Local fire departments join forces

By JEFF LAMPE
For The Weekly Post

BRIMFIELD – Five local fire departments are joining to form a collaborative designed to reduce costs, improve training opportunities and increase safety of their officers and communities.

Joining the new Heartland Fire and Emergency Services group are volunteer fire departments from Brimfield, Elmwood, Farmington, Williamsfield and Yates City. Chiefs from each department signed an agreement Oct. 21 at the Brimfield Fire Station. Reaching agreement was not difficult, according to Bob Tannock, the Elmwood fire chief and president of the Heartland group. “We had so many of the same problems in common,” Tannock said.

He expects Heartland will improve training for specialty situations such as grain-bin rescues and can help solve less-complicated situations such as talking on the radio.

BUDGET CRUNCH

Tax increase?

Elmwood schools aim to raise levy to deal with $800,000 FY27 deficit

By JEFF LAMPE
For The Weekly Post

ELMWOOD – After years of lowering its tax levy while federal COVID funds were still flowing, the Elmwood School District finds itself in a budget crunch.

Elmwood Superintendent Joel Schmieg said at Monday’s school board meeting that he projects a likely $800,000 deficit for Fiscal Year 2027 if the district maintains its present programs and class offerings.

As a result, Schmieg is seeking an increase of the FY 2026 tax levy from 5.22793% to 5.3988% for FY 2027. That would yield an additional $500,000 for the district, Schmieg estimates.

How much will that cost homeowners? Schmieg said the tax increase will equate to $47 on a $100,000 house, $104 on a $200,000 house and $141 on a $300,000 house.

“We don’t want to overtax the community, but we do need a little extra,” said Schmieg, who is also looking at cutting expenditures “to meet in the middle.”

“We have been cutting. The problem is, for a school district 75% of expenditures are people and salaries. You can cut other things but it’s a very small piece of the budget.”

staff and cost inflation for goods and services has also affected the bottom line for the district.

Another factor crunching the budget is that the district’s equalized assessed value is estimated to increase by only 5.4% for FY27, compared to a 6.4% bump for FY26.

That’s one reason Schmieg and board member Dustin Funk attended the latest Elmwood City Council meeting. (See Page 5).

Convicted murderer Marcy Oglesby gets 50-year prison sentence

By NICK VLAHOS
For The Weekly Post

GALESBURG – According to Marcy Oglesby, the man she was convicted of murdering was Superman, someone upon whom people in his hometown of Maquon could rely. He could fix anything and would help anybody.

According to Oglesby, Richard Young also was a racist, a homophobe, sometimes a lousy friend and no father-of-the-year candidate. For all that apparent contradiction, this much seems certain regarding Oglesby, at least:

She probably will spend the rest of her life in state prison.

On Monday, Knox County Circuit Court Judge Andrew Doyle sentenced Oglesby to 50 years, minus about one year for time already served. During a four-day bench trial in June, Doyle found the 53-year-old Maquon resident guilty of first-degree murder and other associated crimes.

Oglesby poisoned Young over time with eye drops, then hid his body in a Maquon storage unit for a year until it was discovered in October 2022. Prosecutors said Oglesby’s motives were financial (Oglesby drained $60,000 of Young’s savings) and romantic (she had an online relationship with a man in Nigeria).

had a standing bean fire,” Tannock said. “On the scene we had departments from three counties and no good way to communicate. It’s 2025. We’ve got to be able to communicate more efficiently.”
Heartland should also be able to cut costs for departments by allowing them to buy in bulk and purchase EMT equipment from Graham Health System, which is also a Heartland member. Discounts could even extend to fire trucks, according to several chiefs at the meeting.
Another example Tannock gave was purchasing a drone that can be used to help locate hot spots in an ethanol fire.
“No department can afford a $30,000 drone, but if we each chip in $6,000, we’re able to help the community,” Tannock said.
And he stressed that departments have the option to opt in or out on any Heartland buying or training decisions.
The agreement is the brainchild of Elmwood Assistant Fire Chief Greg Devries, whose selling point was that departments need to cooperate outside of the mutual aid response system already in place.
“That’s the emergency

"AN HONEST PUBLIC SERVANT CAN'T BECOME RICH IN POLITICS"

- HARRY TRUMAN

DEFINE "RICH"

Of unbeaten Farmers, TIF priorities & big bucks

Rambling through central Illinois, tired of east winds.

