FALL BEAUTY ABOUNDS

Scenery better in the woods than on phone

Our spectacular fall scene is finally fluttering away, leaf by leaf. Wet, sticky snow and rain, coupled with gusts from the northwest, have all but ended an extended and memorable run of foliage.

Not all the scenery is gone, though. Big whitetail bucks are in the early days of their brief annual fall emergence.

Jeff LAMPE

Those lucky enough to spend time in the timber right now can witness the amazing spectacle that is the whitetail rut. Late October through December is the one time of year that normally reclusive mature bucks lose their wariness in pursuit of love. Peak rut is typically Nov. 10-20.

For those like me who hunt deer, it's a

Temporary taste for Princeville water

Installation of new storage tank in April will result in harder water

By NICK VLAHOS

For The Weekly Post

PRINCEVILLE – Next spring, Princeville residents might notice their tap water might not taste right. But it should be only temporary.

A new 100,000-gallon storage tank the village will use to supply its water towers is targeted for installation in April, according to Chad Gardner, the Princeville superintendent of public works. The tank is to replace the current one, located behind Village Hall and installed in the early 1990s.

During the two to three weeks of installation, the village will have to distribute well water instead of water purified through reverse osmosis. That will result in harder water temporarily, according to Gardner.

"People remember what the water used to taste like 25-30 years ago? It'll go back to that," he said.

When it met Nov. 3, the Village Board approved a $298,500 deal with Cady Aquastore, Inc., of Tampico for the tank and installation. The tank is to be largely identical to the current one – steel with a glass-fused interior and exterior.

Farmington school levy to dip slightly

By JEFF LAMPE

For The Weekly Post

FARMINGTON – The Farmington School Board on Monday unanimously approved a resolution that would include a slight reduction in the district's tax levy for 2025.

The proposed levy of 4.5277% for the school district is down from last year's levy of 4.7333%, according to Superintendent Zac Chatterton.

At the same time, the equalized assessed value of properties in the Farmington district is predicted to increase by 6.2%.

That will trigger a state-required Truth in Taxation hearing since the predicted total of taxes is expected to increase by more than 5%.

The school board's final decision on the 2025 levy will come after a public hearing is held on Dec. 10 at 4:45 p.m. in the Farmington Central Office. A special meeting of the board will follow the hearing.

In other business, the board unanimously approved a course catalog for next school year, application for a $50,000 state maintenance grant to continue restroom renovations and a two-year commitment to the Peoria County Regional Office of Education's alternative learning program.

PRINCEVILLE: EPA rejected first plan for tank

The new tank was to be made of glass-free stainless steel, but the Illinois Environmental Protection Agency rejected that plan in late October because of leeching concerns, according to Gardner.

Among other items, the board authorized a $1,657,938.29 payment to Leander Construction Inc. of Canton, part of an ongoing $6-million-plus sewer-and-wastewater project.

Trustees also approved a variance for construction of a building at 627 N. Princeville Ave. that would exceed the maximum lot coverage by 65 square feet. Building permits were issued for a chain-link fence in a rear yard at 632 W. Main St. and for roof-mounted solar panels at 323 S. Cottage Grove Ave.

FARMINGTON: Exploratory classes for junior high an ongoing program of exploratory classes for 7th and 8th graders.

Uptmor said teachers were asked prior to the school year to teach something for which they had a passion that students might share. The resulting mix of classes is taught one period a day. Students take a new class each quarter. Classes include Illinois history, drama, creativity, home economics, industrial arts, geography, junior high 101, art, debate, broadcasting and more.

“It’s kind of outside the norm and we’re really proud of what we’re building,” Uptmor said. “It’s been a great launch to start the school year.”

In personnel, the board approved hiring Joyce Derby as a bus monitor, terminating Ed Olson from transportation, Derek Schultz as a wrestling volunteer and stipend positions to Ron Zessin and Quinton Fultz (junior high wrestling), Isaac Asplund (high school scholastic bowl assistant), Patrick O’Brien (baseball assistant) and Chris Evans, Tyeisha Mosley, Caitlyn Vahle and Kim McSherry as JH tutors.

Prior to the business meeting, the board recognized several students of the month: senior Kirk Melton, junior Lucas Shelby, sophomore Jillian Carpenter, freshman Braelyn Sceggel, 8th-graders Drew Evans and Sheridan Rusch, 7th-graders MJ Duffie and Carly Ivey and 6th-graders Orion Williams and Delaney Blunier.

Orange Frog honorees for the month are technology specialists Debra Uryasz and Sarah Perardi.

