at PALS Preschool, where she shared her love of cooking with both children and adults. She fully retired in 2015.

For more than 40 years, Agnes also sold Avon. Many will remember seeing her out delivering orders, always with extra supplies on hand, ready to offer a lipstick or lotion to anyone who stopped by.

Agnes' greatest joy was her family. She had a gift for making everyone feel welcome - whether it was a middle-of-the-night four-course meal after her kids and their friends returned from a night out, or a ride in her "Alkie Hauler" for anyone who needed to get home safe. She was famous for her bargain-hunting trips across Peoria with Jim, her fall caramel apples, her endless peanut-butter bars for her grandsons' football team, her sewing, gardening and the love she poured into every dessert she baked for her bowling friends.

Even in her final years, as she lived with Alzheimer's, she never forgot the names of her loved ones. She reminded her family often that she never had a favorite child or grandchild – she simply loved them all deeply and equally. Though her last months brought pain, her family takes comfort knowing she is now at peace and free of suffering.

Sunday, Sept. 7, 2025, from noon-3 p.m. at the Brimfield Library Community Room.

In lieu of flowers, memorial donations may be made to OSF Hospice Care or the Alzheimer's Association, so that others may be spared the long goodbye of this heartbreaking dis-

R-W tops Princeville in Oak Run triangular

For The Weekly Post DAHINDA - Preston Lafary and Brody Lyttle combined for five birdies to lead R-W over Princeville and Galva in a triangular at Oak Run Golf Course last Thursday.

Lafary carded three birdies en route to a 3over-par 39 to earn medalist honors, while Lytle had two birdies in his round of 40. Kaden Dewitt had a 44 and Hunter Gott shot 46 for R-W's 169 team total.

Princeville (198) was led by Logan Reuber, who shot 47. Landon Senn posted a 49 and Gavin Carroll and Blake Dickinson both shot 51.

Gage Simoneaux led Galva with a 43.

One day earlier at Oak Run, R-W defeated Canton 171-185 with Lafary notching medalist with another 39. Lytle made one birdie in a 40, and Dewitt contributed a 45 and Trent Stiers a 47.

Brody Ketcham led Canton with a 41, which included a birdie.

In a girls match at Oak

Run last Thursday, Brimfield's Nicole Detmers was medalist with a 44 and teammate Rachel Fell shot 47 for the top two scores in a triangular with R-W and Galva.

R-W won the match with a 207, led by Lauren Johnson with a 50. Ella Erlacher and Bella Dennis both had 52s. Olivia Calderon had a 50 for Galva.

The previous day, also at Oak Run, Canton defeated R-W 213-225. Elizabeth Knowles was medalist, leading the Little Giants with a 40.

Erlacher was low with a 50 for ROWVA-Williamsfield.

• Farmington – Megan Turner led Farmington's girls team to a 203-262 victory over Peoria High last Thursday at Kellogg Golf Course in Peoria.

Things got a little tense in the second quarter, however. After the Ducks scored to make it 20-7, the Princes fumbled. But Jett Benningfield intercepted a pass as Havana was driving. With 52 seconds to play, Geiger scored from 17 yards to put Princeville out of danger for good.

"I think every coach really hates Week 1, because you don't know what the other team's going to do," Carruthers said. "You can focus on what they did last year, but you really have to widen your scope and be ready for about anything. We tried to keep it as simple as we could."

Princeville plays Friday at South Fulton.

MONMOUTH - The ROWVA-Williamsfield youth movement dovetailed with some upperclass leadership to give the Cougars a LincolnLand-small victory.

A couple of sophomores, Jaden Koepp and Parker Tamburro, helped R-W lead 12-6 at intermission. Koepp ran for the game's first touchdown. Kellen Boone's scoring pass to Koen Sperry tied it for United, but Tamburro returned the ensuing kickoff 89 yards to give R-W a lasting lead.

Drake DeJaynes took over for R-W in the second half. The senior scored in the third quarter and also made two key fourth-down conversions, according to R-W Coach Grant Gullstrand. Overall, DeJaynes passed for 100 yards and ran for 43.

"His legs kind of sealed it there at the end," Gullstrand said. "Obviously, when you've got young guys, it's kind of good to get off to a good start. Just the psyche of the team, to be 1-0 versus 0-1, hopefully goes a long way."

Gullstrand believes it's a long way from how R-W played this summer in a scrimmage against Orion.

"We were pretty bad, and the kids knew it," the coach said. "The kids kind of looked a little overwhelmed at the speed of the game. I'm proud of how much better they've gotten and am optimistic to see how the team could grow."