Being undefeated is nothing new for Farmington football, this being the sixth time since 2016 that the Farmers have gone 9-0. Two of those seasons ended in an 11-1 finish. Last year was the most heartbreaking, as 12-1 Farmington was an incorrect interception call and two injuries away the title game.

So is this finally the year the Farmers break through?

Maybe. But their draw is rough. Facing an Eastland-Pearl City team from the Northwest Upstate Illini Conference in the opener is tougher than your usual 5-4 fodder. A win should pit the Farmers against Aurora Christian in an even-tougher second-round game, as the Eagles' losses were to 3A powers Kankakee Bishop McNamara and Chicago Hope Academy.

Beyond that, there's likely El Paso-Gridley in the quarters and Wilmington or Rockridge in the semis. Ouch.

Some solace is that the northern team that reaches the 1 p.m. title game on Nov. 28 at Hancock Stadium in Normal will face the winner of a weaker southern bracket.

Attended the Elmwood School Board meeting Monday and heard the board discuss raising the tax levy. To make the budget work this year, Elmwood transferred $350,000 out of reserves. That's not a sustainable approach. Meanwhile, the Elmwood City Council recently bought a rough piece of timber for which it has no concrete plans. While the council deserves praise for last year's decision to disperse 50% of its downtown TIF funds to the school and other taxing bodies, there should be thought of extending the residential TIF that has served its intended purpose. Part of the Elmwood council's rationale for the park purchase was to make Elmwood attractive to families. Hmmm, seems to me nothing makes a city more attractive than a school with a wide array of programs and plenty of reserves. ... Richard Pauli, who in 1983 shot a 25-point Peoria County buck that measured 267 3/8 inches

Jeff LAMPE

(pictured above) and was for many years the largest non-typical gun kill in Illinois, has passed away at the age of 96. A Dunlap resident, Pauli's obituary said he prided himself on never wearing camouflage or using a stand in order to give deer a fair chance. That's an old-school philosophy you've got to respect. And I bet Richard would have been excited about the cooler northwest winds we will enjoy today through the weekend. ... Parting shot: Wide receiver Jack Gronewold ran 19 times against Macomb in Farmington's only close game this year. Just saying.

School board seeks synergy with council

By MOLLY RICHESON
For The Weekly Post

ELMWOOD – The Elmwood School Board addressed the Elmwood City Council at its Oct. 21 meeting.

Dustin Funk, vice president and finance committee chair of the school board, said the school district has not been able to keep up with neighboring schools as far as the proximity of tax revenue to the consumer-price index, which has caused financial hardship for the school. He suggested a closer relationship between the school and the city.

“Maybe there’s some synergies between the city and the school that could result in some cost-saving for both of us,” Funk said.

Amy Davis, economic development director for Elmwood, said when the city’s tax-increment financing district expires in 2027, more money will be directed to the school in 2028. Additionally, Elmwood’s second TIF fund expires in 2030.

“The school is the No. 1 employer here, and without a school we wouldn’t be much of a town,” Elmwood Mayor Andrew Almasi said. “Of course we want to be able to work with you.”

No specific areas were discussed, but Elmwood Superintendent Joel Schmieg asked the board to “keep us in mind for future projects that we could potentially partner on.”

In other business, the council approved a TIF grant for Wags and Whiskers. Janelle McFarland, owner and veterinarian, is planning on tuck-pointing bricks to keep moisture out, and some sign repair. Total cost of the repairs is $4,625, and the city council approved $2,312.50 in TIF reimbursement for the work.

Princeville park will have eye in the sky

By NICK VLAHOS
For The Weekly Post

PRINCEVILLE – Would-be vandals in Stevens Square Park will be caught on film – or its modern equivalent, more accurately.

Video security cameras are to be installed at the park gazebo soon, according to Chad Gardner, the village public-works superintendent. The intent is to curb vandalism, something that’s been an ongoing problem in the park, according to Village President Jeff Troutman.

“We need to do it sooner or later, with the stuff that’s been going on,” Troutman said during a Village Board meeting Oct. 21.