LAMPE: The woods, not A.I., create real drama

magical time that tests commitments to work and family but pays dividends many fail to understand.

Unfortunately, I look at Twitter nowadays. Sports news and wildlife videos lure me. But between the headlines, it depresses me to see A.I. videos of African lions doing crazy things, cats and chihuahuas scaring bears through sliding-glass doors and other fakeries.

I'm turning into Thomas. What the phone shows, I scarcely believe. Reality is harder to decipher than ever. That's just one more reason the magic of the natural world is so much better than any video.

Sunday morning after the wettest of the wet snow passed, a doe se-merged nearby with a buck in hot pursuit. Panting and wet, she bedded down, not 20 yards away on a hill-side across from me. The buck stood below her, soaking wet, panting, wild-eyed and distracted.

Over the next few minutes he chased off two would-be suitors, grunting and running through the creek to prove his mettle to the smaller bucks. Unimpressed, she eventually ran north. He followed, at top speed.

Who needs fake videos when the real thing is better? Hours earlier, that same point came up while talking deer with Joe Gronewold after Farmington and his son Jack defeated Aurora Christian in a soggy but entertaining football game.

"Stay off your phone," he cautioned. "I'm trying, but I missed a big buck this morning because I was looking at it."

That's a little easier for Gronewold to say since he also shot a big one earlier this fall, pictured on the front page of this edition. "That's what it's all about around here, farming, football and hunting," he said.

Obviously, that's not true for everyone. But farming is big business in these parts, football is still a pas-time embraced by many and hunting combines elements of both.

Quick, name things in which central Illinois leads the nation? Soybean and corn production? Yes. Producing bucks with big antlers? Yes. Let me know what else you come up with, because there are no doubt others.

All those boring fields of corn and beans surrounding us provide a great food source for whitetails. Pockets of timber scattered here and there in Fulton, Knox and Peoria counties offer tremendous whitetail habitat.

Funny thing is, decades ago when the deer herd was rebounding from near extinction, biologists thought whitetails needed vast expanses of timber in order to thrive. Nope. We've got what they need. That's a blessing many overlook. Don't underestimate the importance of the business side of deer hunting to our local economy.

How else to explain that an acre of ground covered in nothing but trees can sell for upwards of $8,000?

How else to explain trucks with license plates from Pennsylvania, Georgia, New York, West Virginia and elsewhere parked along gravel roads in our counties?

How else to explain local land-owners buying tractors, implements, seed and more for recreation?

All that is done just for a chance to witness real, compelling natural drama that A.I. merely mocks.

New park a possibility again in Elmwood

By NICK VLAHOS
For The Weekly Post
ELMWOOD – A possible public park in the Fairground Acres subdivision appears to be in play again.

Fairground Acres developer Fred Paige intends to make the city a formal offer to donate an empty lot for park space, according to Mayor Andrew Almasi. On Nov. 18, the City Council is expected to discuss Paige’s offer.

The park possibility first arose in September, after Paige made a verbal offer to donate the property. Opposition from some subdivision residents and lack of a formal offer prompted city officials to set aside the issue early last month.

The situation changed after Paige requested an informal meeting with Almasi, Alderman Bob Paige and Economic Development Director Amy Davis. It was held Oct. 31.

“He said, ‘I want to know what happened,’ and I said, ‘We have some new (council) members and they said we have this offer but we didn’t have enough information,’” Almasi said following the council meeting Nov. 4. “A formal offer would have been a lot nicer. He said he would do that.”

Bob Paige, who helps oversee city parks, is to research costs associated with maintaining and outfitting the potential-park property. That is to be part of the council discussion next week. Alderman Paige said the parks budget should have enough money to cover the costs.

Possible use of city tax-increment-financing money to transform the lot into parkland appeared to be a sticking point.

The lot is located along Hickory Run at the east end of Fairground Acres, which is located at the city’s northeast edge.

Almasi said the proposed lot isn’t perfect. It has a ground-elevation issue. But Almasi believes the proposed park will complement West Park and Sweetwater Park, which is on the south side of Elmwood. He suggested West Park is the only one adequate for children’s play.

“I asked people, the few that I know who are in opposition, ‘Do some research and tell me,’” Almasi said. “Does it decrease property values? Is there some other issue? If we’ve got a lot of opposition, I would defer to that. But it sounds like a good idea. It’s free land, but there could be drawbacks.”

Also probably up for approval next week is the 2025 municipal property-tax levy. Last week, City Attorney Bob Potts proposed a levy of $347,426. The increase from 2024 is just under 5%, the number that would trigger a state-required Truth in Taxation public hearing.

“You’ve increased it (that much) every year as long as I can remember,” Potts said.