On defense, DeJaynes had seven solo tackles. So did Jose Estrada, and fellow sophomore Nolan Sornberger

'We could have a deep team, even though they are young," Gullstrand said. "That means the juniors and seniors we're kind of relying on to be leaders for those guys are doing their job helping them realize that the moment wasn't too big for

R-W faces a big moment Friday night at Rushville-Industry, one of the league favorites. Senior lineman Henry Powers, who had surgery on both labrums, might be cleared medically to play then, Gullstrand

Perkins really stood out at linebacker and (Noah) Fleming was solid at corner, too."

Vallas said the key defensively in the second half was making stops.

"In the first half we gave up, I bet, four third downs on one drive and seven or eight third- and fourth-down conversions," Vallas said. "In the second half, they didn't get any. You either get off the field or you don't."

Farmington was able to get off the field plenty last year in a 40-0 win at E-B. The Farmers have now won nine straight against the Trojans.

"I think it's going to be a pretty good game," Vallas said. "We'll find out a lot more about ourselves.'

colnLand large-division opener featured more of a steady diet of slogs up the middle for 5, 7 and 10 yards.

Though different in appearance, the end result was eerily similar to last year's 41-28 opening win over Knoxville. E-B piled up 315 rushing yards and a healthy 9.3 yards per carry.

Senior Layne Johnson carried 25 times for 173 yards and two TDs, Estes added 128 yards and one score on 19 carries and fullback Myles Alger tallied two TDs.

But Coach Todd Hollis expected his offense to perform at a high level. The question for E-B was how its inexperienced defense would respond.

"The first quarter and a half we looked really good defensively," Hollis said. "Then (Knoxville) started figuring some things out. They are going to win some games if they can stay healthy."

Ahead 21-0 early in the second quarter, E-B yielded two straight scores to Knoxville, which finished with 261 rushing yards. But as the second half wore on, E-B made back-to-back fourth-down stops and got scores from Alger and Johnson.

The Blue Bullets also had a scare when an injury to Daniel Huddleston delayed the game for 25 minutes. Knoxville Coach Marty Turner said Huddleston has "no broken bones or major damage."

As For E-B, there is work to do to prepare for a Farmington team it has not beaten since an epic 77-64 shootout in 2015.

"We were talking on the headphones during the game on things we need to work on," Hollis said. "We haven't even watched the film and we've got a list of things to work on already."

E-B girls XC places 7 in top 15 in meet win

By JEFF LAMPE

For The Weekly Post

CHILLICOTHE - The Elmwood-Brimfield girls cross country team looked every bit a state-ranked squad last Friday in its season opener at the IVC XC Invite.

Ranked as high as sixth this preseason, E-B won the four-team meet at Three Sisters Park with 31 points to place ahead of Stark County (39 points). The Trojans placed seven runners in the top 15 and were led by sophomore Bristol Schmidgall, who placed fifth in 20:26.28.

"I think we started in a way that we knew was possible. Having said that, it was definitely a good start and it gives us a reason for excitement and confidence," E-B Coach Kyle Anderson said. "We hope to keep the pack mindset going forward."

Other scoring runners for E-B were sophomore Mya Hill (7th, 20:29.01), freshman Charlotte Walker (8th, 20:36.34), junior Taylor Forney (10th, 21:05.75) and sophomore Riley Kelly (11th, 21:06.17).

"(Walker) has been a leader in mileage all summer," Anderson said. "She has high expectations for herself, so we look forward to seeing how she progresses."

The E-B boys were nearly as impressive, placing eight in the top 20 to win with 41 points. Senior Aiden Faulkner ran second in 16:02.26 to lead E-B. Stark County's Evan Knobloch won in 15:44.51.

Other scoring runners for the Trojans were senior Kam Stevenson (6th, 16:37.95), sophomore Danny Sharp (7th, 16:42.02), freshman Cole Cahill (11th, 17:17.23) and sophomore Oliver Funk (17th, 17:50.34).

"The first three we kind of expected and Cole ran really well and was a little ahead of the next big group," E-B Coach Gregg Meyers said. "For the most part I was happy the way they worked together. We had a group of about six guys running together at the two-mile mark."

E-B was to run Tuesday at Donovan Park in Peoria and again in the Normal Community High School meet Friday at Maxwell Park.

• Princeville – Junior Bethany Sennett made her season debut Friday in the IVC girls race, finishing fourth in 19:47. Senior Taylor Hess (10th, 17:06) led the Princes in the boys race. # Farmers, E-B set for football clash

Farmington rolls in second half of opener; Trojans grind out win

By JEFF LAMPE

FOR The Weekly Post
FARMINGTON – Farmington appears to have found its quarterback of the future after one week of prep football action.