Doing it sooner became more realistic after Mid Century Communications of Fairview agreed to install internet capability at the park and waive its monthly fee, according to Gardner.

“If we didn’t go with them, it would be a recurring charge,” Gardner said.

The village is to pay $550 for four cameras and recorders, plus $100 for installation labor.

Village Trustee Teresa Gilroy might be persuaded to approve an additional expense, however. Although one would have to be of a certain age to understand her reference.

“Can we put up some signs that say, ‘Smile, you’re on ‘Candid Camera’?” Gilroy said jokingly.

Security cameras already are in place at Cutter’s Grove Park and at Village Hall, according to Troutman.

Trustees and Troutman also discussed the upcoming decision regarding the 2025 village-tax levy. Troutman suggested a 4.9% increase, just under the 5% threshold for a state-mandated Truth in Taxation hearing.

“I don’t see any reason to go over the amount we’re able to do without a hearing,” Troutman said.

The previous levy amount was $154,050. A 4.9% hike would raise it to $161,598.45, according to Trustee Spencer Wilson. Final approval is expected in November.

Also expected for final approval next month is a $7,500 tax-increment-financing redevelopment grant to Hand Craft’d, a freeze-dried candy company at 127 E. Main St. The vendor-based business is attempting to expand its retail-sales ability, which entails property modifications, according to Wilson.

The board gave the Hand Craft’d grant preliminary approval. The agreement stipulates Hand Craft’d needs to remain in business for at least five years.

No action was taken about possible TIF benefits regarding construction of a new facility for Greenfield Contractors, a Princeville-based firm that manufactures fabric-covered and steel-framed agricultural buildings.

Greenfield provided a site plan that village officials had requested, but it was missing some specifics, including dimensions for the new building. The new facility is to be constructed on 15½ acres located at the north edge of the village.

“I would like to have more detail and also advisements in writing that they have gone through their checks and balances to make sure they can build on this property,” Wilson said. “They’re asking for taxpayers’ money and I’m all for wanting to give it to them, but I want them to do it properly.”

A Greenfield representative said additional details are to be forthcoming. No date for the beginning of construction has been announced.

PUBLIC RECORD

NOTE: Charges are merely an accusation. All suspects are presumed innocent until proven guilty.

Police reports

• WYOMING – A suspect was arrested regarding an August incident in which a vehicle left a road north of Princeville and crashed into a vehicle parked in a driveway.

A Stark County Sheriff’s Office deputy took Joshua M. Belville, 34, of Wyoming into custody about 9:15 p.m. Oct. 2 following a traffic stop. Belville was suspected of crashing his vehicle Aug. 19 in front of a residence in the 22800 block of Illinois Route 91, then leaving the scene.

The northbound 2016 Jeep Cherokee ran over a fence on the west side of the road, then continued northeast and struck a 2020 Ford Expedition sport-utility vehicle. After it struck a tree, the Cherokee stopped.

Belville was accused of reckless driving, leaving the scene of an accident, leaving the scene of an accident with property damage, failure to reduce speed to avoid an accident and illegal transportation of alcohol, per a Peoria County Sheriff’s Office report. He was taken to Peoria County Jail.

• FARMINGTON – A man found lying under trees along a road east of Farmington was wanted in suburban Chicago for drunken driving.

Farmington police were summoned shortly after 1:30 p.m. Oct. 1 to the 24000 block of Illinois Route 116. There they found Claude A. Hensley Jr., 42, of Mokena prone on the south side of the road, according to a report.

Hensley said he had been staying with his sister in Abingdon but left following an argument with her boyfriend. He told officers he walked from Abingdon to Farmington and planned to walk to Peoria.

DuPage County authorities had issued a no-bond warrant for Hensley. He was arrested and transported to the Fulton County Jail in Lewistown.

• PRINCEVILLE – No injuries were reported after a two-vehicle crash at a Princeville intersection.

Shortly before 4:45 p.m. Oct. 3, Karen E. Gehrig of Edelstein was driving a 2014 Honda Pilot east on Spring Street when, at Walnut Avenue, it collided with a 2015 Chevrolet Equinox driven by a boy from Wyoming, according to a Peoria County Sheriff’s Office report.