The city’s equalized assessed property value increased 6.1% from 2024 to 2025, Potts said.

During public comment, Elmwood resident Phillip Beal asked the council if municipal action will be taken regarding a derelict property at 701 S. Althea St., the site of a fire a few years ago.

A court hearing scheduled for last week was postponed, so the issue is at a standstill, according to Kaitlyn Wagner, the city building-code officer. She said the building needs to be demolished, because of safety issues. Vermin and inoperable vehicles litter the property. The owners have been unresponsive.

In action items, the council approved a $3,330 TIF grant to building owners Ron and Cathy Windish for window replacement and maintenance work at 108 E. Main St., former site of Elmwood Telepharmacy. That business closed in October.

The Windishes are seeking a new tenant, according to Davis.

A Heartfelt Message

A call, shocking and surprising!!..... and then our lives are changed forever.

Fifty-nine years ago God loaned us a son to love, cherish, nurture, teach, celebrate, enjoy and raise. We acknowledged God's gift by baptizing and raising him with faith based on Christ Jesus. Baptism is the first step into Christ's family. John 3:5, Jesus tells Nicodemus, "Truly, truly I say unto you, unless one is born of water and the spirit, he cannot enter the kingdom of God." Baptism works for forgiveness of sins, delivers from death and grants eternal salvation to all who believe, as the words and promises of God declare.

God has called him out of our world to his next life. He still lives, but just not with us. We are confident we will join him when our earthly journeys are complete. We live in this hope because God has given us victory over death through our Lord Jesus Christ.

Mitch was an obedient and loving son, husband, father, grandfather, brother, uncle, cousin and friend. No one can ever take his place in the hearts of his family. He was dearly loved and his absence will be felt daily.

Dear friends, thank you for all the loving, kindness you have extended to our family. You are perfect examples of God's loving mercy with your tears, prayers, hugs, visits, donations, concerns, offers of help and love. God bless each of you and know you are a part of God's goodness. As we gaze upon all the variety of leaves on the ground we are reminded of God's love through each of you.

Police reports

• PRINCEVILLE – At least one vehicle was burgled and stolen in a Princeville incident that remains under investigation, apparently.

The incident was reported about 7 a.m. Oct. 12 in the 300 block of S. Walnut Ave., according to a Peoria County Sheriff’s Office report that was redacted almost completely. Two victims were listed, one from Laura and another from Princeville.

Another apparent vehicle burglary and theft was reported about 2½ hours later along Illinois Route 8 east of Oak Hill, according to another redacted sheriff’s-office report. It isn’t clear if the incidents were related.

• EDWARDS – A three-vehicle deer-related accident in Edwards resulted in a motorcyclist being transported to a Peoria hospital.

Harry Price of Normal received treatment at OSF Saint Francis Medical Center for unspecified injuries sustained in the accident. It happened shortly after 4:45 p.m. Oct. 10 on Kickapoo-Edwards Road near Powdermill Road, according to a Peoria County Sheriff’s Office report.

Price and Philippe W. Boland of Hudson were riding Harley-Davidson motorcycles when several deer emerged from a ditch to cross the road. The riders hit their brakes and the motorcycles fell to the pavement.

An oncoming Mazda CX-5 sport-utility vehicle crested a hill, swerved to avoid Price and hit his motorcycle, the report stated. Mark J. Padecky of Chicago was the SUV driver. He had four passengers, three males and a female. Neither they, Padecky nor Boland reported injuries.

• FAIRVIEW – After being found passed out in a vehicle in the middle of a roadway near Fairview, a Yates City woman was accused of driving under the influence of alcohol. Fulton County Sheriff’s Office deputies responded shortly before 3:30 a.m. Oct. 10 to Illinois Route 97 and Goat Road. There they found Aunna R. Ball, 25, inside a 2013 Chevrolet.

• PRINCEVILLE – A Pekin woman was accused of drunken driving following a single-vehicle accident east of Princeville.

A Peoria County Sheriff’s Office deputy was dispatched shortly before 8:45 p.m. Oct. 9 to the intersection of Illinois routes 90 and 91. There he found Karen M. Parr, 66, who had been behind the wheel of a 2019 Toyota RAV4 sport-utility vehicle, according to a heavily redacted sheriff’s-office report.

Parr was transported to Carle Health Proctor Hospital in Peoria. She was charged with driving under the influence of alcohol.

• ELMWOOD – An Elmwood man chased at least two people and attempted to assault them, according to authorities. Austin E. Foster, 31, was arrested shortly after 10:30 p.m. Oct. 8 in the 400 block of E. Main St., a heavily redacted Peoria County Sheriff’s Office report stated. The victims were two Elmwood women, aged 57 and 41. Foster was accused of domestic battery and transported to the Peoria County Jail.