After being inserted for the third series of a season-opening 51-28 win over West Hancock last Friday, freshman Carson Noy rotated with senior Treyven Haroldson. This Friday, Noy will get the start in a home clash against Elmwood-Brimfield, according to Coach Toby Vallas.

Viewed as more of a pure passer, Noy finished with a 7-for-12 passing line, one touchdown and one 60-yard interception that West Hancock returned for a touchdown. Haroldson was 4-for-4 passing for 59 yards and one score and also ran for 100 yards and a TD on

10 carries

While Noy will start, don't be surprised to see Haroldson back under center at some point. As Vallas said, "Everybody is all in the mix for me."

Ranked No. 4 in Class 2A, the Farmers (1-0, 1-0) trailed LincolnLand largedivision foe West Hancock 16-15 midway through the second quarter before settling into their game. Farmington led 30-22 at halftime and scored 21 straight in the third quarter to take control.

Vallas said numerous penalties disrupted the rhythm for Farmington, as did frequent substitutions designed to allow inexperienced players to gain varsity minutes.

"Overall, I was pretty pleased with everybody when we were fresh," Vallas said. "It's when we got fatigued ... oh boy ... it's my fault for not conditioning them better."

Farmington looked very good in the run game, as hard-running sophomore Bradyn Brewer (5-foot-10, 165 pounds) pounded West Hancock for 175 yards and three TDs on 19 carries. Overall, Farmington ran for 315 yards and averaged 9.3 per carry.

"Brewer did very well. He's a hard runner and likes to pound up the middle," Vallas said. "I think in our offense, without a guy like that you can become too finesse real fast. I don't want to be one thing. I want to be multiple things."

Wideouts Jack Gronewold and Landon Crawford combined for six catches, 200 yards receiving and two scores. One was a screen pass that Gronewold took 69 yards to paydirt.

"I thought Crawford was good on both sides of the ball," Vallas said. "Wyatt

PRINCEVILLE – From the beginning, Princeville dominated visiting Havana in a 54-7 LincolnLand
small-division football opener Aug. 29.

Princeville led 20-0 after the first 12 minutes. Overall, Princeville senior

Kaiden Sarnes was 6-for-9 for 82 yards passing and ran for 61 yards in his first game as a starting quarterback. Senior Noah Geiger ran for 123 yards and four touchdowns.

Eli Christianson, Oliver Melick and Sarnes also ran for scores. Offensive linemen Cayden Allen, Wyatt Giffin, Owen Harmon, Collin Lowery and Bradin Senn helped give them room to run; the Princes amassed 323 rushing yards. The Princes' defense held the Ducks to only 81 yards of total offense.

"We really shut down the rushing game, and that's what we were preaching on," Princeville Coach Jon Carruthers said.

All in all, it was the opposite of a 28-27 squeaker Princeville won last season against Havana, thanks to a last-second safety. And it might have given Carruthers a glimpse of how promising this season can be.

"I really didn't expect the game to go like that," he said. "I thought it was going to be a nailbiter like the year before. We definitely weren't overlooking them."

Princeville had a 13-play opening drive, capped by Geiger's 2-yard scoring run midway through the first quarter. The drive was as close to perfect as Carruthers could have envisioned.

"I can't remember the first time we put a drive like that together on our first possession of the season," he said. "Usually there's a false start or a holding call or something that sets you back. But it was a really great drive to Continued on Page 18

Elmwood VB wins Wethersfield tournament

By PHIL JOHNSON

For The Weekly Post

KEWANEE – Elmwood had a very good and busy week to begin its 2025 volleyball campaign.

A win at the Kewanee Wethersfield Invite on Saturday was the highlight of the week. The Lady Trojans (7-2) defeated Mercer County 21-14, 22-20 in the championship match after sweeping Havana (21-10, 21-18), Wethersfield (21-11, 21-17) and Greenview (21-16, 21-18) to advance to the final.

The team continued with a 25-12, 25-23 victory over Abingdon-Avon on Monday. Cheyenne Burge led in kills, with seven. Gianna Ramirez added five kills. Payge Ryan scored on four aces and had 14 assists.

"We are playing well and the work is coming together. It has been an exciting start to the season," Elmwood Coach Chelsea Brown said.

At Saturday's tournament, Ryan and Burge received honors for the day. Lexi Begner served nine total aces. Wren Kellenberger picked up 12 digs on the day.

EHS fell 25-18, 25-16 to East Peoria last Wednesday at home in non-conference action. Burge had five kills and two blocks. Ryan collected two aces and 15 assists.

The Lady Trojans topped Peoria Heights 25-15, 25-16 last Tuesday on the road in the Prairieland-ICAC meeting. Ramirez scored on six kills.