The Pilot left the pavement and ran over a telephone-internet box on the southeast corner of the intersection. The boy said he was southbound on Walnut Avenue, had stopped at the intersection and looked both ways but didn’t see the Pilot.

Gehrig had two passengers, a male and a female. The Pilot sustained major damage, and the Equinox sustained disabling passenger-side damage. Both vehicles were towed.

• PRINCEVILLE – A man who had been banned from Princeville School District property was accused of violating that prohibition. William J. • EAST PEORIA – Illinois Central College will showcase an original print by Dutch master Rembrandt van Rijn, on display for a limited time in the college's Art Gallery. The free exhibition runs through Friday, Nov. 7, in Room 336B on the East Peoria campus.

ELMWOOD: Spending reserves not part of plan

expected end of Elmwood's residential tax increment financing district in 2027. The school would not see funds from that until FY2028.

Elmwood's downtown TIF is schedule to expire in 2030.

Last year, the district transferred $350,000 from working cash into the transportation fund to make the school budget balance. Schmieg said he doesn't want that to be the plan moving forward.

"We don't want to continue to use our reserves in that manner," he said, noting Elmwood's reserves are below the suggested minimum of six months of operations.

Because the total taxes taken in by the district would increase by more than 5%, the school must hold a Truth in Taxation hearing, scheduled for mid-to late-November.

In other business Monday, the board approved hiring Rachel Winter as an elementary aide, Robin Thrasher is high school basketball cheer coach, Karla Begner as junior-high assistant volleyball coach and Shannon Steffen as a volunteer JH volleyball coach. The board also accepted the resignation of Emily Cash as 5th/6th grade girls basketball coach.

In public comment, Heidi Golden asked the board to add bus monitors stemming from what she called a concerning incident on a bus involving her two daughters and another student.

The board discussed the matter in closed session.

OBITUARIES

Doris M. Doubet

PEORIA – Doris M. Doubet, 95, previously of Yates City, passed away on Oct. 22, 2025, at Ever True Lutheran Hillside in Peoria.

She was born on Nov. 22, 1929, in Greenbush to Charles and Nancy (Felton) Martin. Doris was preceded in death by her parents, two brothers and one sister. She married Donald Doubet on July 1, 1949, in Galesburg. He also preceded her in death on July 29, 2012.

Surviving are her three children, Charles “Chuck” (Wendy) Doubet, Donna (Tim) Williams and Cynthia “Cindy” (Chuck) Kellstadt. Also surviving are eight grandchildren, Richard “Rick” (Jamie) Doubet, Kathryn “Katie” (Kevin) Wills, Nancy (Jonathan) Sebast, Regena “Gena” (Adam) Lessner, Gerri (Mike) Hamen, Brian (Traci) Kellstadt, Eric (Leslie) Kellstadt and Kathryn “Blondie” (Justin) Maskrey; 24 great-grandchildren; and several nieces and nephews.

Doris was a member of Douglas United Methodist Church, where she sang in the choir, taught Sunday school and belonged to the Douglas Ladies. She worked for Gross Galesburg, sat and took care of the elderly and worked at Caterpillar Inc. and Proctor Place. She loved to cook and have people at the house. Her family loved her homemade noodles, and everyone loved her pies. She also liked to crochet.

A funeral service will be held at 11 a.m. on Nov. 3, 2025, at Oaks-Hines Funeral Home in Elmwood. A visitation will be held prior to the service the same day from 10-11 a.m. at the funeral home. Burial will immediately follow the service in Yates City Cemetery.

Memorials may be made to the Doulgas United Methodist Church.

Helen M. Laurson

FARMINGTON – Helen M. Laurson passed away on Oct. 24, 2025, in Farmington. She was 101.

Born on Feb. 22, 1924, to Leonard and Ruth Hills in Douglas, Helen grew up in that town and attended primary school there. She graduated from Yates City High School in 1942. Helen married William (Bill) Allen on Valentine’s Day 1951, and together they had two children, Jerrie Lynn and William. Bill died in 1970.

In 1977, Helen married Herman Laurson, who died in 1988.

Helen was a wonderful quilter, a baker of bread and cookies, a member of the Eastern Stars and a lifelong diehard Chicago Cubs fan. If there was a Cubs game on, it was playing in her living room. She knew every player and their strengths and followed the team with steady devotion.