• FARMINGTON – A license-plate check in Farmington resulted in a Bellevue man being accused of two vehicular offenses.

Ryan W. Bradshaw, 31, was driving a 2005 GMC pickup truck when a Farmington police officer stopped it shortly before 4:45 p.m. Oct. 5 near Fort and Oak streets. The officer stopped Bradshaw because his vehicle registration was expired and suspended, according to a report.

Bradshaw’s driver’s license also was suspended, for safety and financial reasons. He received a notice to appear in Fulton County Circuit Court in Lewistown.

• FARMINGTON – A Farmington police officer recognized a driver whose license was suspended, then stopped and cited him.

Jayden E. Dressler, 24, of Farmington, was driving a westbound 2004 Chevrolet sedan shortly before 3:30 p.m. Oct. 5 in the 100 block of E. Fort St. when the eastbound officer passed him. The officer then made a U-turn and followed Dressler to the 100 block of W. Fort St., where he pulled the Chevy into a driveway.

Dressler received a notice to appear in Fulton County Circuit Court in Lewistown.

• FARMINGTON – A Canton woman and a Farmington girl were accused of taking a vehicle without the owner’s consent and driving around the area all night.

The incident happened between about 11 p.m. Oct. 2 and about 7 a.m. Oct. 3, according to a Farmington police report. Implicated were Piper A. Steele, 18, of Canton and a 15-year-old girl. The vehicle, a 2014 Kia Sorento, belonged to the girl’s sister, a 25-year-old Farmington resident.

Steele was charged with criminal trespass to a vehicle. The 15-year-old also was charged with criminal trespass to a vehicle. The owner found the vehicle in Canton.

• FARMINGTON – A chainsaw and its battery and charger were reported stolen from a Farmington residence. Missing from a garage in the 400 block of E. Fulton St. were a Kobalt 24-volt chainsaw worth $159 and a lithium-ion battery and charger worth $49, according to a Farmington police report. The owner notified police shortly after 3 p.m. Oct. 3.

• GALESBURG – These were among calls to which the Knox County Sheriff’s Office responded between Oct. 12-18: alarm, Yates City; suspicious incident, Yates City; domestic dispute, Dahinda; trespass, Dahinda; suspicious vehicle, Dahinda; trespass, Williamsfield; DUI, Williamsfield; drunk, Yates City.

• EDWARDS – Shortly after 5:45 p.m. Oct. 8, James A. Hart of Lewistown was driving a northbound 2017 Chrysler 300 on Kickapoo-Edwards Road near Valley View Road north of Edwards when the vehicle struck a deer that also was hit by a southbound vehicle, a Peoria County Sheriff’s Office report stated. Hart reported no injuries. His vehicle was drivable.

• HANNA CITY – A Morton woman required hospital attention after she was pinned between a vehicle and a workbench outside a Hanna City-area business.

Lindsay M. Owsley was delivering a FedEx package to Doubets Plastering, 11423 W. Farmington Rd., about 11 a.m. Oct. 10 when the accident happened, according to a Peoria County Sheriff’s Office report. Owsley said she put the delivery vehicle, a 2018 Ram cargo van, in park in front of the business.

As she was walking in front of the vehicle from its driver’s side to its passenger side, it started to roll forward. The workbench was between the vehicle and the building. Someone inside the building saw Owsley stuck under the workbench, but she escaped through a small gap.

Owsley complained about unspecified pain and was transported to OSF Saint Francis Medical Center in Peoria. The workbench was pushed into the building exterior, which sustained about $500 in damage. Logan-Trivoli firefighters also responded.

Stufflebeam receives Student Laureate Award

QUINCY – The Lincoln Academy of Illinois named Quincy University senior Alexis Stufflebeam of Farmington a recipient of the prestigious Lincoln Academy Student Laureate Award for 2025.

The Lincoln Academy Student Laureate program recognizes excellence in curricular and extra-curricular activities by seniors from each of Illinois’ four-year, degree-granting colleges and universities. Each fall, The Lincoln Academy presents an outstanding senior from each of these institutions with the Abraham Lincoln Civic Engagement Award.

“We are delighted that Alexis Stufflebeam is this year’s Lincoln Academy honoree,” said Brian McGee, QU president. “Alexis exemplifies all that is good about a Quincy University education.”

Stufflebeam is a criminal justice

Stufflebeam

major at QU.

“Abraham Lincoln’s leadership has always stood out because it was rooted in humility, integrity and an unwavering focus on the greater good. Those qualities guide the way I try to live and lead,” Stufflebeam said. “Lincoln’s legacy is a reminder that true leadership is measured not by recognition, but by the good we leave behind. As I look ahead to a career in counseling and advocacy, I hope to carry on his example.”

CBI appoints Bern to leadership council

GALESBURG – CBI Bank & Trust announced the appointment of Michael Bern to its Community Development Leadership Council.

Bern graduated from Western Illinois University with a bachelor’s degree in agricultural science.

“We are excited to welcome Michael to our board,” said Mike Holloway, chairman of the Knox/Warren/Peoria County Community Development Leadership Council. “His deep knowledge of agriculture, combined with his strong community roots, make him a valuable addition as we continue to grow and serve our communities.”

Bern lives in Galesburg with his wife, Erin, and two children, age 2 and 3 months.

OBITUARIES

Mitchell D. Inskeep

CHICAGO – Mitchell D. Inskeep, 59, of Chicago, passed away peacefully on Oct. 29, 2025.
Mitch was born May 16, 1966, in Monmouth. He was the oldest son of David and Carroll Inskeep.
Upon graduating from Elmwood High School, Mitch attended the University of Illinois Urbana-Champaign, earning his bachelor's degree from the College of Agriculture with a business emphasis. His junior year, he met the love of his life, Michelle.
Following his graduation in 1988, Mitch began his career at Edward D. Jones as an investment advisor. Mitch and Michelle married on April 6, 1991, at St. James Catholic Church in Arlington Heights.
Mitch continued his career in finance, working for First of America, National City, PNC and Wells Fargo Advisors in Peoria. In 2021, he joined SC3F Wealth Management Group as a senior partner. He was dedicated to his clients and built lasting relationships founded on trust, integrity and care.
Outside the office, Mitch felt most at home in nature, especially during his time in Arizona. He loved hiking, gardening and golfing, and was equally happy relaxing with a glass of pinot noir surrounded by family. A proud and loyal Fighting Illini fan, Mitch's enthusiasm for his team was contagious.
More than anything, he cherished time with his family, especially his grandchildren, who were the light of his life.
Mitch and Michelle built a life filled with love and laughter, raising three children, Alyssa (Jon) Lindstrom, Grant (Melanie) Inskeep and Claire Inskeep. Mitch was a devoted "Dzia-Dzia" to his grandchildren, Calvin and Alice Lindstrom, and was eagerly awaiting the arrival of his third grandchild, Sophia Inskeep.
Survivors include his wife, Michelle; three beloved children,

Alyssa (Jon) Lindstrom, Grant (Melanie) Inskeep and Claire Inskeep; parents, David and Carroll Inskeep; three siblings, Kai (Jim) Morris, Gordon (Sarah) Inskeep and Brinae (Jeremy) Lawrence; and many nieces and nephews.
In lieu of flowers, donations may be made in Mitch's name to an organization close to the family, Light the Night (pages.1ls.org/ltm/chi/Metrochicago25/mitchinskeep).
A funeral Mass was held on Friday, Nov. 7, at Old St. Patrick's Catholic Church in Chicago.

Carl Rice

NORMAL – Carl Rice, 79, of Normal, formerly of Williamsfield, passed away Sunday, Nov. 9, 2025, at his home. Arrangements are pending at Rux Funeral Home in Williamsfield.

Michael A. Schaub

KICKAPOO – Michael A. Schaub, 55, of Kickapoo, passed away on Friday, Nov. 7, 2025, at his home.
Mike was born on Feb. 1, 1970, the son of John and Anne (Strifler) Schaub, in Peoria. Mike obtained his bachelor's degree in horticulture and was employed at Schaub Excavating, his father's family business. He was a member of St. Mary's Catholic Church in Kickapoo.
He was preceded in death by his father, John Schaub, and nephew Cade Schaub.
Those left to cherish his memory include his mother, Anne Schaub; two brothers, Tim (Jaimee) Schaub of Kickapoo and Paul Schaub of Brimfield; niece, Kennedy; and nephew, Owen.
Cremation rites have been accorded, and a memorial Mass will be held at St. Mary's Catholic Church in Kickapoo on Saturday, Nov. 15, 2025, at 10:30 a.m. The Rev. James Pankiewicz will officiate. Burial of ashes will follow in St. Patrick Catholic Cemetery.
In lieu of flowers the family request memorials be made to Sophie's Kitchen in Peoria.