Her home was a haven of warmth and a little whimsy. The scent of baked goods always greeted her grandchildren when they visited from Alaska, and her freezer was always stocked with treats for any occasion. Hundreds of pig figurines – gifts from friends and loved ones – decorated every surface. Family photos covered the walls, keeping loved ones close even when they were far away.

Helen was known for her legendary strawberry jam, which she mailed every summer to her granddaughters in Alaska. Every holiday season she would bake dozens of varieties of cookies to share with loved ones, a tradition that lives on through her granddaughters and great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her brother, Raymond; her three sisters, Dorothy, Mildred Ruth and Emma Jane; and her son, William. She is survived by her daughter, Jerrie (Allen) Graham; two grandchildren, Jaime Graham and Michelle Graham; and four great-grandchildren, Rayne, Aurora, Aria and Atlas.

Helen’s legacy lives on in the recipes she passed down, the quilts she stitched with love and the traditions she inspired. She will be remembered for her quiet strength, her fun spirit and the way she made her house feel like home to everyone who walked through the door.

A graveside service was held Oct. 29, 2025, at Yates City Cemetery.

To leave online condolences, please visit www.oakshinesfuneralhome.com. Oaks-Hines Funeral Home and Crematory in Elmwood is in charge of arrangements.

Judy L. Lynn

GILSON – Judy Lea Lynn, 80, of Gilson, passed at 11:41 a.m. Saturday, Oct. 18, 2025, at her home.

Steven H. Schindler

PRINCEVILLE – Steven H. “Smiley” Schindler, 71, of Princeville, passed away on Sunday, Oct. 26, 2025, at 12:14 a.m. at Carle Health Methodist Hospital in Peoria. He was born on May 6, 1954, in Peoria to Robert and Betty (Donahue) Schindler. He married Connie (Rahn) Schindler on Oct. 8, 1988. She survives.

He is also survived by three daughters, Sarah (Ben Burleson) Schindler of Kick-apoo, Amber (Casey) Miller of Princeville and Linzy Schindler of Laura; one brother, David (Tammy) Schindler of Alabama; one sister, Sue (Dennis) Steele of Peoria; and three grandchildren, Carmen, Vincent and Maybe-Jean. He was preceded in death by his parents and his sister Sara Schindler.

Steve always wanted to be a truck driver from a young age and fulfilled that dream in many different jobs throughout the years. His favorite was

Schindler

Long Rock, where he worked alongside his dad.

To Steve, fishing wasn’t just a hobby – it was his happy place. He got his love of fishing from his dad and enjoyed sharing it with anyone he could. From those early fishing dates with Connie to the countless family trips out to the lakes where he taught their daughters the patience of casting a line, and later the joy of seeing his grandkids reel in their first catches – it was a thread that tied generations together. He especially enjoyed his time bonding with his son-in-law Casey, who became the son he never had.

Smiley had a passion for classic cars, playing disc golf, hunting morel mushrooms, watching Westerns, especially those that starred John Wayne, drinking Folgers coffee, playing cards and watching sports.

He was one of the founding members of the Division 6 League, a local community of friends who turned a simple basketball strategy board game into a tradition of laughter, friendly rivalry and connection that lasted for years. His team was The Laura Largemen. On game nights, you could hear his three daughters chanting “Go Largemen!” with their white-and-green pom-poms, cheering their dad on like it was the championship game.

In his final years, Smiley was blessed to be cared for by his middle daughter, Amber, who selflessly stepped up and devoted her time, strength and heart to making sure he was surrounded by comfort and love. Her compassion and dedication brought peace not only to him but to their entire family – a true reflection of the love he instilled in his girls.

He was the best dad, a wonderful grandpa, a loyal friend and, above all, an endlessly loving and encouraging father who never stopped believing in his girls.

Smiley will be remembered for his humor and his easygoing nature. His laughter, kindness and warmth will forever echo in the hearts of all who knew and loved him.

Memorial contributions may be made to Princeville High School for the fishing team. Haskell Funeral and Cremation Services is assisting with the arrangements.

Online condolences may be left for Steven’s family on his tribute wall at www.haskellfuneral.com.