William P. Symonds

BRIMFIELD – William Perryman "Bill" Symonds, 79, of Brimfield, passed away peacefully surrounded by his family on Saturday, Nov. 8, 2025, at 6:06 p.m. at his home. He was born March 30, 1946, in Peoria, to John and Kathryn (Hague) Symonds. He married Dolores (Diver) Symonds on Sept. 6, 1970, in Chillicothe. She survives.
Also surviving are three daughters, Becky A. (Aven) Friday, Brenda D. (Patrick) Kell and Doreen R. (Curtis) Smith; four grandchildren, Jessica Friday (Luke) Leibach, Caylee Friday (Matt) Sullivan, Riley Kell and Ian Smith; three great-grandchildren, Mikaela and Thalia Leibach and Emmett Sullivan; two brothers, Tom (Carol) Symonds and Ron (Sharon) Symonds; one sister, Shirley Cusack; and several nieces and nephews.
He was preceded in death by his parents and two nephews.
Bill first worked driving LP gas trucks for FS for six to seven years. He then went to Princeville Canning Company doing machine maintenance for 33 years. Needless to say, after canning pumpkin for so many years he didn't want any pumpkin pies!
Bill volunteered for the Brimfield Fire Department for 45 years. He was very involved in this aspect of his life. Bill was a member of the Union Church in Brimfield, where he served as a deacon as well as a board member for several years. He also served on the zoning board for the Village of Brimfield.
His memorial service will be held on Saturday, Nov. 15, 2025, at noon at Haskell Funeral and Cremation Services in Princeville. The Rev. Stephen Barch will officiate. Visitation will be from 10 a.m. to noon on Saturday, Nov. 15, 2025, also at the funeral home.
Memorial contributions may be made to Brimfield Fire Department. Online condolences may be left for Bill's family on his tribute wall at www.haskellfuneral.com.

Brimfield, R-W sidelined at sectional

By The Weekly Post

The Brimfield and ROWVA-Wil-liamsfield volleyball teams ended their seasons Nov. 4 at the Class 1A Abingdon Sectional.

Tremont swept R-W 25-10, 25-18 in the first semifinal, then Orion rallied for a gritty 22-25, 25-18, 25-11 victory that sidelined Brimfield.

For R-W in the sectional, Sawyer Secrist led with eight kills, Riley Smith had four kills, Tori Trotter led with 11 assists and 10 service aces and Maddi McGarry and Eliza Tucker had five digs.

Anja Nelson led the Indians, who finished 22-8, with 13 kills and an equal number of digs. Jovi Chastain posted team-highs with 13 assists

• Brittany McGowan: 17 blocks

• Anja Nelson: 60 aces, 364 digs

• Jovi Chastain: 386 assists

• Kennedy Teubel: 226 kills and two aces, and Brittany McGowan had one block.

“The outcome may not reflect the grit and determination to compete in the face of adversity,” Brimfield Coach McKenna Weaver said.

“There are many notable accomplishments to take away from this season.”

Among those was the Indians defeating two state-ranked, undefeated teams (Illini Bluffs and Henry-Se-nachwine), winning the ICAC tournament, winning the Prairieland Conference and claiming back-to-back regionals for the first time in program history.

Brimfield knocked off Illini Bluffs to win the ICAC tournament. The win over Henry-Senachwine was a regular-season match against the team that ousted the Indians in the first round of sectionals last year.

Eight players rose to the challenge of playing more than one position at the varsity level throughout the year.

“The versatility of this group made them unique.” Weaver said. “I am honored to coach incredible, hard-working student-athletes.”

FARMERS: Gronewold ran for 3 Farmington TDs

Paso-Gridley (11-0) at 5 p.m. Saturday. The teams were tied for third in the final Class 2A AP poll.

EP-G has to be wondering what Farmers team it will be facing. For all its passing flash in Vallas’ tenure, Farmington has always cultivated a run game as well. “They spread you out to run on you,” was one opposing coach’s view.