E-B's other three scoring runners were sophomore Riley Kelly (23rd, 19:23.5) and freshmen Charlotte Walker (27th, 19:38.9) and Madalyn Ori (28th, 19:39.6). All finishes were PRs and Walker was the lone E-B runner to go without spikes.

"Overall our body language looked great going into the chute," Anderson said. "Our eyes were up and our arms were driving."

Princeville junior Bethany Sennett also posted a PR to finish fourth in 17:58.3. She was the lone Princeville girl to advance to the sectional.

In the boys race, E-B senior Aiden Faulkner battled from start to finish with Eureka senior Gavin Stalter. Faulkner led all but the final quarter-mile, and he and Stalter staged a spirited race down the homestretch.

Stalter won with a PR of 14:52.3 and Faulkner was second in 14:53.3 – his second straight race under 15 minutes and also a PR.

"When you see (Faulkner) running, it's like he's not even going that fast, but he is. It's just so smooth," E-B

Coach Gregg Meyers said. "Overall, every one of our guys but one ran their fastest time. It's hard to be upset with that, because that was our best race of the year."

Like Anderson, Meyers hopes extra rest this week after the grueling Rocktober training regime will give his team a boost in a loaded sectional.

"Hopefully with a little more rest, we get another pop," Meyers said. "All we can control is what we do."

Other scoring runners for E-B were senior Kam Stevenson (7th, 15:17.7), freshman Cole Cahill (12th, 15:35.5), sophomore Danny Sharp (16th, 15:38.9) and sophomore Kai Nelson (23rd, 15:51.7). Cahill's time was a freshman record for the Trojans.

The Princeville boys also advanced to the sectional, placing fifth overall with 164 points. Senior Taylor Hess (11th, PR 15:35.2) led the Princes, whose other scoring runners were sophomore Hunter Keyster (18th, PR 15:44.5), junior Jacob Bosch (30th, PR 16:28.1), junior Collin Bowers (48th, 17:34.9) and sophomore Michael Winters (60th, PR 19:01).

"Overall, it was a good day. Most of our runners held their spots or moved up from where they were ranked or seeded (according to athletic.net) coming into the race," Coach Jeremy Melick said. "Our boys team was rated the seventh best, so for them to finish fifth speaks to the quality of their efforts."

• ROWVA-Williamsfield – The Cougars qualified girls and boys teams for the Sherrard Sectional, held at the same Saukie Golf Course as was the regional. Girls run at 3 p.m., boys at 4 on Saturday.

The R-W girls placed fifth at the regional. Scoring runners were Harper Campbell (8th, PR 19:31), Avery Manning (14th, PR 20:11), Emily Hilman (30th, 21:27), Marissa Brown (31st, 21:38) and Jayden Gerard (39th, 22:44).

The boys placed sixth and were led by Wyatt Hall (10th, 16:40), West Manning (15th, 17:02), Jonas Carlson (28th, 17:37), Logan Washburn (50th, 18:35) and Andrew Broadfield (51st, 18:36).

FARMERS ROLL INTO CLASS 2A POSTSEASON

Unbeaten again

Farmers top Bureau Valley 48-0, face Eastland-Pearl City Saturday

By JEFF LAMPE
For The Weekly Post

MANLIUS – For the second straight season and the sixth time since 2016, the Farmington football team heads to the playoffs with a 9-0 mark and lofty playoff aspirations.

That’s an impressive showing for a team that started a freshman quarterback along with plenty of untested juniors from last year’s Class 2A semifinalist. Any doubts were silenced, though, as No. 2-ranked Farmington capped another perfect regular season last Friday with a 48-0 win at Bureau Valley.

And while Farmington has not been tested since a 30-16 win over Macomb on Oct. 3, that will likely change Saturday at 1 p.m. when the Farmers face No. 14 seed Eastland-Pearl City.

The Wildcatz are not your usual 5-4 finisher. Eastland-Pearl City lost to Galena (27-16), Durand-Pecatonica (38-0), Stockton (46-8) and Lena-Winslow (60-32). Those four finished 28-8 and led the rugged Northwest Upstate Illini Conference.

Primarily a Class 1A league, six of nine NUIC members made the playoffs, led by Class 1A’s top-ranked team Stockton (9-0) and Lena-Winslow (8-1), ranked No. 3 in 1A. Since 2010, Le-Win has won six 1A state titles (including 2021 and 2022) and placed second the last two years.