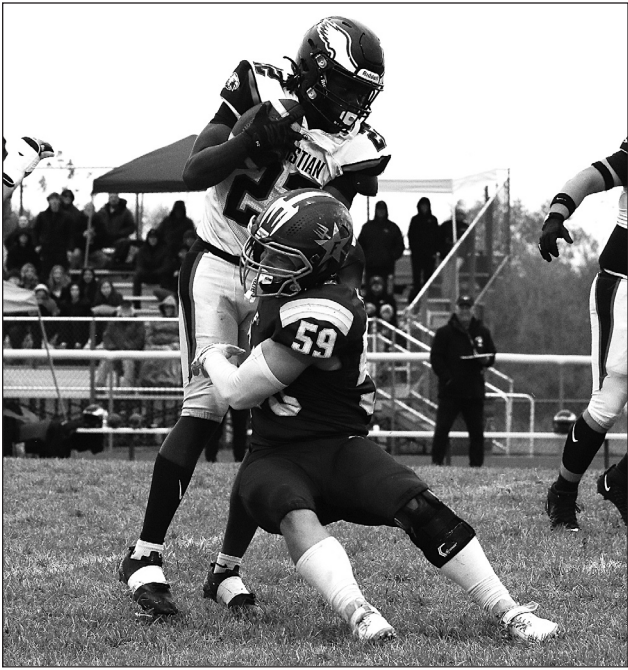

That philosophy proved perfect last week in the rain. Johnson was 1-for-7 passing for three yards in a scoreless last two quarters for AC (8-3), which man- aged just 52 rushing yards on 26 carries for the game.

Meanwhile, the versatile Gronewold — who played end, quarterback, running back and safety — ran 17 times in the second half to finish with 143 yards and two touchdowns. And remember the elephant? That’s the name of the play that broke AC’s back.

Set up in triangular formation of 10 blockers with Gronewold at the apex, the senior broke a fourth-and-1 run into a 36-yard TD with 3:43 remaining.

“We put our biggest guys out there and it’s the bruisers of football right there,” Gronewold said. “Smashmouth football.”

“It’s a good to have a second identity you can go to,” Vallas said. “I’m guar-halftime and coach came in and gave us a good speech,” Gronewold said. “He said, ‘We won 22 out of 24 minutes and they just beat us in two.’ So we’ve got to win all 24 in the second half.”

The Farmers need a similar approach heading into a road game against an EP-G team that routed Sterling Newman, 31-0. Of course it helped that Sterling Newman lost two fumbles, tossed an interception and had two drives end on downs, including one at the EP-G 1-yard line.

But the Titans’ closest game this year was a 24-21 win over Downs Tri-Valley, which upset Class 2A No. 1 Taylor Ridge Rockridge on Saturday, 24-17.

Speedy EP-G runs a no-huddle attack and while QB Owen Adams likes to pass, the Titans are balanced. EP-G running back Aaden Adams ran for 113 yards and three scores last week and Owen Adams passed for a 69-yard TD to Braden Gibson.

“They’re the fastest team I’ve probably ever faced. Great speed all over,” Vallas said. “All juniors and sophomores too. They’re good this year and they’re going to be really good next year.”

Top targets are Gibson and wideouts Jayvion and Cha’von Maxon.

anteeing you they didn’t spend all week trying to get ready for Elephant.”

For good measure, Gronewold bulled his way in for the conversion despite a low snap that hit the wet turf.

“That part ain’t drawn up. That’s just Jack,” Vallas said. “That’s Jack and his genetics and all the weights he lifts and he just wasn’t going to be denied because it would put the game away.”

Gronewold scored the Farmers’ other touchdowns, one a 12-yard run in the second quarter, the other a patient 11-yarder with 8:31 left in the third.

His conversion attempt there failed, but he made up for that later.

“We just couldn’t stop it,” AC Coach Dave Beebe said. “We couldn’t get him on the ground. And that’s how you win big games.”

Vallas noted there was more than weather at work in the win, too. Except for the last two minutes of the first half — during which the Farmers yielded two scoring drives, one after making no attempt to field a kickoff to the Farmington 31-yard line — Vallas said his team was solid. That was his halftime message.

“We were down and had no momentum going into 15:23.69) and Kai Nelson (86th, 15:53.39) and freshman Cole Cahill (94th, 15:58.81).

The team scoring gave E-B 163 points, 12 more than Eureka. The places were reversed Nov. 1 at the Elmwood Sectional, but Eureka's top runner, Gavin Stalter, didn't compete then because of injury. He was 23rd at state, which for the second year in a row was won by Chaz Oberkfell of Gillespie (14:32.1).

"I don't know that I could ask more," E-B Coach Gregg Meyers said. "Aiden ran fantastic, Kam ran absolutely fantastic, Danny ran great, Cole, Kai, all those guys ran fantastic. Eureka beat us, but hats off to them, because they ran absolutely great."

Rockford Christian had 184 points and finished third. El Paso-Gridley, which was third at the Elmwood Sectional, finished fourth at state.

Meyers said the situation began to improve for E-B about six weeks ago. Stevenson concurred. He said he and Faulkner had a conversation about what was necessary to rectify things. They conveyed that message to the rest of the team.

"We just said, 'Let's do this. Let's just be us. Let's just be as strong as we can,'" Stevenson said. "I think it helped bring some things into perspective for us."

Said Meyers: "We were sitting there thinking if we don't change things, we're going to be a 17th-place team. We didn't quite have the confidence and the understanding of where we needed to be. We had two seniors, and they understood."

Princeville senior Taylor Hess began the season in a walking boot because of injury but ended it in 80th place, in 15:50.53.

The top E-B girls finisher was sophomore Mya Hill (28th, personal-record 17:57.8). Also scoring were classmates Bristol Schmidgall (47th, 18:26.29) and Riley Kelly (89th, PR 19:03.24) and freshmen Charlotte Walker (107th, PR 19:25.58) and Madalyn Ori (114th, 19:36.11). In the team totals, E-B had 243 points.

"Everyone ran well and did what was asked of them," Hill said. "That in itself is a win, I would say."

E-B Coach Kyle Anderson said Hill executed her race almost perfectly. He also said a top-five team finish was a preseason goal for his young team. That appears to augur well for next season.

"There's a lot of experience on this team," said Anderson, who also noted Brimfield's grade-school state prowess. "They've been there before."

So had Sennett, who finished 32nd in 2024 and 51st in 2023. This time, she ran a personal-best and school-record 17:46.25.

"I think the first mile, everyone went out pretty fast, so I just tried to stay relaxed and hold my pace while other people decreased their pace a little bit," Sennett said. "Around the second mile marker, I heard someone say 'Top 25 is right in front of you,' so I was just trying to catch up with her."

Sennett said a pre-race projection had her finishing in about 37th place. That was where she thought she'd finish. But once the race was over, it was apparent Sennett underestimated herself. She became the first Princeville cross country all-stater since Mary Ellen Hill accomplished it 30 years ago.

"I was tired, but I was so excited," Sennett said.

ROWVA-Williamsfield freshman Harper Campbell finished 103rd, in a personal-best and program-record 19:20.81.

Sandwich senior Sundara Weber, who won the Class 2A race last season, ran 15:54.42 to win the 1A title this season. Winnebago amassed 150 points to take the team title. Shelbyville was second and El Paso-Gridley was third.

IHSA STATE CROSS COUNTRY

Trojans are second to one

Faulkner fuels E-B boys to runner-up state finish; girls fifth

By NICK VLAHOS

For The Weekly Post

PEORIA – The boys cross country season didn't begin all that great for Elmwood-Brimfield. But if it's how you finish that counts, the season was an unqualified success.

Led by a sixth-place all-state performance from senior Aiden Faulkner last weekend at Detweiller Park, E-B added another trophy to its already-overflowing case. The second-place Class 1A finish Nov. 8, behind only Eureka, gave the Trojans their 18th top-three placing, including seven runners-up.

It's possible this one was among the most satisfying, given early-season tumult.

"We had some issues with people leaving the team that we were expecting to be on the team," senior Kam Stevenson said. "Working around this team and how hard they've worked all season with everything that we've overcome."

Faulkner joined Princeville junior Bethany Sennett as Weekly Post-area individuals to earn all-state status. Sennett finished 23rd in the girls race and became the second all-stater in Prince-ville history. The E-B girls finished fifth in the 1A team standings.

The races were held in near-perfect weather – overcast, dry, calm winds and temperatures in the mid-50s. Faulkner completed the 3-mile course in a personal-best 14:50.77.

"I didn't really care much about the time as much as the placement," Faulkner said. "Just stay in the top 10, top 12."

Stevenson was 27th, in a personal-record 15:17.16. Also scoring for E-B were sophomores Danny Sharp (36th, PR 14:50.77)

Tough mudders

Farmington conquers elements, Aurora Christian for playoff win

By JEFF LAMPE

For The Weekly Post

FARMINGTON – The elephant in the stadium at the Farmington football field last Saturday was weather.

Time was, rain would have been bad news for the Farmers. Not Saturday, though, in a Class 2A second-round playoff game against Aurora Christian and its Division I quarterback recruit Asa Johnson.

After seeing Johnson dissect Farmington on 12-for-19 passing for 148 yards and a 14-7 halftime lead, Farmers faithful should have been delighted with the downpour that ensued.

Throughout the final two quarters, rain fell steadily, Northern Illinois University recruit Johnson became less of a factor and Jack Gronewold and the Farmers defense took control in a 21-14 victory.

"I knew that they really relied on the pass. I know that we love to pass, but I don't know that we're married to it. I felt like they were married to it," Farmington Coach Toby Vallas said of his foe. "I felt like if both of us had our right hand tied behind our back, we'd win a left-handed fight. And I thought that's kind of what happened in that second half."

The win propels Farmington (11-0) into a quarterfinal showdown at El