How well does a 1A schedule prepare a team for the 2A playoffs?

Well, under Coach Jared McNutt, Eastland-Pearl City

Bureau Valley running backs had nowhere to go last Friday as Farmington won its regular-season finale 48-0. That was the fourth shutout of the season pitched by the Farmers defense, which has allowed an average of 9.4 points per game this season. Photo by Dave Giagnoni.

has made the Class 2A playoffs twice since 2018, when the team went 12-1 and lost 14-7 in the semifinals to eventual state champion Gibson City-Melvin-Sibley. Last year’s squad lost in the first round to Rockridge, 22-8. And E-PC went 14-0 in 2014 to win Class 2A.

“This will be a good game, I think,” Farmington Coach Toby Vallas said. “I just know watching tape they look really good. And if you put Lena-Winslow into 2A, they’d be pretty darned good.”

The Wildcatz are run dominated, Vallas said, with speedy Draven Zier having rushed for over 1,000 yards on the year. Vallas also praised E-PC’s 6-foot-4 tight end/outside linebacker Zy Haverland. Linebacker Will Birchen is also the NUIC’s all-time leading tackler, according to Shaw Media.

And though the ground game is key, quarterback

Trio of Elmwood volleyball players reaches big stats

By PHIL JOHNSON
For The Weekly Post

BIGGSVILLE – The Elmwood volleyball team opened the Class 1A West Central Regional with a 25-19, 25-18 sweep over Abingdon-Avon on Monday.

The win sent the second-seeded Trojans (23-11) into a regional semifinal match against North Fulton on Wednesday. The West Central Regional final is scheduled for 6 p.m. today (Oct. 30).

In the win over A-Town, Cheyenne Burge scored on nine kills and Gianna Ramirez added five. Payge Ryan had 17 assists and three aces. Lexi Begner served three aces.

EHS lost 25-21, 25-19 to Kewanee Wethersfield last Thursday at home. Burge and Gwen Agan recorded seven kills each, while Ryan had 19 assists.

Burge registered her 500th career kill, Wren Kellenberger made it to 500 digs and Ryan recorded her 1,000th career assist.

The Lady Trojans topped Prairieland Conference rival Farmington 25-10, 25-18 on the road last Tuesday. Burge tallied 11 kills and Ryan racked up 22 assists.

Agan recorded four aces and five kills. Lia Hulslander came up with nine digs.

Elmwood swept Midwest Central 25-15, 25-21 last Monday in a nonconference matchup. Kellenberger recorded 11 kills and Ramirez had five in the scoring outburst.

• Farmington – Farmington (6-17) was topped by Canton 25-22, 25-23 on Monday in first-round Class 2A regional play at Aledo.

E-B girls, boys 3rd at Farmington Regional

By JEFF LAMPE
For The Weekly Post

FARMINGTON – The finish is there for the Elmwood-Brimfield girls cross country team. The challenge for this Saturday’s Class 1A sectional meet at Maple Lane Country Club in Elmwood will be for the Lady Trojans to start as strongly as they end races.

E-B placed third last Saturday at the Class 1A Farmington Regional with 86 points behind winner Eureka (58 points) and El Paso-Gridley (63).

The boys race produced a mirror image, with E-B third (60) behind winner Eureka (43) and El Paso-Gridley (54).

Both teams will face an even-stronger field on Saturday, as more state-ranked teams will join the field. Girls run at 10 a.m., boys at 11.

For E-B girls coach Kyle Anderson, the path to earning a state berth is fairly straightforward.

“I feel like our last mile and a half is about as good as anybody’s. That’s been our strength,” Anderson said. “So now it’s getting them to trust in the work they’ve done that they can be more aggressive in the first half of the race.”

That and additional rest after a rugged month of training are reasons Anderson thinks his team still has room for some movement up the team standings. The top six teams and the top 10 runners not on those teams advance to the state finals Nov. 8 at Detweiller Park in Peoria.

Ranked in the top 10 in most of the state’s Class 1A polls, E-B was led by sophomore Bristol Schmidgall at Farmington. She placed sixth in a personal-record time of 18:08.4 – just a step ahead of sophomore teammate Mya Hill (7th, PR 18:08.6).
